NEW YORK.

The Recent Fire at Weehawken-A Herald Special on French Affairs-The Charges Against Beecher-John Mitchell, the Famous Exile and Publicist.

NEW YORK, July 13. The fire at the oil tanks in Weehawken was extinguished at 7 o'clock yesterday was extinguished at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Two hundred men were immediately put to work laying tracks and building a temporary dock for the shipment of oil. They are expected to be able to run trains to the dock by Wednesday. It is officially reported that the loss falls little short of $700,000. The total number of barrels of oil burned is 70,000.

A Heraid special from London says the Figure was suspended by the Government for quoting from President MacMahon's message the declaration that he would retain the power conferred upon him, and then apostroizing the Assembly as follows: "By your orders the Marshal became supreme head of State. The army knows only him, follows but him, obeys him. The army, having a horror of a factious Parliament, will defend their commander, to whom you entrusted the power. If any to whom you entrusted the power. If any party faction seeks to overthrow your irrevocable decree the army must enforce the dicision of the Assembly.

The committee appointed by Beecher to investigate charges made against him are promising an examination, and will proba-bly make known the result of their deliber-ations in a few days. The proceedings of the committee are conducted in a strickly private manner.

In consequence of letters received from Ireland from some of the leaders of the National party, John Mitchell, the famous exile and publicist, has determined on returning to Ireland with a view to contest the election of some constituency on advanced national principles. An assurance from one of the Home Rule members of Parliament that one of the sitting members for Louth will resign in favor of Mitchell, has decided the latter to take this step. Mitchell will leave for Liverpool on the 14th

MASSACHUSETTS.

A Heavy Flood-Several Bridges and Buildings Swept Away-Another Reservoir Disaster. Boston, July 13.

There was a great flood Saturday night and Sunday in Western Massachusetts, caused by the rapid rise of the Westfield river. A dispatch from Chester says: A railroad arch bridge, a highway bridge and two dwellings at Middlefield Switch station are gone. At Chester, West's dam and shoddy mill, four highway bridges, B. W. Palmer's bar and Samuel Otis' shop are swept away, besides two railroad bridges partially destroyed. The dam of the Hampton Emory Company, at Chester, is also carried away and a large amount of emory with it. Every one of the six or seven bridges on the Beston and Albany railroad, between Middlefield and Huntington, is either wholly or partially destroyed. The embankment of the railroad is also badly washed out in many places, and there is a very serious break between Bockett and Washington. The railroad travel between Springfield and Albany will be interrupted for several days.

SPRINGFIELD, July 13. Details are coming to hand of a serious flood in Hampshire county, Massachusetts, caused by the giving way of a reservoir at the village of Middlefield.

KENTUCKY.

Great Failure of Crops-Bevastation and Starvation. LOUISVILLE, July 12.

The Courier-Journal publishes a crop report from all parts of the State. For three months past, in Southern and Western Kentucky, not enough rain has fallen at any one time to lay the dust. The crops are almost entirely destroyed, and even with an abundance of rain henceforth they cannot be saved. Of tobacco there will be scarcely any crop, corn and oats very small, but wheat is the best crop for many years. Much destruction is already reported, and the Governor has been petitioned to con-vene the Legislature for the purpose of de-vising some means of relief, rains have fallen in Eastern and Central Kentucky during the last two days, but too late to afford much relief. In the meantime; in some districts, actual cases of starvation are

FOREIGN NEWS.

Expulsion of Foreign Correspondents by the Carlists-Prince Bismarck's Visit to Kissenger. LONDON, July 13.

The Times correspondent with the Carlists telegraphs that they are trying to drive away foreign correspondents by shooting some as spies. Many Germans have already withdrawn from their lines. A special dispatch to the Times from Berlin says it is now reported that Prince Bismarck's journey to Kissenger has no political significance. The friendly attitude of the King of Bavaria gives much satisfation, but the seperatists' tendencies of Saxony give rise to a feeling of uneasiness.

MISSOURI.

Trouble Expected with the Indians-U. S. Troops Scouting.

Sr. Louis, June 13. A gentleman just from Fort Sill says the Indian Chiefs Santanta, Big Tree and Lone Wolf are in collusion against the whites, and serious trouble may be expected. Col. Coston, with one company of the Tenth Cavalry, are on a scouting expedition through the Cheyenne Agency. Manner Upham, with one company of the Sixth, has gone to Medicine-Lodge; and three companies of the Fifth Intantry from Leavenworth, have gone scouting along the trail from Machita, through the Cheyenne

VIRGINIA.

The Governor Reviews the Troops at Fortress Monroe. FORT MONROE, July 13.

Gov. Jus. L. Kemper paid a visit to the Fortress Cis P. M. and was received with a salute from the water battery, after which he reviewed and inspected the troops of the garrison. He was accompanied by Gen. Wm. Mahone, Col. J. M. Robinson and a number of distinguished friends. A large audience was in attendance to witness the review and get a look at the Governor. The compliments were pleasant and satisfactory and closed with a dress parade.

MASSACHUSETTS. Damage by the Flood Caused by the Bursting of a Reservoir at Middle-SPRINGFIELD, July 13.

The details of the flood caused by the oursting of a factory reservoir at Middletown show that the water swept over houses. barns and roads, causing great damage. Nearly all the valley residents in the vicinity of Chester have suffered more or less damage to farms and gardens. Four bridges were carried off, to replace which will cost several thousand dollars. No loss of life reported.

CUBA.

Sentence of Dockray by Court Mar-

. HAVANA, July 13. The American, Dockray, has been tried by court martial and sentenced to death, but the judgment of the court must be approved by the Governor General before it is carried out. Hopes are entertained that he will not confirm the sentence, but will commute it to a lower grade of punishment.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Grand Parade of Orangemen at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 13. The Orange lodges made a grand parade to day. There was a grand exhibition along the line of Orange and other flags and banners, and members were full of regalia. The streets along the line were thronged with spectators. All has passed off quietly
