THE VOLUNTEERS SPOILING FOR A FIGHT.

The volunteers in Cuba are perfectly rampant. The dispatches of vesterday indicate a feverish state of feeling in Havana. The Captain General has been forced by the pressure to resign, saying that he is unable to carry out the orders of the Madrid government. The volunteers are said to be purchasing ships with the intention of resisting the surrender of the Virginius and the prisoners even to the point of war with this country.

If subsequent dispatches confirm these exciting reports the situation will once more assume a grave aspect. Of course a war between the United States and the Spanish government on one hand and the Volunteers on the other would be of short duration. Out of the complication may arise the annexation of the beautiful island or its independence of Spain.

The tenor of the dispatches received last night is that the Washington government will deal gently with the Cuban question.

HE NEXT BLECTION

The meeting of the State Executive Committee of the opposition party in North Carolina, which is to be held in Raleigh on Tuesday next, is for the purpose of organizing for the campaign of 1874. While it may seem early in the day for commencing preparation it really is not too soon, and we hope that there may be a ful attendance of the committee. A number of prominent gentlemen are expected to be present to confer with the committee in the arrangement of Mr. Worth argued that his amendment was a necessary guarantee against fraud; that the sale of two millions was sufficient to finish it to Asheville, and money should not be accumulated until needed.

Mr. Humphrey explained that it would require the sale of several millions to purchase the stock of the private stockholders in the North Carolina Railroad and pay off the debt now pressing the W. N. C. R. R.

Mr. Love opposed the adoption of Mr. W.'s amendment. Here a compromise was made by Messrs. Humphrey and Worth-Mr. W. withdrawing his original amendment and accepting instead an amendment authorizing the sale of $3,500. 000 of the bonds for all purposes, of purchases of stock, payment of debts

LITTLE & Co.-Living Age. City Free Schools. These schools have just completed the first two months of the annual session. The books of the Superintendent show a total enrollment of 993 pupils, 359 of which are white and 634 colored. Twenty teachers are employed, fourteen white and six colored. Six different buildings are used for school purposes, and these are so located as to afford school privileges to all our inhabitants. All the branches requisite to a good English education are taught in these schools. They are freely opened to all children between the ages of six and twentyone, and the Committee feel confident that they will be able to provide for all the children that may apply for admittance. Considering that this is the first session in which anything like a system of city public schools has been maintained in Wilmington, those interested feel encouraged in view of the above facts. They can but hope that in a few years our system of schools may rival those of Richmond, Atlants and other sister cities. A Travelling Pig. A gentleman who arrived here a day or two since from Little River, S. C., says that while he and his companions, who were in carts, were passing a farm house on the road, a pig commenced following them. Some of the party dismounted several times and attempted to drive the little porker back, but without success. Piggy wanted to see the world and was bent on taking the trip. He was finally left to pursue his Steamer North State, on her way to Fayette reached "Easy Hill," at Brunswick Ferry, about thirty-eight miles from where he started. It seems that the owner of the pig had occasion to visit the city on Thursday and on his arrival at "Easy Hill" he saw the pig and recognized it as being his property. 'Squire Taylor purchased the animal and will exhibit him at our Fair.

Rush University.

It is intended to be a first-class institution and is expected to be in successful operation within the next twelve months. The Trustees in this State are W. H. Thurber and T. H. Lomax of this city, F. B. Moore, W. J. Moore, G. W. Grange and H. C. Phillips.

It is to be hoped they will roost high. - The North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, meets at Goldsbore on Wednesday, the 10 inst. Bishop Keene is to preside.

Concordia society. At a regular meeting of the ladies of the Concordia · Society the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

President-Mrs. N. Jacobi. Vice President-Mrs. A. Liebman. Treasurer-Mrs. E. Blumenthal. Secretary-Mrs. B. Weill.

Directors-Mrs. A. Shrier, Mrs. B. Newman, Mrs. R. Greenberg, Mrs. A. David, Mrs. S. H. Fishblate. Trustee-A. Wronski.

Among the rumors on our streets yesterday was one to the effect that W. A. Green, colored, now one of the Justices of the Peace for this township, intends to urge his claims to the pesition of Collector of the port. It is said that he expects to go to work in earnest in the matter and will leave no stone unturned in the effort to accomplish his object.

Another report was that Geo. L. Mabson, accompanied by Maj. W. A. Smith, are to leave Raleigh for Washington City this evening, where they go to urge the claims of the former to the position of Postmaster of this Clinton and Point Caswell Road. We learn that the proposed meeting of the friends of the Clinton and Point Caswell Railroad, which was to have been held in the former place during the session of the late Fair, did not take place, it being deemed expedient to hold the first meeting in the interest of the proposed enterprise at Point Caswell. This meeting, we understand, will come off sometime between our Fair and Christmas. It is understood that a wooden road has been decided upon.

Counterfelts. Persons who are so fortunate as to receive money during these dull times are cautioned to look out for counterfelts, as such bills are known to be in circulation in this city. One of the denomination of $20 was passed off on a merchant, but by the aid of a policeman he was lucky enough to find the individual from whom he received it and got a genuine bill in its place.

Caught in the Act. Two colored men were detected last night in an attempt to rob Mrs. Alderman's millinery store, corner of Front and Mul berry streets. Mr. J. J. O'Brien, who happened in the vicinity, was watching their movements and just as they were on the point of accomplishing their object he se cured one of them and marched bim off to the Guard House. The other escaped.

To the Press, A cordial invitation is extended by the officers of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association to the Press of this and neighboring States to attend our Fair next week. Upon their arrival they will please make themselves known to some officer of the Asso-

Plat Sunk. A flat loaded with wood, the property o E. H. McQuigg, Esq., was run into on Thursday night, near Kelly's Cove, by the own course and he never halted until he ville, and sunk. All hands escaped, but trouble will be experienced in raising the flat and saving the wood.

> The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of Thos. Green, harged with resisting an officer in the dis charge of his duty, who was found guilty and required to pay a fine of $10 and the costs, being one-fifth of the penalty in such cases made and provided.

Magistrates Court. W. H. Myers was arraigned before Jus. tice S. VanAmringe, yesterday, on the charge of committing assault and battery upon the person of W. H. Moore. Case dismissed at defendant's costs.

LOOK TO YOUR FEET .- Dr. Deboit, Surgeon Chiropodist, of Philadelphia, has just come to our city and is stopping at the Clifford Hotel, on Market St., and will remain a few days in practice. His specialty is treating diseases of the feet-such as extracting corns, bunions, ingrowing nalls, etc. His recommendations from the press and certificates from some of our leading citizens are certainly very flattering, and prove him an adept in his profession. The samples of corns of which he showed us a bottle full are evidence of a great deal of suffering corked up effectually. His certificates show that the operations are painless, and without inconvenience afterwards to patients.

Ledies and others desiring to consult the Doctor will be attended at their residences by leaving a note at the above named hotel for the Doctor. Dr Deboit also treats stammering and other lingual defects, and challenges the worst cases for consul-
