WEDNESDAY NIGHT'S PROCEEDINGS. The session of Wednesday night was occupied with the discussion of the question of appropriating a certain sum for the increase of the State Insane building.

Mr Love moved a substitute, establishing "the Western Insane Asylum of North Carolina" at Asheville. The bill desires the establishment of a branch institution in order that the worst cases may be retained at the present Asylum and the milder cases be taken care of in the branch Asy-

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY.

SENATE.

THURSDAY, Feb. 18.

Mr. Linney, a resolution to appoint a Joint Committee to visit Statesville, Asheville, Morganton and other places with a view of ascertaining the most suitable place for establishing a branch insane asylum.

Mr. Albright, a substitute for said resolution, calling for a Joint Committee to visit Wilmington, High Point, Asheville, Statesville and other places for a similar purpose.

Mr. Cantwell, a resolution referring to military affairs. Mr. Stanford, a bill supplementary to the bill establishing the county of Pender. Referred. Mr LeGrand, a bill to be entitled an act supplemental to an act entitled "an act to establish a legal rate of interest and prevent usury." The bill provides:

WHEREAS, It has been made to appear that the early execution of the provisions of an act entitled an act toestablish a legal rate of interest and prevent usury, ratified - day of February, 1875, will have a disastrous effect upon business interests in this State, will cause contracts to be broken, farmers to be deprived of necessary supplies and advances, and much embarrassment to operations in many branches of industry; therefore the General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: That the provisions of said act shall not be enforced until the 1st day of January, 1876.

Mr. LeGrand asked that this bill be referred to the Judiciary Committee, with the request that they report at the proper time. So disposed of.

Mr. LeGrand called up bill repealing the prohibitory liquor law so far as it refers to the Court House of the county of Richmond. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Peebles called up the bill providing for the dissolution of the Roanoke Navigation Company. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Marler called up the bill to encourage the manufacture of domestic wines, which passed its several read-

Mr. Mills move that the vote by which the substitute of Mr. Love to locate a branch asylum at Asheville passed its second reading be reconsidered in order that the whole question may be brought before the Senate for a full consideration of the question of location. Mr. Stanford regretted the introduction of the substitute, as the investigation necessary at this stage of the session would dereat the very object sought, as the Legislature be done.

characterizes this as gross neglect. Mr. McRae continued: If the article had referred to himself alone, he should have passed it by in silence, as he had neither the time nor melination to get into controversies with newspapers, but as it reflected upon the action of a committee, of which he was chairman, he felt it his duty to say that the bill referred to had been held in the committee and was still held at the request of its introducer, the gentleman from Madison, who, as its author, had control of the bill. Mr. Gudger said: "Having introduced the 'Consolidation Bill' referred to in the Charlotte Observer, and having it specially in charge, I asked the Committee not to consider it until after the recess. Upon our meeting after Christmas the chairman of the Committee applied to me three several times to know if I desired its consideration. At my request a special meeting was called and the statements of myself and hers were heard by the committee with patience. I then asked the committee not to report the bill until I requested them so to do, which they kindly cansented to. This was done in the hope that Western members might agree upon some plan of action as there was considerable division ever been ready to do their duty and for the delay, if there is a responsibility, its rests with me alone." THE GLENN-CIVIL-RIGHTS RESOLU-TIONS

At 12 o'clock the special order was announced as the hour for the consideration of the Glenn-Civil-Rights resolutions. The substitute offered by Mr. Oaksmith, being the same in substance as those offered by Jones, of Caldwell, last session and adopted, were read.

Mr. Oaksmith said he knew the resolutions of Mr. Glenn would be voted for by the majority on this floor, but he desired to submit a few remarks to sustain his course of action. He deprecated the fact that they had been offered at all, as he did not like to see any party issues made on this floor. He had always been a Democrat but voted to suit his conscience. He did not want to see a separation of the white men from colored voters, as it was necessary that that ignorant class, should have good leaders, &c. Mr. Walker, of Richmond, said he did not rise to cast any reflections upon the course of Mr. Oaksmith or to impeach his party fealty, yet he thought the substitute came in bad taste from one who called himself a Democrat. He opposed the substitute at some length. The substitute was then overwhelmingly defeated. Mr. Gudger desired to say in explanation of his vote that he voted no from the fact that he voted for this very same substitute as a resolution last year. He would further say that he was not surprised to find Mr. Oaksmith acting with the opposite side of the House, as it was natural for a man to praise the bridge that carried him safely over the stream.

