Revelations in the District Investigation-Congress and the Finances. [Special to the Richmond Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, March 27. There was a little episode in the District investigation to-day not exactly set down in the bills. A contractor named Cullinane swore point blank that Colonel Magruder, treasurer of the Board of Public Works. made corrupt propositions to him, and asked for money before paying him certain amounts that were due.

At the close of his testimony Col. Magruder requested to be sworn, and denied in toto all of the contractor's statement. The latter swore that Magruder would not pay him because he refused to divide right.

Congress is still dwelling on the finances, both Houses to-day giving full attention to that subject. Contrary to expectations, when the new bill was reported in the Senate that the end of the debate was near at hand, it again appears that the discussion is to be interminable. The heavy speeches now made on the subject, generally address themselves to empty benches.

The Transportation Bill.

The bill as it passed the House is, with slight modifications, the same as reported by Mr. McCrary (Rep., of Iowa), fram the Committee on Rail ways and Canals, on January 19th. It enacts that all railroad lines carrying freight and passengers between different States, whether owned by one or by various corporations, shall be regarded as employed in commerce among the several States, and shall be liable for any violation of this act. They are forbidden to charge more than a fair and reasonable rate for the transportation of freight or passengers; such rate to be ascertained and fixed by a board of Railroad Commissioners to be anpointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and to be residents of each of the nine judicial districts of the United States. They are to be disinterested persons. and not to have any interest in the stock, bonds, or property of any railroad, or any transportation company. This Board of Railroad Commission ers is to institute a thorough investigation and inquiry into the rates and toll and compensation charged for transporting freight and passengers over each of such lines of railroad. and into the reasonableness thereof: and is, as soon as practicable, after such investigation and inquiry, to prepare for the owners and operators of each of such lines, a separate schedule of reasonable maximum rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freights and ears, on or over said lines respectively. The schedule is to be duly authenticated by the Board of Commissoners and to be printed and kept posted up in such of the offices and depots of such railroad company corporation or person. They may from time to time and so often as circumstances may require, changes or and revise schedule and shall give a notice of such changes or revisions in the same man-

Division of the Senate on Inflation [New York Tribune.]

It must therefore be conceded that there is a majority in the Senate in favor of a circulation of at least four hundred millions of legal-tender notes. Both the Senators from California, Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Texas and Vermont-eleven States-are in favor of permitting our currency to work up slowly to the specie standard. Both of the Senators from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia-twelve States are in favor of indefinite postponement of the time when our paper shall be worth par. Kentucky, Maryland Michigan, Missouri, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, West Virginia and Wisconsin-ten States -are divided.

Immigration and Railroad Fares. [New York Tribune.]

Immigrants arriving in this city, bound to the West, will now reap the benefit of sharp railroad competition. The great lines leading out of New York have heretofore divided the business of immigrant transportation between them. It is understood that the Erre Company succeeded in obtaining an advantage over its competitors by selling tickets in European cities, and this has led to a considerable reduction by the New York Central Railroad Company, made to recover the business which they were likely the lose. The Erie and Pennsylvania lines have an- be a large attendance on the occasion.

A Disastrous Runaway.

Two horses attached to a carriage, containing two gentlemen and three ladies, became frightened on Fourth street, North of the W. & W. R. R., yesterday afternoon, and ranaway. Dashing wildly up Fourth, they turned into Harnett street, and after running a short distance the occupants of the vehicle were thrown out. One of the gentlemen was badly injured and one of the ladies slightly bruised. The others, we understand, escaped without injury. The wounded gentleman was taken to a neighboring house, where he received prope dray yesterday morning, but, strange to medical attention. The carriage was badly

Marine Accident.

The Steamer Emma Dunn, intended to operate with the steam dredge boat in improving the river and harbor, met with an accident vesterday morning. She had just been put in order by Messrs. B. W. Beery & Son, and was preparing to go down the river, but in attempting to land at the Messrs. Barry's wharf, where she was to coal and provision for the trip, some of the projecting pipe was broken, which will necessitate a delay of three or four weeks before she will be able to commence opera-

The Missing Ones.

The missing girls from Mt. Olive, allu ded to in yesterday's paper, have not yet been recovered, though a report was in circulation that they had been seen during the day in a certain locality-or, at least, two girls answering to the description of the recreant damsels. We hope the authorities will use every effort in their power to ascertain if the rumors now in circulation are true. If there are any such dens in the community as are represented, they should be unearthed and the victims saved at

Confirmation. Advices from Scuffletown, of vesterday's date, confirm the recent report of the marriage of Rhody Lowrey, relict of the late Henry Berry Lowrey, of infamous memory. She was united in the bands of wedlock, on Wednesday of last week, to a man named John Chavis, who is represented to be "nearly white."

Amusements. Fox & Denier's celebrated Pantomime Troupe will open at the Opera House tomorrow night, in "Humpty Dumpty," The press everywhere are very enthusiastic in their praise of the performances of this Company, and our play-goers may reasonably expect a rich treat.

The volcanic disturbance at Bald Mountain, according to present appearances, is nothing to compare with that which threatens a certain custom house official in this city. For particulars "see small bills" under telegraphic head.
