Mr. Cassidey, the Clerk of the Court, produced the record of the conviction of David Martin, charged in the bill of indictment now pending as the principal felon. Objection was made to its reception on the ground that judgment of death having been pre nounced thereon an appeal had been taken turned no answer. He then remarked to from that judgment to the Supreme Court the stevedore, "They must be dead." He Mr. Empie insisted that that appeal vacated not only the judgment but the entire con viction also. The Solicitor in reply conended that such was not the effect of the appeal; that the conviction was not disdead and the others nearly in the same turbed; that the verdict and all the other proceedings remained. The effect of the condition. Capt. Henrichson immediappeal was simply to vacate the judgment and he cited authorities. In addition he said that he had no other or better evidence to offer in his judgment to prove the guilt of the principal, and that proof was indis for, and then the three others, who were pensable to the further prosecution of the indictment. The Judge asked if the State had no other evidence for the prosecution than this record. The Solicitor then said the State had no further evidence to offer and the evidence before the Court was not sufficient in his opinion to justify a conviction of the defendant, whereupon the Court directed the Clerk to enter a verdict of "not guilty," and the defendant was discharged.

We understand that in fact the murder of Willie Carter by David Martin cannot be established in any other way than by his own confession. These confessions are of course no evidence against Mrs. Carter and was therefore useless to prolong the trial, there being no evidence outside of these declarations and the evidence of ill-treatment, which was ruled out, to implicate her in any way. The afternoon session was occupied in the disposal of the following cases: State 28. George Waddell, assault with intent to kill John E. Dennis. Rev." C. W. Warren alias L. F Horton Turns Up Again-He Tries His Luck in West Virginia-His Precipitate Flight, &c.

From the following letter from a Minister at Parkersburg, West Virginia, it will be seen that "Rev." C. W. Warren alias F. Horton has again turned up. The letter is addressed to a gentleman of this city and will be found of interest as detailing the latest intelligence of the movements of the "Wanderer" up to the moment of his last precipitate flight: PARKERSBURG, Dec. 26.

I am very much obliged for the pains you have taken to give me information respecting Rev. C. W. Warren, "falsely so-called." He came here with credentials signed by Bishop Cavanaugh, and professed to have been a member of the Louisiana Confer ence, but had a certificate of location. Said he was tired of the South and wanted to unite with this Conference (West Virginia) of Methodist Episcopal Church, or with the Virginia Conference of the same church. He called himself Lucius F. Horton. He preached here, and at Velcano, in this district, with great acceptability. The people, generally, were delighted with his preaching and lecturing, and he made himself very agreeable in the families and social circle. The portrait you sent me is an excellent one—the man exactly; also your description of him. Rev. L. F. Hor ton here, was Rev. C. W. Warren in Wil-mington, N. C. He behaved here with ropriety and decorum. The circumstances hat aroused suspicion were the following The minister's wife at Volcano noticed the name of "Warren" on some of his shirts that he left out to be washed. He said. lowever, that they had belonged to a cousin that had died recently. Then he had teld the brethren there that he had preached and lectured in Wilmington, N. He said that it had belonged to a brother-in-law of his, but he had one of his own. Afterwards they examined his carpet sack and he had credentials for Rev-Coplin as well as Horton. Then Bro. Wayman, pastor at Volcano, wrote to a member of Louisiana Conference for information concerning him, and received answer that he was "a fraud, impestor, a wretch," &c. Horton, otherwise Warren, after preaching at Volcano awhile, came and preached in this place, Parkersburg, and also lectured on Temperance. He mingled freely with the people and behaved with great propriefamily were much pleased with him. He was to have dined at my house on the day he left with Dr. Rosser, of your church, and Rev. W.
