OUTLINES.

Dissatisfied at the report of the sub-committee, the whole Committee on the South have gone southward. -- Over 20,000 miners are idle and penniless in Pennsylvania. They have resolved to arm and help themselves to bread. --- Germany and Spain are in correspondence respecting a Carlist outrage on a German vessel, ---- Hotel at Sacramento burned with three men, possibly others. - New York mar kets: Cotton, 152; rosin, $2.10; spirits turpentine, 36; gold 1121@1121. -Re. port that whole Congressional Southern Affairs Committee had gone South is denied, but there is discontent. -Grant's message on Louisiana will be considered to-day. -It seems that the Republican Sub-Committee, lately in session at New Orleans, is going to submit a report to Con gress substantiating what the people have all along claimed, in almost or in every particular. --- Senate passed resolutions calling for Merrill's report of Conshatta affair. - Schurz spoke on the Louisiana question in the Senate. - Assassination of Grant was humorously discussed in Congress yesterday. -- There will be a meeting this week in Washington of one leading Democrat from each State, for the purpose of consultation. -A decision of the United States Supreme Court in a cotton case looks like a step towards recognizing the late war as something more than a rebellion. - An Ohio Congressman wants to abolish Sheridan, or at least his Lieutenant-Generalcy. -- Hawley, of Illinois, moved that Congress recognize Kellogg and the whole winked-at, sustained and organized despotism in Louisiana.

Superior Court. The January term of the Superior Court of New Hanover County, Judge McKoy presiding, commenced yesterday. The charge of His Honor to the jury was a very able one and at the same time clear and comprehensive in its dealings with the questions touched upon. The following comprise the Grand Jury: Benjamin W. Beery, Foreman; Hezekiah Bonham, A. J. Mallard, Edward Ancrum, Wm. G. Fowler, Jr., Mathew Carr, Isiah Shepard, Jno. F. Hines, Joseph Sternberger, Isaac Stokes, Edward G. Egan, Jno. J. Alexander, L. Flannagan, James Richardson, Prince Nixon, Maurace McFarland, Samuel Merrick, Abner Mor-

Among the cases disposed of were the following:

State vs. W. R. Bishop alias W. R. Holmes, charged with larceny. The defendant being now in the penitentiary from Duplin for ten years on the same charge a nol. pros. was entered in this case. State vs. Abram Davis, charged with bastardy. Dismissed on the payment of State vs. C. Mallett, charged with assault and battery. Found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $20 and costs. State vs. C. Mallett, charged with assault and battery. Case dismissed on the payment of costs. State vs. Raleigh Montague, arraigned on a piece warrant in two cases. Judgment nici entered. State vs. J. M. Campbell, charged with injuring stock. Judgment nici entered.

In the cases of several parties arraigned on the charge of larceny, or with having stolen goods in their possession, said goods heing a portion of those stolen from Messrs. Binford, Crow & Co., a year or two ago, the Court ordered a nol. pros., with leave, John Leggett, an important State's witness, having absconded. The "with leave" in this case is intended to convey the idea that if the said John Leggett, upon whom the prosecution relies for a conviction, be at any time arrested and brought forward to testify the parties can be again brought to Magistrates' Court.

Before Justice VanAmringe, yesterday, Wm Jones, colored, was arraigned on the charge of perjury. He was adjudged guilty and ordered to give bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the present term of the Superior Court.

The same defendant, arraigned on a peace warrant, was ordered to give security in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the present term of the Superior Court.

His Name. Dennis Smith is the name of the individual who was arrested in the act of appropriating a lot of bacon at Messrs. Hottendorf & Hashagen's store, on Water street, Saturday night. He is in the Guard House awaiting trial before the Mayor's Court.

Italian Opera To-Night.

