TOPICS OF THE DAY

The November Elections.
Of the result in Virginia the New York Evening Post remarks: It is quite possible that the large majority of the Conservatives of Virginia and of the whole South are at least as well disposed towards the blacks as the men usually known as carpet-baggers...

The North-western future is thus depicted from the standpoint of the Illinois delegate by the Chicago Tribune: A year ago every town in Illinois was in the possession of one of the old parties. Today they cannot together claim more than forty out of the one hundred and two.

We observe that Senator Humphrey, of the district composed of Wayne and Duplin counties, has prepared a bill, which he has printed in full in the Charlotte Democrat, for the satisfactory adjustment of the debt.

So now in New York what are known as the Republicans declined to accept any nominations of their own, but in a State Convention formally elected the nominees from the Republican and Democratic tickets, and succeeded in electing them, or having them elected. They, indeed, controlled the elections in that great State.

The Christian News and Courier says: It is worthy of note that, last year, the tax for the general expenses of the State Government was five mills. This year seven mills are asked for.

These are the leading features of the bill. The other sections make the past due coupons on these bonds re-assured in payment of State taxes, exempt the bonds from taxation, provide machinery for carrying the act into operation and reader, it is the duty of the Legislature after four years to provide a sinking fund, either by selling the stocks of the State, or by an increase of taxation at the rate of one hundred thousand dollars per annum.

Yesterday in New York a verdict of guilt was brought against William M. Tweed, charged with corruption in the county.

This gratifying result was altogether unexpected. So often had the arch rascal escaped justice that men had begun to think he could not be convicted.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

Barwell Fair commences on the 24th.
The Smelter Watchman rejoices in a new dress.
The store of James C. Lynch, near Myersville, was broken open and robbed a few evenings ago, of general merchandise, to the value of five hundred dollars in currency.

We learn from the Columbia Phoenix that the money stringency has caused the discharge of a considerable number of workmen by the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta and Greenville Railroad Companies.

It has been discovered in France that the sheath of the hop-stalk is superior even to tags for making paper.

If we trust alone to Siskies, we will reap but a poor harvest of exhortation for the Virginia outrage, says a Southern paper.

St. Louis congratulates herself that she is "second." Chicago thinks she is nothing else.
A cable dispatch announces the death, in England, of Mr. George Jordan, an actor of some repute.

Cuban Excitement - Naval Preparations - Some Ex-Confederates Actions for the War.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.
Secretary Robeson is not expected to return here for several days.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.
The general impression seems to be settling down to the conviction that we are to have war, which, however, does not seem to be shared in by any considerable extent by prominent officials.

A Warning to Young Men.
The American girl of books is an ideal existence. The real girl, who has just returned from the city, and is occupying herself with preparations for the approaching winter, is not at all difficult to describe.

Every man interested in legitimate trade and production should be on the alert and every constituency should urge its members to announce themselves early in favor of the financial reform that looks to an enlargement of the currency.

The Philadelphia Press is of opinion that the status in Spain will have much to do with the finality of the Virginia affair. If Castelar asks for help to put down the savages in Cuba, will not Carlos put him down for his sympathy with America, which has always longed for the island?

Mean while the fourth member walked in. He saw the situation at a glance. He could not ask the reverend gentlemen to rise, nor could the others say that it was time. They did neither. And that is how it happened, almost the exact reverse of the case, that the card quartette lost, and the little game between St. Charles and the other eye but other contentions, enjoyed his cigar and his joke at one and the same time.
