NEW YORK.

Illness of Mrs. Tilton-Proposition for the Settlement of Louislana Troubles-Prospect Park Races-Trotting Horses Croton-Oiled.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. Mrs. Tilton is sick and physicians say that anxiety has prostrated her entire sys-tem. In the meantime "there are flowers, tem. In the meantime "there are flowers, caresses, laughter and applause."

The Times New Orleans special says that Kellogg having in his recent address signified his willingness to abide by the court of returns of the election of 1872 by the Board of Arbitration, prominent Democrats have proposed that the returns now secreted by order of the McEnery returning board be brought forward and canvassed anew with a view to the final settlement of contested election cases. In order to effect this arrangement it will be necessary for both par-ties, and the several candidates on each ticket, to agree to submit to the decision of the arbitrators. The proposition has not yet been formally submitted to Kellogg, but there is reason to believe he is so well satisfied of his election by a large majority that he will agree to it, if the arbitration can be fairly conducted, and the Democrats give proper guarantees of sincerity and good

At Prospect Park yesterday, the sixth heat of the race for the 600 dollars purse, for 2:36 horses, was won by Lady White. May Bird took the second money and Black Crook the third—time 2:331.

The double-team trot purse for 500 dollars was won by Lady Woods and Carrie N. In three straight heats, beating Ella Madden, and Regular-Hand Regulus—time

2:55, 2:48\frac{1}{2}, 2:44\frac{1}{2}.

In the race for the purse of $1,000, for 2:26 horses, Comet won the second, third and fourth heats, Bella winning the first heat—time 2:26, 2:27, 2:25½, 2:28½.

The well-known trotters Ganner Boy, Thomas L., Young Arthur and Falmouth

Boy have been severely injured by having croton oil poured over their head while in stable at Prospect Park, the former being terribly blistered. The association offers $500 reward for discovery of the perpetrator.

ILLINOIS.

Executive Council of the National Catholic Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10. The Executive Council of the National Catholic Convention received the follow ing this morning; "Rome, Oct. 9th.—The Sovereign Pontiff from his heart most lovingly grants the benediction asked for to you and all delegates "CARDINAL ANTONELLI." An emigration department was ordered to be opened by the Union to aid emigrants in finding proper homes.

Rev. John Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., reported the features of a plan for the purpose indicated above. Information will be furnished emigrants through committees to be appointed in all seaboard cities and measures will be taken to keep emigrants from the demoralizing influence of intemperance when they first land, and to send them speedily to safe homes.

After the transaction of considerable general business the Council adjourned to call on the President.

ENGLAND.

The Direct Cable-1,100 Miles of Cable Laid.

LONDON, Oct. 10. A circular has been sent to the shareholders of the direct cable company, in-forming them that the management have decided to abandon about 30 miles of cable, which is now lying on a rocky bottom, and effect a splice at a more suitable point. The circular says that in all 1,100 miles of cable have been laid and satisfactory tests are obtained daily by electricians. The minors of West Riding, Yorkshire having refused to consent to a reduction of 20 per cent. in their wages, have been locked out to the number of six thousand.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

A London dispatch announces the death of the Duke of Leicester.

In the Baltimore circuit Court, at Towsontown, Saturday morning, in the case of Sam'l McDonald, on trial for the murder of Berry Amos, the jury after being out since Friday afternoon, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

A telegram received at the Navy Department Saturday, from Capt. A. A. Semmes, commanding the Pensacola Navy Yard, says that Paymaster MacMahon is doing well. One more case of yellow fever is reported, and thirteen officers and men are convalescent. The fever is declining for want of subjects.

OUR NIGHT REPORTS.

NEW JERSEY.

Secretary Robeson on Grant and the Third Term.

PATERSON, Sept. 10. Secretary Robeson, addressing a politica-meeting held last night, said that neither the administration nor its chief would ever be found outside the Republican party, nor would it nor he ever be found acting contrary to the best interests, of the nation or contrary to the established traditions of the country. The remark was understood to refer to the third term agitation. Subsesaid that Grant had no idea of a third term, had never thought of such a thing, and regarded the discussion of that matter as uuworthy of notice.

The Episcopal Congress-A New Diocese-A New Canon Proposed, &c. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.

In the Epicopal Congress the new diocese for New Jersey was ratified and many resolutions referred. Major Lewin, of Maryland, introduced, with a long preamble, the following resolution:

Resolved, The House of Bishops concurring, that the following canon of ritual uniformity be ensected.

Canon of Ritual Uniformity: Section 1.
The elevation of the elements in the holy communion in such a manner as to expose them to the view of the people as the objects towards which adoration is to be made. In or after the prayer of consecration or in the act of administering, or in carrying them to or from the communicants, bowings, crossings, genuflexions, prostrations, reverences, bending down upon, kissing the Lord's table, and kneeling, except as allowed, provided for, or directed by rubric or canon, and any gesture, posture or act implying such adoration, and any ceremo-ny not prescribed as part of the order for the administration of the Lord's Supper, or boly communion, likewise the use at any administration of the holy communion of any hymn, prayers, collects, epistles or gospels other than these appointed in the authorized formula of the Church, are hereby forbidden.

Sec. 2. In all matters pertaining to the public worship of the Church, to the ornaments, arrangements and appointments of the holy table, and in everything connected with the ritual in the peformance of divine service, including the vestments to be used, about which there are no specific directions in the book of common prayer, or the offlces and ordinances thereto appended, or in legislation, general or diocesan, of this Church the administration or judgment of the Bishop of any diocese given in writing shall be regarded as binding, to be followed and obeyed by every minister of that dio-

This was referred to the Committee on Canons. Several other resolutions and me-morials from Virginia, relating to the same subject, were referred also to the same com-

Yellew Fever at Pensacola-Condition of the Sick-A New Prescription for the Nation's Bilousness, &c. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.

A telegram received at the Navy Depart ment this evening from Capt. Semmes, commanding the Pensacola Navy Yard, says there are four sick, one of them a new case previously reported, but very mild. Pay-master McMahon is doing well, but private McGowan is scriously ill. There are thirteen convalescents.

A letter addressed to the President by a prominent Conservative politician in Mississippi, argues that the only true way to restore the peace and prosperity of the South is for Congress to pass an act to pay for quartermaster and commissary stores taken by the Union army in the South during the war and to refund the cotton tax. It has been referred to the Attorney General by the President.

The new secret service cerps report ser eral important arrests of counterfeiters. The U. S. Marshal of Texas reports that he arrested and brought thither thirteen citizens of Montague county. The dispatch is dated at Denison, Texas.

Postmaster General Jewell telegraphs to the original owners of an important claim, thus: "It is my desire that no agent shall stand between this department and any party with whom it has business." * * agents."