Mr. Candler took the floor in opposition to the resolutions, though he favored the substitute. He made a lengthy speech. Mr. Trivett said he was an independent, and veted with both parwould adjourn before anything could ties, but was opposed to the resolutions, the protection of our liberties, and be done. tions, &c.

Messrs. Barnett and Norment followed in opposition.

Messrs. Wheeler and Dula followed in lengthy remarks against the resolutions, but we have neither space or inclination at this late hour to give any report.

Next came Lloyd, col., in a characteristic speech.

Messrs. Glenn and Foote closed the argument in able and lengthy speeches but we have not space for a line, as the speech of Mr. Foote did not close till 111 o'clock. On motion of Mr. Glenn the reso-

ADDRESS OF DEMOCRATIC CON-GRESSMEN TO THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH.

A Capital and Timely Document. Washington, February 18.

The following address has just been prepared by the Democratic members of Congress from the South and Southwest:

To the people of the Southern States: You have confided to the undersigned in this conjuncture of affairs the delicate and difficult task of guarding in the Federal Congress your public interests, your rights, and reputation. You will therefore pardon the liberty we take of addressing you at a period so critical upon a matter affecting your destiny and that of your posterity. You cannot have failed to observe the persistent efforts of some of the leaders of the Republican party to revive the animosities of the late war, which, happily, are fast giving is impossible to predict certainly the effect | (Goak!)

of these appeals to passion. We believe that through the representation of a few upright and conscientious Federal officers and agents, an independent and able public press, and of many citizens without regard to party, the true condition of the Southern States and the real sentiment of the Southern people are being gradually made known to our fellow citizens of the North. We hope for their favorable decision when fully apprised of all the facts. The great ends of a good people will be reached when the people of all seetions forget that we have ever been ene mies, and come together again as in the early days of the Republic, emulating each other only in devotion to the best interests of the whole country. With this exalted purpose in view there is nothing nconsistent with the honor and manhood of a brave people to suffer with heroic patience, whatever be their provocations and wrongs. Looking through the fearful present to a hopeful future, and repelling unjust epithets and gratuitous in sults with dignified moderation, let every white man in every neighborhood in the whole South regard himself as a commissioner of peace, maintaining the kindliest relations towards the black man, remembering that the responsibility for the extreme poverty to which we have been reduced, and the corrupt governments to which his vote has subjected us, rests not so much upon him as upon the bad men who, with the assurance of Federal support, have by appeals to his worst passions sought to make him our enemy. While we labor by all honest means to convince him of the truth that our interests and his are identical, and that both must be preserved by good government, and that those who still up strife between us are the enemies of both races, let us at the same time see that he is fully protected in his guaranteed rights to vote as he pleases in all elections. Let us continue to deal with him honestly and fairly, and let us continue cordially to invite to our midst those of any political party who either seek to know the truth or to find homes upon our soil. We do not exaggerate when we admonish you of the disheartening fact that every street disturbance, every homicide, of what ever character, by whomsoever committed by black or white Republicans, or Democrats, such as are incident to every community upon earth, is perverted into a proof of a spirit of lawlessness and violence on purpose to accomplish political ends. We well know the gross injustice of such charges, which have weight only where ig norance of our true condition prevails Strenuous efforts are now being made by those who misrepresent you to induce the passage by Congress of the most dangerous measures in order to irritate our people, to drive them to despair, and to provoke them to violent outbreaks in order to furnish an excuse for applying for military interfer-We express the hope that a majority of the present Congress will not be found ready to sanction such legislation. If it be accomplished it would be against the protest not only of Democrats, but of the moral North, and the statesmanship here of the party in power, and of such Republicans as Bryant, Evarts, Charles Francis Adams and others, whose patriotism and sense of justice are known to the entire community.

We may, however, mistake. The most extreme oppression and unconstitutional measures may be imposed upon you. In such event we would appeal to the wisdom and patience of a long suffering people by every hope of the future for continued forbearance and hopeful reliance upon the virtue and sense of justice of the American people for the ultimate vindication of our ernment.

