THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XIII.--NO. 41. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1873. WHOLE NO. 1,911.

OUTLINES.

French ministry has not resigned. Three earthquakes in Nevada. Laura Keane is dead. Republican majority in Minnesota will be greatly reduced.

THE CITY.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS. The pressure upon our columns on Sunday morning is so great that we are compelled to request advertisers to send in advertisements for that issue as early as possible.

Local Notes.

Send in advertisements early to-day. The Dorothen arrived at Glasgow from this port on the 23d ult.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Synopsis of the Proceedings. A regular meeting of the Board was held last night; present, the Mayor and Aldermen Moore, Grainger, Fishbale, Adrian, Rice, Hankins, Banks, and Brewington.

CITY ITEMS.

During the panic we must pour spirits down in order to keep our up. For that purpose, visit the Mozart saloon.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FOR RENT. UNTIL OCTOBER 1st, 1873, THAT DESIRABLE DWELLING, containing Five Rooms, situated on the east side of Fifth, between Market and Dock streets, and at present occupied by Mrs. Miles Costin.

The hopeful statement is published that the amount of legal tenders and specie on hand in the New York banks is $38,650,000, which is a half million more than twenty-five per cent. of reserve on deposit.

We are pleased to welcome John Hampden Chamberlayne back to the journalistic profession. His salutatory appears in the Norfolk Virginian of day before yesterday.

North Carolina Greys Virginia. The following telegram was received by Mr. N. B. Meade, Chairman of the Virginia State Executive Committee:

North Carolina sends greeting to Virginia. A noble work, a grand result. She is safe in the hand of her sons.

New Jersey's Next Legislature. The election in New Jersey attracted little interest, and the complete returns show a light vote, with considerable Democratic gains, though not enough to change the complexion of the Assembly.

The Canadian Political Crisis. The defeat of the Macdonald Ministry is a surprise. Press dispatches from Ottawa and Toronto have reflected the prevailing impression in Canada that Sir John would sustain himself.

Magistrates' Courts. Before Justice Gardner, yesterday: Jas. Chance, arrested on the charge of trespassing upon the premises of Winnie Willings. Case dismissed on the payment of costs.

Encouraging. In conversation with two or three gentlemen who have recently arrived in this city from Georgia and Alabama, we learn that the condition of affairs here in a financial and business point of view is absolutely cheerful and lively as compared with what they are in many of the larger towns and cities of those States.

Narrow Escape. A stranger, said to be a native of Switzerland, made a narrow escape from being run over by a train of cars near the Poor House a day or two since.

Attempted Robbery. An attempt was made Thursday night to break into the store of Peschan & Westerman, on North Water street. When the store was opened yesterday morning a hole was discovered bored through one of the rear windows. The thief or thieves were no doubt frightened from their purpose by one passing in the vicinity.

Invitation Accepted. Col. O. P. Meares of this city has received an invitation to deliver the address at the annual fair of the Sampson County Agricultural Society, at Clinton, on the 28th inst.

Ladies' Benevolent Society. We are requested to notify visitors that the supplies for distribution to the poor, which have heretofore been kept at Mr. Geo. Myers' store, have been removed to that of Mr. Huggins, on Market street, a few doors above Second.

State Agricultural Society. Among the appointees on the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society for the ensuing twelve months, published in the Raleigh papers, we notice the names of Col. S. L. Fremont and A. Pope, Esq., of this county.

The Cape Fear Teachers' Association holds a semi-monthly meeting at the Hemingway School House, near Boney Bridge, this (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock. All Teachers are invited.

The Scher. Joseph. Seger, Capt. Ellis, which lately visited this port, was nearly destroyed by fire on the 23rd ult., when about 100 miles to the Southeastward of Cape San Blas. She was bound from Pensacola to New Haven.

The Late Griffith J. McRee. In a communication in the last number of the Fayetteville Press, Mrs. Cornelia P. Spencer takes occasion to pay a very flattering compliment to the gentlemen of this city generally and to the late Griffith J. McRee particularly.

The Committee appointed to assess the damages and benefits accruing from the paving of Princess street, reported as follows: That the property owners pay one-third of the whole cost of said pavement; that each property owner pay in proportion of front feet owned by him; the total amount so paid to be equal to one-third of the cost of the whole, as follows: A. J. DeRosset, 72 feet, $52 50; Mitchell & Huggins, 41 feet, $29 93; James Dawson, 80 1/2 feet, $38 76; First National Bank, 106 1/2 feet, $77 74; P. Murphy, 157 feet, $114 61; Mrs. Margaret Davis, 114 feet, $83 28; Bank of New Haven, 43 feet, $30 86. Total, $447 48.

The Committee on Streets and Wharves reported that Nutt street had been opened; whereupon the Mayor was authorized to give the obligations of the city in favor of Sprunt & Hinson and Vick & Mebane for damages assessed. Wilder & Morton's building was permitted to remain on Nutt street until January, 1875.

The report of Dr. A. E. Wright, City Visiting Physician, relative to the City Hospital, was ordered placed on file.

J. A. Springer was allowed to erect offices with tin roofs on his premises on Mulberry, between Front and Water streets. Request of same to be allowed to lay a rail track foot of Mulberry street, was refused.