We presume it is unnecessary to invite anybody to go to the Opera this evening to hear Miss Phillipps in that masterpiece of Italian musical composition, "The Barber of Seville." Beauty, fashion, culture-lovers of good things, elegant idlers, whilersaway of an evening hour from the busy walks of life-all women and "the rest of we could make to keep them away. Miss Adelaide Phillipps, of English birth but American residence, tastes, fame and predilections, will delight us by her admirable singing and her remarkable personation of the coquettish Rosina. A Northwestern journal says she exceeds in the part she takes the highest anticipations of her most sanguine friends. Quoting from the same paper, we learn that her singing in the "Laughing Song," which she gives us to-night, is exquisite. Her "Una Voce Poco Fa" is also highly commended, and the duett she sings with Bartolo is superbly rendered. Orlandini makes a capital Figaro-his voice rich and full, his acting natural and unrestrained, provoking mirth throughout. Tom Karl is represented to be a pure sweet tenor. Baccelli, who acts Bartolo, and the deep bass voice of Locatelli come in for a good share of praise.

Typographical Tantrums

It is, to quote Milord Dundreary, one of the things "no fellah can find out" why the types should play such fantastic tricks before high Heaven on Sunday mornings. Now, we are particular to say Sunday mornings, because two days ago we agonized over Orsini's ruthless assassination in this department of THE MORNING STAR of Rossini's splendid opera (not."elegant little iety when a learned and agile compositor without the fear of Shakspeare or any other man "jerked up in a glittering grief" the unfortunate, beautiful Bolyn. Perked up on his lofty pedestal, we propose to keep him there, an everlasting type of the supremacy of that audacity without which genius is impossible, the office of proofreader unnecessary and the business of the local news writer something less than a

"glistering grief" or "a golden sorrow."

Fire sunday Morning. The fire on Sunday morning, about 3 o'clock, originated in a frame dwelling house on the corner of Nun and Seventh streets, formerly the property of Mr. E. Kidder, but lately purchased by a colored shoemaker by the name of Pegram. The fire was discovered in the upper part of the huilding, the house being unoccupied at the time, and spread with such rapidity that will soon be placed on the Carolina Central there was no possibility of saving it. The flames communicated with the adjoining building on the South, which was also consumed. This house was the property of Mr. - Curtis, and was occupied by himself and his son-in-law, Mr. Thomas on the house, which, we learn will not cover the loss. By the assistance of friends the furniture was all removed, though considerably damaged by breakage. The firemen and hook and ladder men were on hand with their usual promptitude.

It is the general impression, we learn, that the fire was the work of an incendiary.

Carolina Central Railway. The Lincolnton Progress says: " Our people are discussing the propriety of permitting an amendment to the charter of the Carolina Central Railway, which has perhaps been forfeited by the non-completion of the track to Shelby by the 1st of January, just past. Gaston, Lincoln, Cleaveland and Rutherford in the West, and Anson, Union, Richmond, Robeson and New Hanover in the East, are very much interested in the tariff of freights that may be adopted. It is suggested to call a meeting of the citizens of Lincoln county at the court house for Thursday next, (the 14th,) to take some action in the matter. THE TOLLEY GUN.-COPY OF TESTIMONIAL. HUDSON CITY, N. J., Sept. 30th, 1874.-MESSES. J. & W. TOLLEY-29 Maiden Lane, New York:-The 10 guage Gun No. 3078 I ordered from you gives me entire satisfaction. I was very exacting when erdering the Gun, but must say that you have more than fulfilled what I required of you. I have shot several breech-loaders by first-class makers, and your gua beats them all for bea ty and workmanship. As for shooting qualities, your gur shoots stronger and more even than any gun I ever shot. I have shown it to several good judges (including opera"—Italice operetta), "The Barber of Seville." It was sad enough to see the magnificent Italian composer so stealthily and damnably taken off, but we confess to | which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a the most excruciating and barrowing anx. targat according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Farm trials, and the average of 6 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38; right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 3% drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun is seldom met with, and am very proud to be the owner of it. But the real test of your gun is in the field-there it excells all others, killing cleaner and handsomer than any gun I ever saw, as you assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your guns to all my friends.
