THIRTY-FOURTH DAY.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, JAN. 18.

By Mr. McCabe, petition from citizens of Edgecombe, asking that Edgecombe county be placed in the 6th Judicial District. Referred. The bill to provide for the support of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind passed its third reading. The bill for the adjustment of the State debt was taken up at 12 o'clock special order. Mr. Norwood offered two amendments.

The question then recurred upon Mr. Norwood's amendments as amended. The pith of Mr. Norwood's amendments is contained in the last resolution, to wit: "That upon a review of the whole subject, we submit it to the enlightened consideration of Congress, if the General Government would not act wisely by assuming the payment of so much of the debt of the State of North Carolina as in justice and equity ought to be paid."

Messrs. Norwood and Cunningham spoke in advocacy of the amendments, and Mr. Humphrey in opposition. Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, offered an amendment, which we will publish to-morrow, as the further consideration of the bill comes up as unfinished business.

By Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, a bill to authorize the town of Hickory to issue bonds for the completion of the Carolina Central Railway and for other purposes. Referred.

LOWRY'S RAVAGED.

Large Band of Robbers in the Central Counties—Half of Them Women—Their Mode of Life and Some of Their Operations.

A correspondent at Jackson Hill N. C., writes to the Rockingham Spirit, under date of the 4th inst., as follows:

"I write to inform you that this country is infested with a band of robbers similar to the Lowry band of Robeson. They have been in the woods ever since the war; were a very dangerous, troublesome gang in those troublous days, and have lost none of their mean qualities since. They 'use' most of their time in the western part of Davidson counties—making occasional forays into Richmond, Moore, Montgomery, Stanley and Rowan counties. The band numbers about 25, including some ten or a dozen women. They camp out, as Lowry, and steal everything they can lay their hands on. A few days ago they made a raid on one of the most respectable citizens of Davidson, a Mr. Washington Harris, broke into his store, taking some $40 in gold and silver, and carrying off a considerable quantity of merchandise. They left in the store a number of clubs with which they went provided to defy any opposition that might be offered to their operations. One of the party named Nance, who was engaged in the robbery of Mr. Harris, has been arrested and confined in Asheboro jail, and hopes are entertained of capturing others of the gang. The people inhabiting the region of country where these villains operate will not say anything about the band for fear of being murdered or burned out of house and home." Our correspondent thinks that it is incumbent on the General Government to devise some means of ridding the country of this dangerous band of marauders.

Lee Literary Society. Pursuant to announcement, the Alumni and Senior Members of the Wilmington High School convened at the Library Rooms on Friday night last for the purpose of organizing themselves into an association for their mutual moral and social improvement.

The meeting came to order by Mr. Jos. N. Hintor being called to the Chair, and Mr. Fowler being requested to act as Secretary.

Upon assuming the Chair, the President addressed the meeting at some length in a very able and interesting speech.

By motion of Mr. N. Cowan Green, the President appointed a committee of four to draft suitable Constitution and By-laws for the government of the Society, and report the same at the next meeting. President appointed upon the committee Messrs. W. Cowan Green, Del. Evans, Thos. G. Pickett and Reuben H. Pickett.

It was unanimously resolved that this Society be known and designated as The Lee Literary Society, and that its meetings be held on the first and third Friday nights of each month.

An election for Corresponding Secretary was entered into, which resulted in the unanimous selection of Mr. Thos. G. Pickett, after which the meeting adjourned.

Almost a Fire.

Considerable excitement was created Friday night, about 8 o'clock, in the vicinity of the corner of Fourth and Orange streets, by the burning out of a foul chimney, the sparks from which were communicating with the roof. The family commenced moving their furniture, but were soon informed that the danger was over. There was no general alarm.

Fire in "Brooklyn"—Three Buildings Destroyed. Last night, about 7 o'clock, the alarm of fire was sounded, and was finally discovered to be located on Fifth, between Taylor and Nixon streets, in the section of the city known as "Brooklyn." The fire was first discovered bursting out of the south side or end of the house owned by Mr. Wm. Campaign and occupied by a man by the name of Williams, whose family had not moved into it, he having lately come here from the country and they not having yet followed him. We learn that Mr. Williams was not present at the time, the house being closed up, so no information could be gained as to the origination of the fire. The wind was blowing quite strong at the time and the house was soon enveloped in flames.

The house adjoining, owned by Mr. Chas. Huffman and occupied by a man by the name of Mason, soon caught, there being only a gateway between them, and it too was speedily wrapped in the fiery mantle, the flames speedily communicating to the next house South of it, owned and occupied by Mr. Samuel Scarborough. All three of the buildings were comparatively new, and, fed by the strong current of air, were soon a mass of ruins. A small house just North of the one in which the fire originated, owned and occupied by a colored woman named Sophia Merrick, was badly damaged in the effort to save it, all of the weather-boarding being torn from the end next to the fire. We learn that nothing was saved from the house in which the fire was first discovered, but that a portion of the furniture was removed from the other two buildings.

The various engines and the hook and ladder company with their truck were on the ground with their usual promptness, but the former could render no assistance on account of the want of water. The hook and ladder company, however, did good service in leveling the walls of the burning building, fences, &c., and thus assisting in preventing the spread of the flames. Showers of sparks and cinders were carried by the wind to a considerable distance, but persons on the roofs of the various buildings in their course prevented any damage in that direction.

The loss to the parties interested could not be definitely ascertained, but will probably amount to about $400 or $500 each. The parties were all men of small means, however, and it will consequently be severely felt by them. Mr. Campaign's house, we understand, was the only one insured.

