New York Journal of Commerce. The light vote of Tuesday does not mirly test the strength of parties, but the result affords here and there some indication of future tendencies in politics. It appears to us that the Republican party, in obedience to the law which governs the rise, progress and decay of all mundane things, is now slowly traveling the downward path. In its day it has been the most compact and formidable and best handled party ever organized in the United States. And it is still powerful in numbers, and vigorous, and may retain way for years to come in the nation councils. But it is not as strong as it was. Every new election saps a little at the foundations of its strength. Anti-Republican governors and other officers are elected in States heretofore wedded to the Administration. Republican majorities are greatly reduced in legislatures, or overthrown in one branch or the other, or both. These gains are adding another opposition Senator now and then to the list, and the same revolution is making a material gain in the political minority of the House. It is an indisputable fact that the Republican party is weakening—explain it how one may. Apologists of the party say that their voters did not "General Apathy" is charged with the default. But the same neglect should be marked in the opposition ranks, if the "apathy" is really "general." There is a falling off observable in the Republican vote, which accounts for Tuesday's results the Democrats, the Conservatives, the Independents, the Farmers, or whatever else the Anti-Republicans designate themselves. This lack of Republican courage, enthusiasm or interest is the same in effect as lack of numerical strength. When voters of any party stay away from the polls, that party is just as really on the de-cline as if the delinquents came out and voted against it.

Returns of the Virginia Election-Composition of the Legislature.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth has received duplicates of officand returns from eighty-seven counties and cities. At this office we have received semi-official returns from all the remaining counties except Warwick, Wise, and Buchanan. These returns aggregate as follows: Kemper .....121,189

Majority for Kemper ...... 26,540

Conservative gain in State (less three counties not heard from) ......8,563 The remaining counties gave Walker a majority of 354.

The above figures may be slightly hanged by the official returns to the Serretary of the Commonwealth. As som as all the returns are received by that officer we will publish the full woterof the State by counties. The General Assembly will be con-statuted as follows: Senate Conservative, 33; Radicals, 10; Conservative majority, 23. House of Delegates-Conservatine, 100; Radicals, 32; Conservative majority, 68. Joint ballot-Conservatives, 133; Radicals, 42; majority, 91; Conservative gain on joint ballot, 2.

The names of the successful candidates for the House in Bland, Buchanan, Wise and Lancaster are not reported, but two are known to be Conservative and the other is a Radival. - Dispatch.

- Charlotte Democrat: While ing the present crisis to carry on their business, and while thousands of operatives in Factories are being discharged for the want of money to pay expenses, it seems the height of folly and foolishness for mechanics in New York and other cities to be striking for higher wages. But such suicicidal conduct is the result of secret societies and class combinations. If the working people of the North can get food for their families this winter, they will have cause to be thankful. Those who strike, or encourage strikes, may blame themselves when hunger pinches them, and when "boss-"us" are not able to continue business.

- Charlotte Democrat; North Carolina is put down as having seventeen factories, while the census really gives her twenty-eight which make cloths and five which make only yarn. These have three steam engines and thirty-three water wheels.
The capital employed is $1,130,900, and the twages paid out $182.000, while the reduce of materials consumed amounts to $363,809; then the gross amount of sales is reported at $1,280,035. Thus it appears there is a net profit of $133,275, making within $24.98 of 12 per cent. upon the capital seported as invested. Since the publication of the cen-

Locked Up in His Own House.

A rather annoying trick was played upon one of our German friends, who keeps a store on Fourth street, between Church and Castle, on Sunday last. He had occasion during the day to enter the store for the purpose of getting some cigars for his own use. In going through the back way he had to pass through a room from which there is an entrance to the store. He left the key in the lock of the outer door while getting his cigars, and upon returning a few moments afterwards he found that during the brief interval some one had entered the room, carried off a chair and locked the door upon him, making him a prisoner in his own house. After some trouble and inconvenience he managed to gain his liberty, when he went around among his friends in the neighborhood to see if any of them had played a trick upon him, as he at first thought was the case, but could find no one who knew anything of the matter.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:

W. West and Scipio Hill, charged with being drunk and disorderly on the streets Saturday night, were found guilty and each required to pay a fine of $20 and the costs. John Fitzgerald, a seaman, arraigned on the charge of being drunk on the streets,

Two young men, charged with insulting police officer Daniel Haines, were found guilty, one of them being required to pay a fine of $10, and judgment being suspended in the case of the other on the payment of

A colored painter by the name of Joseph Johnson, in the employ of Mr. J. A. Parker, who was engaged in painting the Murchison building on Front street, next north of the Bank of New Hanover, yesterday, met with a severe accident. He was in the act of ascending a ladder and had reached height of about eight or ten feet when he lost his balance and fell head foremost upon the pavement beneath. When taken up it was found that he had received a severe contusion on the forehead. The wound was properly dressed by a physician, after which the patient was taken to the City

A Healthy Organization.

