may be observed, also, that during the very part of the year when food, perchance, is abundant, the wild fowls are kept from laziness by the necessity of feeding their young, nature having fixed the breeding time in the flush season as regards forage. Again, the structure of fowls is so changed by ages of breeding, that the wings and legs, and whole sets of muscles connected therewith are dwarfed by disuse, while other portions of the body are made relatively larger, which impairs the general vigor by destroying to some extent the ngtural balance of the organization. For these and other reasons it is to be expected that the ordinary death rate in the poultry yard will be considerable. The fact that fowls will die of old age any how, when five or six, at most eight years old, (in most cases) renders it likely that a certain portion will die annually at an earlier age. In conformity with this idea, geese, which do not reach old age till 20 to 100 years, do not drop off in the early years of maturity to so great an extent as hens.

The moral of the above is that novices in poultry raising need not worry over their ill luck, or mistrust that their management is any worse than that of their neighbors, because, perchance, a few of their fowls, of two or three or four years old, die every summer. It is to be expected, unless the breed kept is uncommonly hardy, and all the circumstances are unusually favorable. Reduce the death rate as much as possible by hygienic measures, rather than by medicine. Give plenty of air and sunshine, feed moderately and promote exercise, and expect some losses in spite of all precautions.

Confidence of the Northern Demoeracy. Letter in Charleston News and Courier.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. The returns from the North Carolina and Tennessee elections have an inspiriting effect upon our local Democracy. It is recalled to mind that every State election this year has been a Democratic victory save one, and in that one (Rhode Island) the Democrats nominated no candidates and made no contest. New Hampshire, Connecticut, Oregon, Arkansas and North Carolina, all of which were carried by Grant in 1872, have been carried by the Democrats in 1874. Added to these may be Kentucky and Tennessee, in which the Democrats have gained largely on their majorities of 1872. Those elections do not represent the sentiments of a section merely. Public opinion all over the union has been sampled. New Hampshire in the far East responds to Oregon in the far West. North Carolina on the coast, Kentucky in the centre, and Arkansas on the Mississippi Valley are in accord. The spectacle encourages the New York Democracy in the belief that the State can be carried by 40,000 majority in November. The Republicans have the indifference in their own party, the schism of the temperance men, and the prestige which the late successes have conferred on the Democracy, to contend against. In a State already Democratic when the full vote is polled in the city of New York, these obstacles are fatal to the Republican ascendancy. Chief Judge Church continues to be the favorite on the Democratic side for the nomination for governor. The chief judge is not anxious for the nomination. He already has a position which will probably last him as long as he cares to continue in office, at $15,000 per annum. As an inducement for him to consent to run for Governor it has been proposed to give him Mr. Fenton's seat in the United States Senate when it shall become vacant. If that plan is contemplated a strong man like Wm. Butler Duncan, Judge Lawrence or Henry C. Murphy will be placed on the ticket for the second place, so as to succeed to the governorship when

It is rumored that the fall season | Cons. will see women apparently clad in coats of mail, a fine net work covering corsage and overskirt, heavy with closely wrought steel beads, and when in addition to this the fronts of hats are ornamented in a similar manner, helmetwise, the effect can be imagined. The coming new boot will have the Marseilles bottom or extension edge to the sole, with two rows of stitching, kid topped and Morocco foxed. An entirely new fashion in shape and design of boots will come out this fall, called "La Belle Kellogg," also a very handsome new style of skating

A Curt Reply.

The President is not, however, at present disposed to break the silence he has hitherto preserved. His friends may talk a little more boldly, but he holds his own utterances in reserve, so far as the outside world is concerned. A day or two ago an adventurous Bohemian, incited by the information contained in a former Long Branch letter to hope that the time had come when the Presidential lips might unclose, worked his way to the Presidential presence, and boldly plunged into the subject. The following conversation took place: Bohemian: President Grant, I for a third term? The President (coldly): I have nothing to say on the subject. Bohemian: But, President Grant, may I ask whether your friends intend to place your name before the nothing to say on the subject. Bohemian: If that is the case, Mr. President, I will wish you good morn-

The President (an ice-berg): I have nothing to say on the subject. So the Bohemian left, fully impressed with the fact that President Grant is a hard man to interview.

Travelers' Testimony.

Thousands of travelers by land and sea have youched for the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a preventive of the physical disturbances which ordinarily arise from change of climate and the changes of diet, water, &c., incident to a wandering life. Upon systems toned, invigorated and regu this genial vegetable antidote the external causes of debility and disease seem to produce little or no effect. Ferearmed with Hostetter's Bitters, the voyager may bid defiance to sea sickness and encounter the chilling fogs of the British Isles, the coast winds ot the Antilles, the icy temperature of northern Alaska, or the burning heat of the tropics, with equal impunity. The effect of this admirable medicated stimulant is greatly to increase the vital energy of the system, thereby enabling it to resist and repel the exciting causes of disease. aug 13-D&W1w-Th Sat Tu

NEWBERN, N. C., August 10, 1874.
"OUR LIVING AND OUR DEAD" will hereafter be published as a SEMI-MONTHLY MAGAZINE, containng 48 pages of reading matter, at $3 per year in advance.

'For the information of those who are not familiar with this enterprise, I state that the chief object of the Magazine will be to publish the Record that North Carolina and her gallant soldiers made in the lare "War between the States," to gather the material for the use of the future historian, and to perfectly the memory of those bravemen, officers and petuate the memory of those bravemen, officers and privates, living or dead, who shed imperishable glory ipon their native State.
In addition to the War Record of North Carolina the Magazine will contain sketches of every section, county, city, and town of the Stale, written by competent and well-informed persons, thus making it pre eminently a State periodical, in which all classes of our citizens should take interest and pride.

The Magazine will take the place of the newspaper, having same title, published by me during the past twelve months. The first number will be issued Wednesday, Sept

MISCELLANEOUS.

MARSHAL'S OFFICE, Wilmington, N. C., April 22, 1874.

NOTICE.

I WOULD MOST RESPECTFULLY CALL THE attention of the citizens to the fact that the warm and sickly season is near at hand, and it becomes my duty to adopt the most stringent sanitary measures at this particular time to preserve the health of the city and prevent the introduction of disease that may originate from foul and unwholesome matter, filth, garbage, trash and refuse matter which has a tendency to create unwholesome and offensive odors. In order to prevent as far as possible the spread of those diseases peculiarly incident to this season of the year I would most respectfully solicit the co-operation of the citizens generally in placing our city in such a sanitary condition as to render it as far as practicable impregnable, at least to those diseases which originate from foul and uwholesome matter. To this end the entire force of the city will be employed in cleaning, draining, cleaning, disinfecting and removing trash, &c., for at least the next fifteen or twenty days. All persons are requested to have the trash, offal, refuse matter, &c., cleaned from their premises and placed upon the streets, whence they will be removed immediately. When it is convenient please use boxes or barrels.

Persons needing disinfectants can have the same free of charge by calling at my office.

or barrels.

Persons needing disinfectants can have the same free of charge by calling at my office.

The health officers, designated by a yellow rosette, may be notified of any stagnant water standing upon any lot, or damp cellar, or anything that would impair the health of the city, and any complaint lodged at this office shall receive prompt attention.

Believing that a proper sanitary condition adopted now, at this early season, will insure a healthy summer I earnestly solicit the aid and co-operation of all the good citizens to accomplish this good end, Respectfully, &c., GEO. W. PRICE, JR., ap23-tf City Marshal.
