turnentine 40 cents; rosin $2 60@$2 65.

Either Spain had the right to capture a vessel carrying American colors, or she did not have such right. She can run vessels into British waters and there take them, or she cannot. She has the right to shoot prisoners in cold blood, or she has not.

Spain is responsible to the United States for a horrible outrage. She is said to be responsible to Great Britain for an invasion of the domain of that country. She is undoubtedly responsible to the moral sentiment of Christendom which she has set at defiance and outraged.

The act of the volunteers is the act of Spain. If the President of Spain will do all in his power to make reparation, he will in part vindicate the honor of his people.

A great indignation mass meeting will be held in New York Monday evening. The country is excited, and asks, as it ought to ask, for action. What will Grant do? He has but one honorable course before him-ask the Spanish government to punish Burriel and the others guilty of the inhuman deed of the 6th and 7th of Nevember, to restrain the volunteers and to protect American interests in the island. To consent to act as Spain's assistant in policing Cuba would be humiliation. The insult must be resented, and the one way to do so is to hold the Madrid government responsible.

THE MONETARY SITUATION IN NEW YORK.

Cheerful Feeling in Money Circles-Dry Goods Sales-The Advance in Gold.

[Herald, Friday.]

There was quite a cheerful feeling in money circles yesterday upon the cumulative evidence which comes to us from all sides of improvement in the general situation. It is gratifying to note in this connection, and as forming a helpful part of it, the ready acquiescence of operatives and work ing men generally in a reduction of wages, while the hint before made, that the stoppage of many manufactories was more largely due to the purpose to bring about this result than from any other cause, is shown in the rapid reopening of many establishments that have been closed for the past few weeks.

THE GREAT DRY GOODS' SALES now going on in this city help, too this result in stimulating a freer circulation of money. The banks of this city now announce themselves as holding $27,000,000 in legal tenders, their rapid gain in this respect being no doubt in part attributable to the movement of funds here to meet dry goods purchases.

There was something of the old fever of 1862, 1863, 1864 and 1865 in men's blood in the Gold Room, and if a heavily armed ship had only fired a salute in the bay it is possible gold might have jumped out of sight upon the sssumption that the city was being bombarded.

THE ADVANCE IN GOLD

was not, however, without grounds. The advance of the rates of foreign exchange makes the shipment of gold this way no longer profitable, while the refusal of the Bank of England to further advance its minimum rate yesterday and the easier feeling in respect to money in the open market compelled to sell unless the needful action are accepted as indications that the movement is thought there to be arrested.

- The Fayetteville papers report success. The Gazette, dated Thursday, says: We do not hesitate to say, (and we are sup-ported in the opinion by many who attended both) that Farmers' Hall and Food and Condiment Hall surpass the same departments at the State Fair. In Floral Hall we have had in previous years larger exhibitions, but none more attractive. The articles are very beautiful. In Manufactures and Mechanics' the showing is good. In Live Stock the animals are fine, and the entries of about average number. The poultry is very good. Up to last evening there were nearly 1,000 entries, and many more are to come in to-day. - Charlotte Observer: The villain who attempted to do violence to Mrs. Gray Utley last night, was a white man of me-dium height, red face and whiskers; and he was dressed in a suit of homespun clothes. He wore a light hat, Look out

A very handsome tablet has been erected in St. Thomas' Catholic church, in memory of the Rev. Thomas Murphy, formerly the beloved pastor of that church, who died here shortly after the yellow fever scourge in 1862. Many of our readers will remember the patient devotedness of Father Services at St. Paul's (Prot. Episcopal) Murphy, who, when a dreadful pestilence stalked abroad through our city, zealously labored in the cause of humanity, serving all without distinction of creed or sect. His untiring efforts were alike for all. And when the cry of death had ceased, and those who had fled from the scourge returned, Father Murphy, wearied with his long and First Baptist Church, corner of Market faithful ministrations and watchings at the bedsides of the sick and dying, was himself taken sick and died after a short illness and his bereaved congregation bore his remains to their present resting place beneath the church. The tablet is a grateful tribute to his memory and we are gratified to learn from Fathers Gross and White that many non-Catholics in our city, by liberal donations, materially aided their efforts and these of the congregation in procuring the ple in the basement of the church at 3 o'clock P. quent occurrence at this season of the year. ed, it is about on a par with everything else, the prices being proportionate to these now paid for other articles of produce and manufacture brought here for sale. If timber getters should stop bringing their timber to market of course the mills will be compelled to cease operations, but until this is the case (which is most unlikely) we see no son at present why they should do so, and we do not believe they will. At least we are led to this impression by a conversation with some of the mill owners themselves.

Relief for Tax-Payers. Sheriff Black will leave for Raleigh to morrow morning with a petition, numerously signed by our citizens, together with a resolution of the Board of County Commissioners, which we publish elsewhere, praying that the General Assembly, which meets on that day, will, in view of the pressent unsettled condition of financial affairs. grant some relief to our people by extending the time for selling the property of those whose taxes remain unpaid. To give some idea of the necessity of such relief on the part of the Legislature we would state that there are now upwards of one thousand pieces of property advertised for sale for delinquent taxes in this county, representof discount at the regular meeting ing in the aggregate valuation over one million of dollars, which the Sheriff will be shall be taken. It seems to be the universal desire of our people that such relief may be granted, and we hope that the documents which Sheriff Black will lay before the Legislature may receive the early and favorable consideration of the members.

Church Improvements.

A steeple has been erected on St. Ste phen's A. M. E. Church, corner of Fifth and Red Cross streets, forty feet in height from the top of the roof, in which a bell was placed in position on Friday last. The steeple and bell together cost about $1,400, the amount paid for the latter being $625. The money for these improvements has been raised within the last seven weeks and almost if not entirely among the members of the church. The bell weighs 1,200 pounds and sounds very smoothly and distinctly. It was tested yesterday between I and 2 o'clock, and, being at an unseasonable many conjectures as to what it meant.

Several mill men called on us yesterday to request that we would correct a false impression which has gotten afloat calculated of running regularly in this city. They have of course felt the influence of the pressure in money matters in common with all other trades, professions and businesses, all orders which have come to hand and to purchase timber as usual when it is offered in the market. Of the five mills, those of Messrs. Jas. H. Chadbourn & Co., Northrop & Cumming and Colville & Co., have not stopped at all. Messrs. Kidder & Sens have suspended operations for a short time
