

North Carolina Election, AUGUST 9th, 1874.

A SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, SIX JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, TWELVE SOLICITORS, CONGRESSMEN, MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE, AND COUNTY AND TOWNSHIP OFFICERS ARE TO BE CHOSEN.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION: STEPHEN D. POOL, OF CRAVEN.

FOR JUDGES. First District—MILLS L. EURE, of Gates. Fourth District—ALLMAND A. MCKOY, of Sampson. Fifth District—BARTH OLO-MEW FULLER, of Cumberland. Seventh District—JOHN KERR, of Caswell. Eighth District—THOMAS J. WILSON, of Forsyth. Ninth District—D. SCHENCK, of Lincoln.

FOR CONGRESS. 1st District—JESSE J. YEATES, of Hertford. 3d District—ALFRED M. WAD-DELL, of New Hanover. 4th District—JOSEPH J. DAVIS, of Franklin. 5th District—ALFRED M. SCALES, of Rockingham. 6th District—THOMAS S. ASHE, of Anson. 7th District—WILLIAM M. ROB-BINS, of Rowan. 8th District—ROBERT B. VANCE, of Buncombe.

A GREAT CONTEST. The election in August is of transcendent importance. It relates to the social happiness of a million of people, perhaps of many millions now in all parts of the country and of millions on millions of posterity. We cannot afford to shut our eyes and listlessly let things take such course as they may. God commands His intelligent creatures to interest themselves in all that concerns their welfare.

It will be seen that after two crops of about four million bales each, the supply of American cotton on the 1st of September next will exceed that of the previous year by only about six thousand bales, and that, too, after a season of great financial trouble and indifferent trade.

MAJ. YEATES' ELECTION CONFIDENTLY ANTICIPATED. We are much pleased to learn from the Tarboro Enquirer-Southerner that it is the opinion of those who have watched the canvass in the First Congress District that Maj. J. J. Yeates will be elected by a handsome majority.

BRUNSWICK. The advice we have from different parts of Brunswick county are of a very encouraging nature. The Conservatives are taking far more interest in the present election than they have taken since the war in political matters. It is said that men who have not voted for years will now vote and use all their influence for the Conservative cause and particularly to secure the defeat of Judge Russell.

A NEW ATLANTA PAPER. The Atlanta press has received a valuable addition in the Daily News, edited by Alexander St. Clair Abrams, formerly managing editor of the Atlanta Herald and afterward a member of New York Herald staff. The new journal is a credit to Southern journalism so far as we are able to judge from the initial numbers. It is bold, sprightly, newsy, and beautifully printed.

CHILD STEALING. The particulars of the recent kidnapping case in Philadelphia reveal some of the depths of atrocity in which the human character is sometimes sunk and steeped. A party of heartless creatures in the open daylight take a little boy from the streets of a suburb of a large city, and carry him off for the purpose of exacting a ransom. They fix their ransom at the large figure of ten thousand dollars, and communicate with the grief-stricken father in such a way as effectually to screen themselves and work upon his fears. In great apprehension and moved tenderly by paternal love he gives notice in a "personal" printed in one of the city papers that he is ready to negotiate with them to the extent of his ability.

Kidnapping in this country is not a common crime, and we believe such a case as this of Charles Brewster Ross has rarely occurred here. It reads more like a romance of the Apennines or the Morea than a sober narrative of the staid old Quaker State of Pennsylvania. Whether or no the father was right in offering to treat with the rascally abductors is an open question. If he had reason to believe that his child would be subjected to torture or unusually severe treatment of any kind, he is justified. It would seem, though, that the kidnappers would hardly dare for fear of exposure to resort to such means. Still it is not easy to condemn the action of Mr. Ross. We hope his son will be restored to him unharmed, and that the miscreants who abducted him will be apprehended and punished.

THE COTTON SUPPLY. First-class authority on cotton crop statistics is the Financial and Commercial Chronicle of New York. That journal has arranged a series of tables exhibiting the present supply as compared with that of 1873 and 1872:

Table with 3 columns: Year (1873, 1872, 1871), Visible supply (May 9th, July 4th), Total supply, and Average price per bale. Includes data for 1873, 1872, and 1871.

Estimated two-thirds of 1873. Highly-nine per cent. of takings of previous eight weeks, to correspond with takings of 1872 and 1873.