Magistrate's Courts.

Before Justice T. M. Gardner, yesterday: The case of Officer Lewis Gordon, charged with the illegal arrest, assault upon and false imprisonment of Eliza Finch, colored, came up for a hearing, when the defendant submitted and the case was dismissed on the payment of costs. To give an understanding of this case we would state that a well known fiddler by the name of Henry Anderson, who is working out a term of service as a convict on the streets, was wanted by Eliza Finch, the complainant in this case, to furnish the music for a dance at her house. She went to the proper official and got permission for Anderson to go on condition that she would become responsible for his costs in the City Court. Time passed on, and the money not being paid, Officer Gordon was sent to arrest Eliza Finch for the amount, which he did, whereupon she sued out a warrant before Justice Gardner against Officer Gordon on the charges above specified. The Magistrate held that, whereas, in the case of Anderson the costs of the Court were the subject of a criminal action, when the woman, Eliza Finch, became responsible for the same, it became a matter for civil procedure, and as a person cannot be imprisoned for debt, the case in question was clearly established as one of illegal arrest, false imprisonment and assault, in the eyes of the law.

Joseph Murphy.

The Joe Murphy combination, under the management of that old acquaintance of Wilmington play-goers, Harry Watkins, will give one of their inimitable entertainments at the Opera House to-morrow (Monday) evening. The Savannah News of Tuesday thus alludes to the efforts of the company in that place:

Another crowded house greeted the second representation of "Help" at the Theatre last evening. Murphy, if anything, exceeded his previous efforts—he is simply immense and carried the house by storm. His personations of German and Irish character are conceded to be unequalled even by those who have seen Florence and Barney Williams. In truth, Mr. Murphy richly deserves his title of great, for he is undeniably par excellence in his various specialties. As he is in German and Irish, so he in Ethiopian delineation, far exceeding the most noted end men in the minstrel profession. His horse solo should be heard to be properly appreciated, as it is one of the most pleasing features in the entertainment. Those who had the pleasure of being present on Monday evening, acknowledge that our notice of the performance in yesterday's issue was merited in every particular; indeed, that too great praise cannot be awarded so accomplished and versatile an actor as Mr. Joseph Murphy.

Golden Lyre Lodge.

At a regular meeting of Golden Lyre Lodge G. U. O. O. F., the following officers were installed by a Committee of J. H. Love Lodge No. 1499, consisting of J. H. Cutlar, W. T. Harris, John Sheridan, Anthony Mantshy and H. Ellis, to serve for the ensuing term: Ohas. Walker, P. N. G.; Mathew Noble, N. G.; J. L. M. Merrick, V. G.; Jas. Eagles, Secretary; Trim Lee, F. S.; Ismael Lennox, O. G.; Anthony Back, I. G.

Killed by a Tree.

We alluded in our last to the accidental killing of a white female near Lilesville by the falling of a tree. We since learn that the unfortunate was a respectable young girl, about 16 years of age, by the name of Henrietta Kelly. She was horribly crushed and mangled. The accident occurred on Friday of last week.

RAILROAD TO THE SOUND. MR. EDITOR: Lately I had occasion to visit your city, where I arrived on a beautiful day in this present month of January.

I was invited to accompany a party of gentlemen to the sound, as they term it. I had often heard of the old-fashioned sound party, and I was eager to avail myself of the invitation. I went and was well repaid for my visit. After a ride of one hour and a quarter, we came in sight of old ocean, rising in all its grandeur, dotted here and there with some snowy white sails, that added much to the picture.

After we had imbibed a little (which I understood is not an unusual practice with the gentlemen that frequent the sound), we sauntered to the landing, when, after having built a fire, we ordered oysters for six, and for fear of the shells remaining in our craws, we thought it advisable to wash them down, so our host, the friend who was present around and welcomed with many a gulp. After a pleasant chat, my views were asked respecting the scenery, &c. I hardly know what I said then, but I must say that I had an idea you had so beautiful a place near Wilmington. I learned it is a fine place for bathing, not exceeded on the coast. Some of the spots that I saw were beautiful.

I see you have the street cars in Wilmington. Why not extend the track to the sound? Do you ask me if it would be a profitable investment? I answer, most decidedly. It would not only put money in your pockets, and yield you a good dividend, but it would repay you in increased health and comfort to your citizens. Do the street cars that run out of Savannah pay? Most assuredly they do. Do you think there is a city North of us which, if it had the advantages Wilmington possesses, would not have long since had a car running to that point? The distance is nothing, in comparison with other cities, where citizens have a much longer route to travel, to inhale the sea air. Reflect upon it, you who have the street car interest, at stake. If you could see that money could not be invested in a better enterprise.

It may be said with truth that there is no produce to be brought from the sound. Even so; if it did not furnish one ounce of freight, the travel would most certainly pay all the year round. Little cottages would spring up along the line of the road, where the mechanics would rest free, from the necessarily burdensome taxation of the city, where both health and comfort would be secured, and his better half and his way-checked responsibilities could snuff the pure country air, and where the noise and bustle of town life would be a thing unheard of. In fact, it would give vigor to your whole community. It is no experiment. It is a perfect open and shut game. It has been tried elsewhere with success. I would like to see the enterprising citizens take hold of it, and I am convinced that there are many in the community who think me to trust "a hint to the wise is sufficient."

Important Notice.

HAVING PURCHASED THE CITIZEN'S MARKET, corner Second and Market Streets, I shall open on Monday with a full line of GOODS, and I respectfully solicit the patronage of my friends and the public generally. I guarantee they will always find the best of everything in my line. Jan 18-24
