BOSTON INDIGNATION.

Wendell Phillips, the Howler, Tries to Break up the Meeting-Makes a Blatherskite Speech.

In addition to the report given by us vesterday of the indignation meeting held Friday night at Fanueil Hall, Boston, we repring the following:

Resolutions expressive of indignation at the course of the military in removing the members of the Legislature, and severely denouncing Belknap for his telegram of approval, were vociferously applauded.

The resolutions were seconded by General S. M. Quincey, and supported in an elaborate speech by Hon. John Q. Adams from Smator Schurz's standpoint regarding recent occurrences as a national calamity. Other speeches of a similar tenor were Cries for Wendell Phillips, who occapied a prominent position in the gallery, were frequent during the meeting. He attempted to speak from his position, but was urged to the platform. He criticised Charles F. Adams for heading a call for the Boston meeting while he was a resident of another town, but about two-thirds of his hearers did not like that, and cries of "go on," "hear him," "shut up," alternated, as the majority or minority gained vocal ascendancy.

The President, though evidently disconcerted, made an appeal for free speech, and Mr. Phillips proceeded, criticising other prominent non-residents for the part they bore, and claiming they did not and could not represent Boston sentiment, without being called to account the spirit moved them; sometimes being in perfect accord with the speaker, at other times about equally divided as to their views of what he per forth. Finally Mr. Phillips the period his overcoat and was greet the peofrom all sides. He chartery in with party as an matthology of the United States Government to protect its citizens. The military, he said, would carry comfort into every negro family in the South, while such resolutions as were proposed would be productive of nothing but consternation. [Voices: "We will pass them."]-The blood of hundreds of blacks will be upon your skirts. [A voice: "Get hunted down, and such meetings as this tied his hands. Mr. Phillips closed by saying he would deem himself wanting in duty as an old Abolitionist not to return the scenes of his early efforts in behalf of the oppressed, and retired amid a storm of cheers and hisses. It was evident that Phillips' utterances weakened the effect of the meeting, and though he was often interrupted there was no disposition to prevent his speaking.

An additional resolution complimentary to the President and General Sheridan was offered by an outsider, but lost by a two-thirds vote, and the original resolutions were adopted by the same proportion of ayes.

The state Debt Conference.

[Raleigh News of Saturday.] The conference on the State debt continued throughout vesterday, the proceedings of which are as yet not made public. Gov. Brogden sent to the conference on yesterday a number of letters received by himself in regard to the State debt question, which were read by the clerk. Several of the letters were from bondholders in England, and others from parties in several of our Northern cities. The general sentiment of foreign bondholders seems to be embodied in the following extract from the letter of Geo. H. Marsh, of Ports-month, N. H .: "I will cheerfully comply with any term of time your government may deem best suited to the means of the citizens." The English letters express a desire that the past due interest on State bonds may be funded into new bonds and any compromise the people see fit to propose.

The Sandwich Islanders are said to be the only nation who attach a political interest to the transit of Venus it having been on the occasion of the transit of 1769 that they made the acquaintance of Capt. Cook, and ate him. Our observers report that the whole population reveled in smoked glass, as naturally as an American boy takes to powder on the Fourth of July.

Panorama, Comedy and Bell-Ring

On Friday and Saturday evenings next we are to have, at the Opera House in this city, "Warren Bordwell's Original Mirror of Ireland and Mammonth and Artistic Franco-German War, now consolidated with the 'Fritz' German Bell-Ringers and James Taylor's unrivalled London Comedy Company." Speaking of the Panorama of the Franco-"The panorama is, by our American conempararies, pronounced the finest specimen of comic art at present permeating the country. Most of the scenes are from the easels of the celebrated English artists, Beverly and Telbin, so well known to the public in connection with Drury Lane and Haymarket theatres. Messrs. Beverly and Teltures we may enumerate 'The Charge of term of the Superior Court. the Chasseurs d'Afrique' (the pet cavalry of France) at Sedan, in which they were almost annihilated. The slaughter of Turcos - The Spiritualists will meet at at Weissenburg. Young men's prayer meeting | Cassidey for the arrest of Officer Miller on on Tuesday night, 71 o'clock, in Pastor's the charge of assault and battery and false imprisonment. The officer was carried be-Services in St. Paul's Evang. Lutheran fore Justice Cassidey, when, having expressed himself in rather judignant terms, stating that he did not recognize the arrest, &c., he was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance on Monday. He repaired to the Court House and gave the necessary security, after which he proceeded to arrest Whitney, the a. m. by Rev. C. H. Wiley. Sunday special deputy who accompanied him, and, with the assistance of another policeman who was called upon, the said deputy was marched up the City Hall, but was subsequently released by the Mayor. It was Whitney's turn now, and he proceeded to 'Squire Cassidey's office and secured a warrant for the arrest of officer Miller and his assistant on the charge of assault and battery, &c. The cases will be heard on Monday.

Another Tobacco Store Robbed.

The thieves of this city must have formed s joint stock company for the purpose of going into the tobacco business on a grand scale. In our last we mentioned the fact that two of our tobacco stores, those of Messrs, Pigott and Hall, had been entered and robbed to a considerable amount, and this morning we are called upon to announce the fact that Mr. H. Burkhimer's tobacco store has also suffered from the depredations of the "ring." His establishment was entered on Friday night and robbed of two boxes of tobacco valued at about $35, together with about $15 worth of snuff and a quantity of smoking tobacco. Entrance was no doubt effected through the means of false keys, as the doors were all found locked yesterday morning just as they had been left the night previous. Mr. Burkhimer has no clue to the perpetrator of the

The Passion Strong.

Dennis Miller, colored, who had just served out a term in the County Work House for larceny, and who was released a few days since and sent to the city on a flat that was coming down, had barely reached the wharf when he stole a lot of clothing belonging to a couple of the flatmen and made off with them. Complaint was made before Justice Cassidey, a warrant issued for his arrest and yesterday he was taken into custody and lodged in jail to await a hearing before the Magistrate named to-morrow. German War, &c., the Courier-Journal says: The prospect now is that he will have another term to serve at the institution he has so recently left.

THE TOLLEY GUN .- COPY OF TESTIMONIAL .-HUDSON CITY, N. J., Sept. 30th, 1874.-MESSES. J. & W. Tolley-29 Maiden Lane, New York:-The 10-guage Gun No. 3078 I ordered from you gives me entire satisfaction. I was very exacting when ordering the Gun, but must say that you have more than fulfilled what I required of you. I have shot several bre-ch-loaders by first-class makers, and your gua beats them all for beauty and workmanship. As for shooting qualities, your gur shoots stronger and more even than any gun I ever shot. I have shown it to several good judges (including first-class gunmakers) and all agree that the action is very strong and durable, and that the gun is one of the best they ever saw. I have made some very long shots with it, using only 3% drs. of powder, which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a targat according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Farm trials, and the average of 6 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38: right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 3% drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun the owner of it. But the real test of your gun is in the field-there it excells all others, killing cleaner and handsomer than any gun I ever saw, as you assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your guns to all my friends.