STAR DUST. Edward Murphy, residing near Pottstown, Pa., has a ten-year old daughter weighing 110 pounds. Miss Sallie Hunter, youngest daughter of Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, died at Font Hill, Essex county, Virginia, on Sunday, 5th inst.

Down on the Independents. Before high Heaven, we would vote for Hyman or Seymour, and to do either would strand our last frail plank of political self-respect, before we would support an independent Conservative candidate. And we look upon the case of that man as little better who is continually hanging around Democratic delegates, canvassing their opinions, appealing to their sympathies, securing friends for a caucus struggle, and thus by packing a jury of his political peers obtaining a preference over abler and better men.

HORSEFLESH AS FOOD. Horseflesh as an article of diet is coming into favor in Paris and in some of the cities of Germany. This is due largely to the influence of scientists like M. Isidore Geoffroy Sainte Hilaire, and of certain skillful veterinary surgeons, who took the very practical view of inviting the representatives of the press, and of medical boards to banquets, the principal dishes served at which were of horseflesh, in order to prove how excellent a food it was.

CHOLERA. A death from Asiatic cholera has occurred in each of the cities of New York and Louisville. All seaboard cities should be instantly put in preparation for the reception of this fearful guest. By proper precaution his visit, if he should come, would be short and comparatively harmless.

TIMELY TOPICS. A writer in a recent number of the Cornhill Magazine ridiculed the idea that Dr. Schlemann had discovered the site of Ancient Troy. He said that Schlemann did not possess any archaeological talent, and that he did not discover the remains of Troy at Hisarlik for the very simple reason that the site of old Troy had been already discovered at Boumbashli. Gladstone, in an article on Homer's place in history published in the June number of the Contemporary Review, takes a different view of the results of Dr. Schlemann's excavations.

At the woman's suffrage celebration at Boston on the Fourth, Mrs. Abby Kelly Foster, alluding triumphantly to the progress made by women, said that "once woman had been the female human animal, but now she was man's companion, and was listened to and respected." This is part and parcel with the rest of the nonsense uttered by women from the platform, which stands in the way of their being listened to and respected.

Have all necessary arrangements been perfected for bringing out the full party in the townships? See to it at once, fellow Conservatives, for it is of the utmost importance. We cannot afford to let victory go by us when it can be easily secured.

Attend particularly to registration. See that your names are on the books. Don't forget duties that are imperative.

Governor Scott declares positively that he is not and will not be a candidate for Governor.

A fire at Due West on the 3d inst. destroyed two houses belonging to Mrs. E. J. Kennedy. The Union-Herald has changed hands, but who the new proprietors are does not appear.

A young man named Jack Smith shot and killed an old man named John Goggans, in Edgefield county, on the afternoon of the 4th. They had quarreled about a lot of land.

The storm of wind, rain and hail did much damage last Sunday to the crops in a narrow section west of Great Pee Dee.

The Count of Paris, the head of the Orleansist wing of the Bourbons, follows the literary proclivities of his branch of the family, and has become a writer in the Revue des Deux Mondes.

There is no more sense in a person's pouring half a pitcher of ice water down his throat because he feels warm and thirsty, says the World, than there would be in his jumping into a freezing river, if one were handy, or plunging into boiling water on a winter's day because his hands and feet were numb with the cold.

THE DECECY OF ATLANTA OUTRAGED. An avalanche of anonymous innuendoes and vile slanders has precipitated itself upon the good and virtuous of the people of Atlanta, in the shape of some hundred or more postal cards, mysteriously mailed and addressed to ladies and gentlemen of the highest standing. These cards bear the most insulting and obscene allusions, coupled with infamous charges made against parties in whom the recipient is most deeply interested. Families, husbands and wives have not been spared by the authors of this diabolical outrage of the laws of society, and the excitement and indignation engendered has been necessarily intense. Detectives were set to work at once, with some prospect of discovering the guilty party or parties. Postmaster Bard detected a large lot of these obscene mis-closed in envelopes, and at once seized the entire batch and sent them to Washington.

The Washington Chronicle says that the remains of Mr. Lincoln, at Springfield, were viewed a few days since, the spectators saying that the body is as natural apparently as the day it laid in the State House, with the exception that the upper lip is somewhat swollen.
