SHERIDAN'S RAID AS A PARTY QUESTION.

It seems that the Republicans in Congress are disposed, with one or two honorable exceptions, to make common cause with the President and Sheridan in their brutal raid on the people of Louisiana. Some members sustaining General Sheridan comes up strict party lines will be drawn, and this would appear to be correct, for Mr. Willard, of Vermont, is the only Republican member who has thus far expressed a disapprobation of the course that has been pursued there during the past four days. Mr. Hale's resolution directing the Judiciary Committee of the House to report a bill for'a new election in Louisiana is construed in some quarters as a reflection upon the Administration's employment of troops.

It might be well for these partisan abettors of treason against the Constitution to heed the admonitions of outsiders of their own faith, unless they are bent on running their organization into the ground and utterly wrecking it before the next Presidential election. The New York Times, which used to be quoted with approbation by the faithful, talks pretty freely about Sheridan's ." ferocions message," "foolish blunders," going back two or three centuries in the world's history, etc., etc., day after day. The New York Tribune says the Republican party can never survive this trial. And Mr. Foster, Republican member of the Congressional Investigating Committee at New Orleans is quoted as saying with sad heart: "I presume the President " can keep this thing up for two years "more, and as he evidently so intends, "I presume he will do it. But you "may rest assured that if he does, it "will be utterly out of the question "to elect a' Republican President in "1876." Meantime the Governors continue to disapprove, the deprecatory resolutions of the Legislatures go on, and the people issue calls for monster meetings to condemn in ringing tones the great crime of a Republican age.

black deeds were condemned by the indignant sentiment of the country, and when the reckless party of which he had been the subservient tool could no longer tolerate him or no longer had a use for him, he was allowed to resign to shield himself from the punishment so righteously due.

The people are treasuring up these things against the day of wrath. The originators and promoters of this Louisiana usurpation and the origi nators and promoters of the whole scheme of beastly reconstruction are remembered and will be rewarded acsay positively that if the question of | cording to their folly and criminality.

LIBERAL DEMOCRATIC THE CREED. Gov. Tilden may be considered a representative Democrat. In his fe cent message to the Legislature of New York he enunciates in clear, strong, unmistakable phrase the policy and theory of the liberalized Democracy of the country. It is the platform on which this journal has ever stood, and we are greatly pleased.

to find our views so cogently and concisely expressed by a leader of such eminence and ability as Samuel J Tilden:

"Such has been our course, after and in spite of the fact that these our kindred, in a common ancestry, a common heritage, and a common future, had joined at National Conventions in the nomination of candidates and in the declaration of principles and purposes, which form an authentic acceptance of the results of the war, embodied in the last three amendments to the organic law of the Federal Union; and that they had by the suffrages of all their voters, at the last National election, completed the proof that now they only seek to share with us and to maintain the common rights of American local self-government in fraternal union, under the old flag, with one 'Constitution and one destiny.' There should be no misunderstanding as to this position of our Southern brethren, or of any portion of our fellow-citizens.-The questions settled by the war are never to be re-opened. The adoption of the XIIIth, XIVth, and XVth Amendments to the Federal Constitution closed one great era in our politics. It marked the end forever of the system of human slavery, and of the struggles that grew out of that sys tem. These amendments have been conclusively adopted, and they have been accepted in good faith by all political organizations, and the people of all sections. They close the chapter; they are and must be final. All parties hereafter must accept and stand upon them; and henceforth our politics are to turn upon questions of the present and the future, not upon those of he settled and final Past. WHAT WE "ARE AFRAID OF." The Hillsboro Recorder wishes to know what those, who oppose the calling of a Convention at this time "are afraid of ?" Remarking that the basis of representation for a Convention is the same as that of the House of Represental tives, and that our majority in the latter body is now about 40, we have no hesitation in saying that we are afraid the Radicals might make it uncomfortably close for us in the election of delegates. The counties of Wake, Wayne, Pitt, Brunswick, Richmond, Montgomery, Davidson, Nash, Franklin Guilford and Randolph are now rep resented in the Lower House of the Legislature by 19 Conservatives on Democrats. Will our brother of the Recorder youch for a similar result in civil liberty." an election for delegates to a Conven-

STAR DUST.

- Mr. Redpath accuses Boston audiences of ill-breeding. - Jerusalem, notwithstanding its sacred associations, averages two murders a week.

- A Murray county baby four years old with a head as large as a half bushel measure, is the latest Georgia curiosity.

- Let Louisiana be at the Philadelphia Centennial to read the Declaration of Independence-"these colonies are and of right ought to be free and independent States !

- Died on the 5th inst., after a protracted illness, at Hampden Sidney, Va., Mrs. Atkinson, wife of Rev. Dr. Atkinson, president of Hampden Sidney College, and daughter of Hon. A. H. H. Stuart.

- The New York Tribune corrects the mistake of a cable dispatch announcing the removal of Bishop Martin from an English See. The Bishop referred to was Dr. Conrad Martin, Roman Catholic Bishop of Paderborn, and he was removed by the German Ecclesiastical Court. There is no bishop of the name on the English bench.

