Don Carlos is about to make a determined attack on Irun. - Glorious election news of Tuesday night confirmed by dispatches

The Eastern Medical Association. Newbern Times.

This Society held its annul meeting at Fireman's Hall in this city last evening at 7‡ o'clock, Dr. Chas. C. Duffy, Jr., President, occupying the chair.

Dr. P. W. Woolly, of La Grange, Secretary, called the roll and the following gentlemen responded: Drs. Hyatt, Taft, Best, Satchwell, O'Hagan, Faison, Rountree, Robinson, Kirby, Long, Attmore and Frank

Dr. James B. Hughes delivered an address of welcome from the Craven County Medical Society, and after a brief session the Association adjouned.

Three sessions will be held to-day—10 A.

M. and 3 and 8 P. M. respectively—when matters of importance to the Association and the public will be discussed; and as the meetings will be held with open doors we have no doubt the hall will be filled with such an assemblage of visitors as so distin-guished an Association should command.

The Buck Glove Trade.  We greet our excellent contem-porary the Hillsboro Recorder, on its arriving at the third volume of its new series. - On Saturday night in Enfield officer Yeates attempted to arrest a negro horse thief, when the latter knocked Yeates twice and escaped. - Mr. R. T. Gray, in the last number of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, announces his connection editorially with that paper permanently, although he will not relinquish his professional duties. - Newbern Times: Early on Sunday morning the barn of Wm. G. Taylor, Esq., about three miles from Kinston, was discovered to be on fire, and was, together with a valuable horse, totally consumed. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin, but the perpetrator has not been dis-

— Mrs. J. P. Wilson, of Hertford county, died very suddenly Thursday night, 22nd, ult., as was then supposed, of lockjaw. Dr. R. T. Weaver attended her, and appressed a suspicion, onsed on the symptoms, that strychnine had been administered to her. She was taken ill on the morning of here death. Her hashand, who had married her death. Her husband, who had married only a few weeks previously, was arrested on suspicion of having administered it. On Friday last a coroner's inquest was held without, however, exhuming the body of Mrs. Wilson, and returned a verdict that the deceased came to her death by strychnine administered by some person unknown. It appears that Mr. Wilson is about 22 years of age. About five weeks ago he married deceased, she being between 45 and 50 years of age. She had made a will giving to her husband, in case of her death, about $2,000 worth of property left her by an aunt.—Raleigh News.

Must Not Steal. During the late term of the Superior Court in this city a colored individual by the name of Robert Hill, who was in jail awaiting trial for larceny, addressed a note to His Honor, Judge McKoy, in which he informed him that he was a Democrat, that he supported him (the Judge) in the late election, and that he must remember these things to his advantage. After Hill's trial and conviction, and the Judge was about passing sentence upon him, he referred to the fact of his having received the note from the prisoner, giving its purport, and concluded by saying, " Well, Robert, Democrats must not steal, and I shall therefore send you to the Penitentiary for five years !"

News from Below. The Schr. F. Merwin, Capt. Pierce, from New York, with 500 tons of railroad iron for the Carolina Central Rskway, was reported ashore at Big Island on Tuesday night, but it was thought probable she would come off with the next tide.

A schooner, the name of which our informant did not ascertain, was ashore yesterday at New Inlet, near the wreck of the Raleigh, sunk during the war. She was expected to get off without damage.

The Spanish Barque Elina, which capsized near the quarantine station during the heavy gale in September, has been raised, or nearly so, and is expected to come up to the city by Sunday or Monday next,

A Musical Colebration of the Victory. The Wilmington Cornet Concert Club played a number of beautiful airs last night from the top of the New Hanover Bank building, the lofty serenade being in honor of the great victory achieved by the Democrats and Conservatives of the country in the recent elections. The music was delightful and drew together quite a large crowd in the vicinity. By the way, we learn that preparations have been made to fire one hundred guns to-day in honor of the glorious triumph.

Personnel of the Baptist Convention. Among the members of the Baptist State Convention, which met in the First Baptist Church, in this city, yesterday morning, we observed the following gentlemen of prominence among the clergy: Rev. Dr. Wingate, President of Wake Forest College, in stature, like Saul, towering above his brethren; Rev. W. T. Walters, D. D. also a Wake Forest professor, and the ven erable and excellent President of the Convention, Rev. Dr. Brooks. Besides these there are in attendance such ministers, of acknowledged influence and talent, as Rev. J. D. Hufham, a genial ex-editor; the versatile Rev. A. F. Redd, editor of the Biblical Recorder; Rev. Messrs. Hiden, of Wilming ton, Owen, of Tarboro, Ivey, Bailey, Cobb. and others. Professor Reinhart, Presiden of Thomasville Female College, is also a delegate. Altogether the Convention, in learning, piety and the spirit of work is equal to the average of such religious bodies, and appears to be doing its work harmoniously, earnestly and with dignity. It will remain in session during the week.

Attempt to Brenk Jali. Jake Drawhorn, one of the prisoners in the county jail awaiting a transfer to the State Penitentiary, attempted to make his escape yesterday morning. It appears that he had been turned out into the passage to wash and seized the opportunity, in the temporary absence of the jailor, to try to break through the wall of the prison. When discovered he had succeeded in removing two brick, which he accomplished with a piece of iron taken from the stove.

An Escaped Convict.

Jacob Drawhorn, colored, who was con victed of larceny at the late term of our Superior Court and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, turns out to be an escaped convict from that institution. He was there under a soutence of twenty years and escaped about twelve months ago. He acknowledges the fact and rather boasts of the way in which he succeeded in pulling the wool over the eves of the Penitentiary authorities. He is now good for twentyfour years.

GATHERINGS IN THE SOUTH.—There has been much written lately that is very dublous about political gatherings and conflict of races, yet there is one class of gatherings all over the South about which there is not even the shadow of doubt, namely, gathering for the purpose of purchasing the remaining tickets for the next and last Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, to come off November 30. The South has been impovershed, and a reasonable share of that $2,500,000 then to be distributed will be very acceptable.