A society has been formed among the young men in that part of the city known as Dry Pond which has for its object, par ticularly, the encouragement of strict morality on the part of its members, discountenancing drunkenness, profamity and other bad habits. In fact an indulgence in any of these pratices is not only strictly forbidden, but evidences the offender to fine or expulsion. Such an organization should have the best wishes of all good citizena. The society is known as the "Brothers

We learn that the friends of the proposed Railroad from Point Caswell to Clinton will hold a meeting at the latter place during the approaching Sampson County Fair for the purpose of considering matters connected with the enterprise, among which will be the question as to whether it will be most expedient to construct a narrow gauge or wooden road. It seems to be a settled fact that the road will be built at an early Difficulty on Water Street-Big Excitement-The Mayor Has to Disperse the Crowd.

A difficulty occurred in Mr. J. H. Neff's saloon on South Water street, yesterday afternoon, between James Heaton, Republican member of the Legislature from this county, and a German by the name of Issac Heichberg, during which a considerable amount of blood was spit, but to acrious wounds were inflicted. News of the row got noised on the streets and two or three hundred excited individuals of at ages, sizes and complexions gathered in the vicinity, but they were shortly after dispersed by order of the Mayor, who happened on the spot. As the doors were immediately closed and the combatants could not be seen, nothing reliable could be learned as to the origination of the difficulty or any facts of importance concerning it. The excitement, however, was equal to a third-class fire and was kept up for some time. It was reported on the streets that one or more discharges of fite-arms were heard during the melee, but with what truth we are unable to say with certainty. "Let us have peace !"

swallowed a Plu.

A little child, about three months old who had swallowed a pin, was taken to Dr. Norcom yesterday, who, after some difficulty, succeeded in relieving the little sufferer, The pin, which was about an inch and a half long, was found at the root of the tongue, where it was imbedded in the tissues of the throat about two-thirds of its length. Pins are dangerous things to swallow and parents should be careful to keep them out of the way of their children.

- The tobacco factory of Capt. J. L. B. White, near Henderson, in Granville county, was destroyed by fire Sunday night. - Raleigh News: Troubles crowd thick and fast upon the devoted head of Peck, the ex-Revenue Collector of the and District. He has been arrested, tried be-fore a Commissioner and bound over to the United States Circuit Court in this city, on the charge of embezzlement of public funds.

- The next annual session of the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Con-ference will convene at Graham the 14th inst., 10 o'clock, a. m. The introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. W. T. Walker, of Monticello, N. C. The President of the General Convention will be man, servant of Capt. Lawrence, was passing by the slaughter-pen of Mr. Yearby in the north-western part of the city, on Friday evening last, when a feroclous dog jumped into the street and made a furious attack upon her. Her screams brought timely assistance, but for which she would have been torn to death. As it was she was frightfully mangled.

- Newbern Times: Wm. H. Oliver, Esq. has served a verbal notice on the Mayor and Councilmen of this city to the effect that he forbids them, in the name of the taxpayers, expending any more money than the sum allowed by the charter, namely, $5,000 per year. The city has already exceeded the sum for this year, including the appropriations to the fire department.

There is a fair prospect for another injunction suit on the carpet and a bill of costs for the city to pay.

Raleigh News: John Armstrong, Esq., of this city, left for New York in obedience to a telegram on Sunday, stating that his brother, a prominent business man of New York, but living in Brooklyn, had mysteriously disappeared and fears are entertained that he had been foully dealt with. He drew a large sum of money from his banking house in Brooklyn on Thursday ness in New York. Since he left the bank nothing has been heard of him by his friends. He was to have been married Tuesday, the 11th.

— Cleaveland Banner: We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Joseph Costner, aged about 83 years, who lived in the north west portion of this county, in what is known as the Scenen settlement. It seems that Mr. Costner was living by himself, and that he went home on the night of the 5th inst in a state of intervication and from inst, in a state of intoxication and from some cause not known he fell into the fire and when found by a man who called to see him he was burned to death, and was lying on the hearth in front of the fire. This is only another instance of the evils of intoxicating liquors.

- Asheville Pioneer . The Deaver was a highly respected citizen and his un-timely death is deplored by a large number his Honor Judge Dick, on Thursday morn-ing last, for the arrest of Hon. W. A. Smith, at Morganton some time ago. The Judge decided that Mr. Eastmond being a Judicial officer had transcended his bonds as such, and removed him from office. He was strong in his denunciation against United States Commissioners traveling around and hunting up evidence in matters to be tried by them. This should be a warning to others occupying the same position not to show so much zeal in the execution of the law. This his honor decided to be the duty of the Revenue officers, and for that reason the rule against Mr. Deavor was discharged, and he is restored to office. - Charlotte Democrat: The stockholders of the Farmers' Saving Bank at Charlotte, met on Tuesday last and organized for the purpose of putting the bank in operation. About $80,000 of stock was subscribed-sixty thousand of which was represented in the meeting in person or by proxy. Five per cent. in cash was paid, according to the requirement of the charter. The following gentlemen were elected a Board of Directors: Saml. P. Smith, Allen Macaulay, J. W. Wadsworth, J. W. Mc-Murray, W. W. Grier, Baxter H. Moore, E. C. Grier, J. P. Houston and R. D. Collins. The Board elected Saml. P. Smith, Esq. President of the bank, and Thomas L. Vail
