Thompson, County Surveyor; A. D. Williamson, Coroner; Jas. High, Dempsey Coleman, O. H. Powell, J. B. Harrellson, W. J. Lay, for County Commissioners.

There was great unanimity and enthusiasm in the meeting, and there is no doubt Columbus will roll up a very great majority.

Grant's Organ on the Third Term. The organ at Washington which is supposed to draw its inspiration direct from the White House, the National Republican, is out with an elaborate article in favor of Grant for a third term. After discussing the claims and prospects of various aspirants for the Presidency, the editor concludes in this way: "But what of Gen. Grant? Friend and foe alike, the most thoughtful men of all par ties concede that if the Presidential battle of 1876 were to be fought this year, no candidate upon any platform could defeat him. Is it not probable that he will be stronger then than he is now? Will he accept or decline a renomination? Will he do as Jefferson did, and put it away from him ! Will he force his renomination? Will he quarrel with his party? Will his party dare to quarrel with him? Will he found a new party? Will he simply content himself with dictating his successor, and if so, who will it be? These be enigmas which no ingenuity can solve, and so the whole Presidential question remains a mystery and a speculation. One lesson, however, can be drawn from it-that it is all nonsense to talk about the death of a party whose official head can, it is admitted on all sides, be reelected for a third term almost without opposition, and in spite of all the traditions of our politics."

A recent case in Titusville, of this State, affecting trades unions, has not received the attention its importance seems to demand. The compositors of a newspaper struck and refused to work. On this account one or more issues of the paper were not published, and the proprietors saed the printers' union for damages. The court decided every point of law against the union. This is a novel phase of the strike question, and it remains to be seen if the precedent will be taken advantage of by capitalists. Of course, unless the unions are incorporated they can neither sued nor be sued, but it is hardly to be doubted that the ringleaders of a strike can be held personally responsible before the law.

Meeting of the Committee on Organization-Address to the Republican voters of the County-Another Convention to be Held on the 26th of June, &c.

A meeting of the Committee appointed by the dissenters from the action of the late Republican County Convention in this city was held yesterday, S. N. Martin in the Chair and T. M. Gardner acting as Secretary. The Committee on Organization submitted their report, which was adopted. After recommending the appointment of the necessary County Committee, to consist of two from each of the townships, wards of the city, two from the township of Wilmington at large and two from the town of Lillington, from which there shall be chosen an Executive Committee, the report further recommends that s Republican County Convention be held in the city of Wilmington on the 20th day of June, 1874, the delegates to which shall be appointed by the Committee, to consist of 25 from each township, 25 from each ward in the city of Wilmington, 25 from the township of Wilmington and 25 from each incorporated town favorable to this movement; and the Committee shall have the right to fill all vacancies in said Convention; that said Convention shall nominate a full county ticket, a Senator and Representatives to the Legislature and an Executive Committee. The Committee to organize clubs was requested to furnish the Chairman with twenty-five names, to constitute the delegates to the Convention, as soon as possible; and that the Chairman be requested to call the Convention together on Saturday, the 20th day of June at 10 to-day. o'clock A. M.

MOVEMENTS OF THE INSURGENTS

After making the necessary arrangements for printing, &c., the Committee adjourned, subject to the call of the Chairman. An address "To the Republican voters of New Hanover county," issued by the Committee, states that the time has arrived to take prompt action for the preservation of the party; says the nominees for county officers and Representatives to the Genera Assembly put forth by the late Convention are incompetent, entirely unfit for these important trusts and calculated to bring disgrace and defeat upon the party; says the Convention did not represent the sentiments of the party and that its action and management is repudiated by a large mamajority of its members; alludes to the necessity of organizing for the defeat of the nominees of the Convention in question: says it is time to unload, and that to submit to the dictates of that convention is to acknowledge in advance the dissolution of the party or the end of justice and right in its management. The address concludes by stating that the largest county in the State, in point of wealth and population, should have men of ability to insure success and exercise the influence to which it is entitled in the councils of the State, and to this end urges a thorough organization at-once to defeat the object of the meeting of June 6th. The address is signed by Silas N. Martin, chairman; Geo. W. Price, Jr., L. E. Rice, J. H. Whiteman, Jas. H. Chadbourn, Geo. L. Mabson, W. H. Banks, W. P. Canaday, Anthony Howe, J. J. Fire in Laurinburg.

The citizens of the quiet town of Laurinburg, Richmond county, were startled yesterday morning, about 3 o'clock, by the cry of fire, which was found to proceed from the new residence in process of erection for J. C. Morgan, Esq., which soon succumbed to the angry flames and fell in. The building was one of the handsomest in that section of the country, none but first-class carpenters being employed in its construction. It was newly painted and surrounded by shavings and the debris which had accumulated, rendering the work of destruction a matter of short duration. Various opinions are advanced as to the cause of the fire, but the most prevalent is that it was the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire used near the building. The loss on the house, which would have been completed in the course of two or three wecks, is estimated at $2, 000, upon which, we understand, there was no insurance.

Wilmington.

Under this head Duffy, of the Greensboro Patriot, thus speaks his mind about matters and things in our "city by the sea":

We spent a few days in Wilmington last week, and were glad to note the onward progress of that place. The city has grown and added much to its business since we visited it a few years ago. Like many other Southern cities she has suffered from a most abominable local government, where people have been taxed and the money wrung from them instead of being devoted to the improvement of the place going to enrich officials who a few years ago were paupers. The citizens complain that it is impossible to get any improvements done, and in some instances out of their own private purses they have graded and made the streets passable, and even then the officials won't keep them in repair. With paved streets and walks. Wilmington ought to be, with its natural attractions and clever people, one of the most desirable cities in the South. But while under a plundering city government, where the order seems to be to rob the people to build marble houses and buy city lots for pauper officials, we need not be surprised at the shabby appear-through sand ankle deep instead of riding over paved streets as one would expect. " man and the brother" down there is made serviceable in keeping in power a set of harpies whose sole effort after election seems to be to "put money in their purse," gobble all they can, build houses for themselves, and let the city take care of itself. If she has grown and her business expanded with all this to contend against, what might she not do with a reasonably good local government?