Accidental Drowning. Coroner Hewlett yesterday held an inquest over the body of a colored man named Jim Boykin, which was recovered yesterday morning near the foot of Chesnut street wharf. It appears that on Wednesday night about 111 clock Boykin who was a flat hand and who was asleep on his flat at the time rolled off into the water. Several persons in the vicinity heard cries of help at the time and approached the place but arrived there too late to render any assistance. It is supposed that the deceased was too benu. in cold at the time to be able to resmohimselr. Boykin was about 35 years old and was from the lower part of Sampsoff county. The coroners jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Destructive Fire at Goldsboro. We learn from a private letter rec/ived here last night that a destructive fire occurred at Goldsboro yesterday morning, by which the new frame dwelling situated on Chesnut street, belonging to Messrs. H. Weil & Bro. was totally destroyed. The fire took place at about 121 o'clock. The origin is unknown. The house was a new one and was unoccupied. At the time the finishing touches were just being put on. All efforts to save the building were futile. It was insured for $3,500, $2,000 of which is in the New York Underwriters' Agency and $1,500 is in the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company.

Three young colored men entered the clothing store of Messrs. Shrier Bros., yes terday, and after completing their ostensible business they started to walk out, and Mr. Shrier, who was in the store at the time, turned his back upon them. SPECIAL STAR TELEGRAM.

RALEIGH, Feb. 19. The usury bill came up as the special order in the House to-day. The amendments to leave it to a vote of the people, to increase the rate of interest to 10 per cent., to extend the time of going into effect to November 1, and to make it apply to national banks, were all voted down, and the bill passed its final reading by yeas 65, VIDETTE. nays 31.

The Supplemental Usury Bill-Probability that a Compromise will be Effected. [SPECIAL STAR TELEGRAM.]

RALEIGH, Feb. 19. The supplemental usury bill introduced in the Senate by Mr. LeGrand simply provides that the bill shall not go into effect until January 1, 1876. Its object is to relieve those who are now in the power of creditors, and to prevent any panic or stagnation in business. It is generally conceded that the supplemental bill will pass, or that a more liberal compromise will be effected.

Tony Denier's Pantomime Troupe.

This troupe will perform here on Monday night next. They come well recommended. In regard to their performance, we glean the following from the Savannah Advertiser of Thursday regarding their appearance in that city: "Humpty Dumpty Abroad" was charmingly presented. It is impossible too highly to commend Tony Denier in his great character of Humpty Dumpty, in his delineation of which he is the admitted peer of Geo. L. Fox.

"Passing from 'Fancy's Frolic in the first act, wherein the well arranged transformation of the leading characters takes place, in the second act Humpty's kaleidoscope displays its world of wonders. Every specialty artist here introduced to contribute to the varied entertainment was rapturously encored, some being complimented by a recall three and four times; Master Skelton as a boy solo cornetist, Mlle. Zulella and her hat spinners, Miss Josie Granger in her boquet of melodies, Mr. Pat Rooney in his Irish songs and dances, August Siegrist's gymnastic combinations, Mr. Maffin in his ladder dance, Miss Pauline Rfchards in her graceful and airy Hungarian dance, and Mr. Phil. Heath in his wonderful ventriloquisms with his comical puppets, Duke and Tomer anded to the ablished themselves in popular far or.'

The Freedman's Bank Bill.

In regard to the above bill, a Washington telegram to the Baltimore Sun says: 'The bill of Senator Robertson to make good the losses of the depositors in the Freedman's Savings Bank provides that United States bonds shall be issued to the amount of the balance due after all the assets of the bank have been realized, the bonds to be sold and the proceeds to be applied to the payment. There is not much probability of its passage."

THE TOLLEY GUN .- COPY OF TESTIMONIAL, -HUDSON CITY, N. J., Sept. 30th, 1874.-MESSES. J. & W. Tolley-29 Maiden Lane, New York: -The 10-guage Gun No. 3078 I ordered from you gives me entire satisfaction. I was very exacting when erdering the Gun, but must say that you have more than fulfilled what I required of you. I have shot several bre ch-leaders by first-class makers, and your gun beats them all for bea ty and workmanship. As for shooting qualities, your gur shoots stronger and more even than any gun I ever shot. I have shown it to several good judges (including first-class gunmakers) and all agree that the action is very strong and durable, and that the gun is one of the best they ever saw. I have made some very long shots with it, using only 3% drs. of powder, which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a targat according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Farm trials, and the average of 6 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38: right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 3% drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun is seldem met with, and am very proud to be the ewner of it. But the real test of your gun is in the field—there it excells all others, killing cleaner and handsomer than any gun I ever saw, as you assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your guas to all my friends.
Yours Respectfully,
HENRY LORIOT.