- "Papa is dead!" suddenly exclaimed the little daughser of Mr. Jones, a surveyor in the Nova Scotia government employ, the other day. Tho mother hushed the child, but in a few minutes the little one repeated the words emphatically. During the same day intelligence came that the father had been drowned while attempting to cross a small lake on the ice.

- New Orleans Times: It now transpires that the Republicans, since the retirement of the Democrats, having only fifty-one members with certificates, have admitted three members who occupied precisely the same position as the five gentlemen who were ejected. The question arises, why don't the military again interpose and put those men out as they did the five Democrats?

PASSAGE OF THE FINANCE BILL. On Thursday last the efforts of the Republican ring-leaders were crowned with success in the House of Representatives by the passage of the Senate Finance Bill, a brief outline of which was given in this paper some time ago. Notwithstanding the application of the caucus lash there were quite a number of Republicans who voted nay. Not a single Democrat supported the measure. The Republicans voting in the negative were Messrs. Willard, of Vermont; Buffinton, Harris, Pierce, Gooch, E. R. Hoar, G. F. Hoar, and Dawes, of Massachusetts; Hawley, of Connecticut; Scudder, Lawson, and Clarke, of New York; Kelley and Townsend, of Pennsylvania; Niles, of Mississippi; Sherwood and Woodworth, of Ohio; Crutchfield, of Tennessee; Field, of Michigan; and Hagans, of West Virginia, in all twenty votes. The vote on the final passage was 125 to 106. A bare majority of the Finance Committee favored the bill. A majority of the delegations from New England, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, Illinois, Indiana, Arkansas, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin, Galifornia and Kansas voted for the bill. Iowa voted solidly for the bill, and Kansas and Texas solidly against it. The southern States here indicated are represented chieffy by carpetbaggers, who are under the control · of the New York money-ring. The bill provides for specie payment resumption in 1879, and is not what is desired by the back-bone of the country-the West and South.

A Decision as to Colored People's Rights in Theatres.

The ever recurring question of excluding negroes from theatres is the subject of a fresh decision by Judge Griswold, of Cleveland, Ohio. Benj. Gardner, a negro, bought a ticket to the dress circle of the Academy of Music in that city, and was refused to the candid judgment of the people admission to the seat as indicated on of these United States to know the ticket, the manager telling him | whether or not Southern States are that he could only go into the gallery.

"I desire to call your attention to the grave circumstance of interference of Federal troops in the organization and proceedings of the Legislature of a sister State. If the reported action of the military in unseating persons claiming to be members of the Louisiana Legislature and giving their places to persons contesting the same is true, and is legal and proper, then the same interfence would be legal and proper here, and it seems to me to be the duty of the representatives of this State to at once enter a vigorous protest against an action that may be made a precedent at some future time for the overthrow of civil government here. If there is a law warranting the settling of contested election cases in State Legislatures by the use of Federal troops, then, in my judgment, you should request its immediate repeal. If there is no law for it, then your indignant protest should be heard at Washington insisting upon such action of Congress as will prevent in future such flagrant outrages against

TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 7. Gov. Brown, in his message to-day, refers to Louisiana matters as follows: "If we may credit reports that reach us through the daily press, and which seem to have the sanction of official authority, the power of the national government, through its military arm, is being used for the subversion of the liberties of the people of Louisiana. Possibly it is not in your power to do more than to interpose a solemn and earnest protest against this glaring crime. Yet il this be all that the representatives of so valorous a State as Tennessee may do, I trust that your protest may be, made with such emphasis and earnestness as to arrest the attention of every patriotic citizen in this Republic, and awaken the people everywhere to a sense of the danger that threatens our constitutional liberties."

THF CHILDREN'S FRIEND WILL BE PUR-lished every Wednesday, at the Orphan Asylum, in Oxford, N. C. It will enter field occupied by no lished every Wednesday, at the Orphan Asylum, in Oxford, N. C. It will enter field occupied by no other paper, representing no party in politics and no sect in religion; but helping all parties and all sects to unite in promoting the judicious education of the yoang, and the continuous improvement of the old. It will discuss the duties and privileges of parents and teachers, and will defend the rights and de-nounce the wrongs of children. It will explain how our University lies desolate and our Colleges and Schools are poorly attended, while the Stockade it-self seems to be too small to contain the vast throngs which crowd our penitentiary. It will give special attention to poor orphans, and will tell them how to escape their present degradation, how to grow up into wise and virtuous men and women, and how to secure liberal wages for honest work. The good and do good. Price, one dollar a year, always in advance. A few cash advertisements will be ad-mitted, at ten cents a line for the first insertion, and five cents a line for each st becquent ansertion. The same advertisement will not be sinserted more than thirteen times, as a live paper can not afford to sing any one song forever. The first number will appear on Wednesday, the sixth of January, 1875. All friends of the young are requested to forward subscriptions at once, Andress: THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND. THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND.