Petition of Rosenthal & Davis to be allowed to sell merchandise on the corner of Front and Market streets, was not granted, by reason of an ordinance to the contrary.

A resolution to increase the pay of the police force to $50 per month, was referred to the Committee on Police for report.

The Auditing Committee was instructed to make quarterly examinations of the Treasurer's books.

A motion to dispense with the present Detective force was referred to the Committee on Police for report.

The Committee on Streets and Wharves asked for and were granted further time in the matter of the Fourth Street Bridge.

The matter of lighting the street lamps was deferred for consideration until the first meeting in next month.

Gas lamps were ordered corner of Princess and Eighth and in Blount's Alley; also on Church street, to take the place of kerosene lamps. A gas light was also ordered placed at the dock foot of Chesnut street.

The Mayor was authorized to replace kerosene lamps with gas as fast as pipes are laid in the different localities.

Petition of Mrs. O. L. Fillyaw for reduction of taxes was referred to the Finance Committee.

Petition of Wm. Kellogg for abatement of taxes was returned from the Finance Committee with the recommendation that no action be taken. Concurred in.

Petition of the Princess Street Assessors for pay for services rendered was not granted.

Petition for a gas lamp on the north side of market dock was referred to Committee on Lights.

Adjourned to meet again next Thursday evening, the 13th inst., at 7 o'clock.

A Shooting Gallery. We learn that a lady from Vienna, Austria, has rented the lower story of the Eilers' building, southwest corner of Market and Water streets, for the purpose of opening a shooting gallery. Fine sport ahead for the young gentlemen.

Fayetteville Gazette. Two negroes, Albert Smith and Charles Walton, living in the northeastern part of the town, became engaged in an altercation Tuesday afternoon, when Smith seized an axe and struck Walton once in the side and twice on the head, inflicting very severe gashes. The physician thinks the wounded man will recover. The attack, we learn, was unprovoked, and was made in Walton's own house. Justice Baldwin committed Smith to jail.

Rev. John Russell, of Michigan, Grand Lecturer of the Order of Good Templars, will address the people of Goldsboro on the 30th inst. He will speak in Fayetteville on the 24th.

Spirits Turpentine. The new brick bank in Wilson will be completed this week. Wadesboro has a Temperance Council now with fifteen members. Twenty-four prisoners in Fayetteville jail, seven for capital offences. Fayetteville has Hartley, the elocutionist, to lecture on the 2nd prox. The error of credit spoken of by the Gazette arose through an inadvertence. The Fayetteville Fair Grounds race track is in splendid order, says the Gazette. A new hotel called the Well House has been opened in Goldsboro by Mr. Wm. R. Barringer. North Carolina, Conference M. E. Church meets in Goldsboro, Dec. 10th, Bishop Keene, to preside. The Directors of the new Farmers' Savings Bank, of Charlotte, elected E. P. Smith President, Thos L. Vail Cashier. At the Weldon Fair, Messrs. McGee & Camp of Nash received the premium of $50, for the best bale of cotton. Rocky Mt. Mail: Bennie Mann of Nash aged about 12 years, was thrown by his pony, one day last week, and broke his arm. Rev. Dr. Wheat has taken charge of the Episcopal Church of Greensboro, and preached his first sermon on last Sabbath. Chamberlain married off 22 white and 24 colored couples in October. Five white interments; and 6 colored in same county. The Advance says Mr. James R. Barnes, an old citizen of Wilson county, was found dead near his residence a day or two since; it is supposed he died of heart disease. Wadesboro Argus: Mr. Eliel Woodburn informs us that on last Friday night the barn of Mr. Dennis Tarlton, in this county was destroyed by fire with its contents. The Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina convenes in Raleigh on Monday, the 1st day of December next, being the 87th Annual Communication of that body. Charlotte Observer: Quite a number of emigrants passed through Charlotte last night on their way Southwest and West, going via Montgomery. They are from Davidson county, in this State. The Wilson Advance makes just complaint that assistant revenue collectors who dragged citizens to Raleigh who had their receipts, to force them to pay their taxes, are not indicted for their fraud upon the Government. Fayetteville is getting into notoriety for crime. The Raleigh News says: A white man, whose name we did not learn, was committed to the county jail for the crime of rape upon a little white girl only three years of age. The first number of the Advance since its removal from Battleboro to Wilson appears with the name of Henry G. Williams, Esq., associated with that of his son, Mr. James A. Williams, as editor. Mr. Henry G. Williams is one of the vigorous and practical minds of the State. Sentinel: A young man of high standing, a respected member of the Church at Kinston, aged about 18 or 19 years, mysteriously disappeared on Saturday last a week ago. At last accounts his whereabouts was unknown and it is feared some evil has befallen him. He resided about three miles from Kinston. Gazette: I. A. Murchison, Esq., Chief Marshal of the Cumberland county 11th Annual Fair, has made the following appointments of Assistant Marshals: J. H. Currie, W. G. McDermid, G. D. Elliott, J. L. Smith, Newton Robinson, Robert Bryan, D. H. Marsh, J. M. Matthews, Jno. Kerr, Jas. Robinson, Wm. Whitted and Sydney McDaniel.
