OUTLINES.

Havana currency continues to depreciate. A large wool factory at Kittanning, Pa., and a tannery at Lowell, Mass., were burned yesterday. Livingstone's remains have been recognized at Zanibar.

WASHINGTON.

A Washington dispatch of Thursday says: The transportation bill, which passed the House to-day, had for its sponsors five Democrats among the majority the bill received. Mr. Robbins, of North Carolina, was one of the five.

The Coleman Case.

The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg News under date of Thursday says: The arguments in case of W. D. Coleman, charged with forgery and defalcation, both on part of the Commonwealth and the prisoner's counsel, were concluded at 2 o'clock P. M., and the case given to the jury.

Ex-Gov. Graham.

[Petersburg Index-Appel.] The selection of Ex-Gov. Wm. A. Graham, of North Carolina, as the arbiter on the part of Virginia of the boundary line question between our State and the State of Maryland, was a judicious and commendable act of the General Assembly.

German Emigration to the Carolinas.

[New York Bulletin.] "It never rains but it pours" is a proverb which seems likely to be exemplified in the case of the line of steamer from Charleston. In addition to the Liverpool line (in futurity), we now learn that an offer has been made by a responsible firm in Germany to put on a line of steamships between Bremen and Charleston for the carrying of emigrants.

The Galveston Postmaster.

Gen. Wm. T. Clark, postmaster at Galveston, Texas, has resigned. Gen. Clark is not a defaulter. He supports the Administration. If he were not a supporter of the Administration he would be a defaulter. As it is, his accounts are short. A special agent of the Postoffice Department, who has been investigating Clark's administration of the Galveston postoffice for the past fortnight, has reported a deficit of between nine and ten thousand dollars, and thereupon Mr. Clark has resigned.

Appointments for Services by Bishop Atkinson.

THE MOUNTAIN EARTHQUAKE.

Very Latest. [Special to the Raleigh News.] MARION, N. C., VIA SALISBURY, March 23. News has just been received here that the shocks on Stone Mountain were more violent last night than at any time since the volcanic excitement began. I will return at once this morning and will report by special couriers if occasion requires.

Virginia Editors.

The Richmond Dispatch says: The editors of the State who met here in convention are understood to have had a pleasant session. They established a permanent press association, with young and energetic officers, and are altogether satisfied with what they did. That is saying a great deal. Most of their action was initiatory, yet much good is expected from it. Their next annual meeting will be held in this city.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. D. LOVE—Gold pens at cost. HEINSBERGER—Organs, &c. OLIVER DITSON & Co.—Organs at Home.

Aid for the Orphan Asylum.

Mr. James Southgate, so well known as the gentlemanly and efficient General Agent of the Masonic Temple, is now in our city for the purpose of soliciting contributions for the Orphan Asylum at Oxford. There are now one hundred and twenty-five children in the institution, to be provided for by the people of the State. It is not a sectarian institution, and though to a great extent the offspring of the Masonic order, its benefits are not restricted in any way, but are intended to embrace all the fatherless and motherless little ones who come within its walls for support and protection.

The stock of provisions and clothing needs replenishing, and as no direct and special appeal has yet been made to the citizens of Wilmington for aid for this noble enterprise, Mr. Southgate now visits us for this purpose. He will call on our merchants and citizens generally to-day, and where money cannot be conveniently supplied he will receive provisions of any kind from our grocers that will bear keeping, and goods suitable for clothing from our dry goods merchants. We hope that Wilmington will not be found behind other cities and towns in the State in her contributions to this noble charity.

Magistrate's Court.

Before Justice Cassiday yesterday morning: Henry Adams, charged with stealing a lot of plates and other articles from Mr. A. D. Wesell, about the 3rd of the present month, was required to give security in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which he was committed to jail. Before Justice Moore: Wm. Barr, charged with assaulting H. Knight. Case dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

The same, arraigned on a peace warrant issued at the instance of H. Knight, was required to give security in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

John Coy, charged with assault and battery. Case continued until Monday. Four other cases were continued over for a future hearing.

Progress of the Carolina Central Railway.

From a gentleman who has recently travelled over the route from this city to Charlotte, we learn that the grading on the Carolina Central Railway has been completed to within about ten miles of the latter place. It is expected to commence track laying very soon on the portion of the road now graded, and it is hoped to reach Charlotte during August. It is understood that from 700 to 800 hands will be placed on the ungraded portion of the road, comprising the ten miles above alluded to. This looks like business and is a cheering indication of the near approach to completion of the important enterprise which is to connect our city with Charlotte and the great West.

Mayor's Court.

The only cases before the Court yesterday morning were those of two white men, seamen, named Stephen Boyd and J. H. Crawford, charged with fighting and other disorderly conduct on the streets. They were found guilty and required to pay a fine of $20 and costs, each, in default of which they were put at work on the streets.

Fighting in the Chain Gang.

Two of the colored street prisoners, named Robert Hill and Jake Davis, got into a fight yesterday afternoon, when they were arrested by Officer Mulford, in charge of the force, and lodged in the Guard House to await a hearing before the Mayor this morning.

Columbus Superior Court—Important Civil Suit.

We have the particulars of an important civil suit, which has been in the Courts for about four years, involving property to the amount of some fifteen or twenty thousand dollars in the town of Lumberton, which has just been decided in Columbus Superior Court, now in session. The particulars are as follows: Heirs of Hardy Barnes, deceased, vs. Heirs of Reuben King, deceased. The case was removed from Robeson county to Columbus for trial, on an issue sent down from the Supreme Court.

The action was brought to compel the defendant to reconvey to the plaintiffs two lots in the town of Lumberton that had been conveyed to Reuben King to secure the payment of $900 and $1,995, the plaintiffs insisting that the money had all been paid.

The issue submitted to the jury was as follows: "Did Hardy Barnes pay Reuben King any amount of money to be applied in satisfaction of the mortgage debt ($900) and the trust debt ($1,995), or either of them, and, if so, how much?"

The jury found that Hardy Barnes did pay Reuben King the sum of $900, which was in full satisfaction of the mortgage debt, and the sum of $1,995, which was the price paid to the Trustee, R. S. French, and that both payments, amounting to $2,795, were in full satisfaction of these sums respectively.

Cols. W. McL. McKoy and Nat. McLean appeared for the plaintiffs, and Leitch & Rowland, McLean & Norment, Cols. W. F. French and Robert Strange and Capt. John W. Ellis for defendants.

A Lusus Naturæ—Parit Child and Parit Monkey.

One of the most mysterious and unaccountable freaks of Nature that we have heard of read of in a long time has come to light in this community. Some time during last week a child was born in that part of the city known as Brooklyn, the head of which in almost every particular resembled that of a monkey. The child was perfectly formed in every respect save the extreme length and slenderness of its arms, and formation of its head, neck and face, and facial organs. The ears, eyes, nose, mouth, forehead and arms are indisputably those of a monkey in all the characteristics of form and feature. On the head is a formation of peculiar fleshy skin, or scales, (dark, light and brown colors), resembling the scull cap usually worn by an organ-grinder's monkey, and it would seem was intended by nature to carry out this representation. The child was still-born and we learn will be preserved in alcohol for the benefit of science.

A Slight Mistake.

A young friend of ours following a different profession, recently received a notice from the Internal Revenue Department that his special tax as a LAWYER had not been paid for a certain year, and that it was necessary for him to settle the same, whereupon a friend furnishes the following: Great Ovid of old was some in the line Of changing things round most queer to the mind, But the best metamorphosis ever we saw Was a D. D. S. changed to a "limb of the law."

Runaway Damsele.

A dispatch was received at the office of the City Marshal, yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, from a person at Mt. Olive, on the W. & W. Railroad, requesting the arrest of his two daughters, giving their names and a description of them. About a half hour later a second dispatch came, saying: "Do your best; no matter about expense—you shall be satisfied." The dispatches were placed in the hands of an officer, with instructions to look out for the damseles. No explanations accompanied the urgent request to arrest the parties.
