The Closing Labors of Congress—Lawrence and Sheridan Sworn In—Appropriation Bills Passed and Signed—The Force Bill a Dead Failure, &c.

WASHINGTON, March 4. CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.—Lawrence, who contested Snyder's seat, Sheridan, who contested Finck's place as Congressman at large, were sworn in.

The bill regulating the compensation of agents and attorneys prosecuting claims before Congress, passed.

The Senate amendments to the Bounty bill were concurred in and a Committee of Conference asked on the Army Appropriation bill as reported from Committee of Conference.

SENATE.—The Conference Committee reported on the Postoffice bill, with an amendment requiring telegraph companies to take down poles and reach the capital by underground cables. Passed.

The Judiciary Committee reported favorably on removing the disabilities of General L. Hawkins and S. D. Lee, and adversely on Raphael Semmes. The Committee claimed that Semmes has been "cruel to Americans seamen in the Indian ocean."

An amendment to the Appropriation bill, giving $350,000 to anti-bell mail contractors, was ruled out of order.

The bill appropriating money for awards of the Southern Claims Commission, after striking out nine cases involving $77,000, passed. This carries the bill back to the House.

The bill to pay awards for quartermaster and commissary stores, taken during the war, was tabled.

Eads' bill for the improvement of the Mississippi river, has been accepted by the Committee of Conference and an amendment to the River and Harbor bill.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Senate continued in session, but the House took a recess from 8 to 9 o'clock.

The report of the Committee of Conference on the Bounty bill was laid on the table and the bill is lost.

Congress adjourned at noon. All the appropriation bills were passed and signed—There are some details inaccessible until later—in the evening.

The Steamer Gottenburg, Her Passengers and Crew Wrecked—Negotiations for the New French Cabinet.

LONDON, March 4.

The steamer Gottenburg, with eighty-five passengers and thirty-five crew, was wrecked at New Australia. Only four of the number are known to be saved.

Those who filled the boats are yet to be heard from. The Gottenburg had a large cargo, including three thousand ounces of gold.

A special French Commission has been appointed to investigate the wreck. The negotiations for a new Cabinet are progressing. Buffet will be Vice President and the Councils be without a port-folio.

The German Gazette hopes the government will prevent a further outbreak of the ten thousand cavalry horses, which the French government have ordered from Germany.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Labor Troubles—Virginia Colored Puddlers Employed in Place of Whites.

PITTSBURGH, March 4.

A Baltimore company have contracted with a gang of Virginia colored puddlers, part of whom have arrived. Trouble is apprehended from home puddlers, who have been on a strike since December on account of reduction of wages. The puddlers offered to pay the new comers way back to Richmond, but they refused to accept the proposition and went to work without molestation.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

The late snow storm stopped the railroads throughout Michigan.

The South Boston chemical works have been burned—loss $75,000.

The Episcopal Diocese of Wisconsin have voted to confirm Bishops De Kovan and Jagger.

At Franklin, N. H., an insane woman cut her daughter's and her own throat. The mother will die.

In the March Consistory, the Pope will institute new dioceses in the United States or raise those already created to a Metropolitan See.

A Dublin telegram says the return game of the American-Irish rivalry occurs June 29th. A committee to entertain American visitors has been appointed.

Manager Tom Darcy, of the Memphis, Tenn., theatre excluded negroes who had tickets to the dress circle. He will make this a taste case if the negroes bring suit.

WASHINGTON.

The House Backs Down from Its Disagreement to Various Senate Amendments—Bills Calendar and Left Untouched—Andrew Johnson on Hand, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, March 4.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The House receded from its disagreement to the following Senate amendments: Making the single rate of postage on fourth class mail matter one cent and on two ounces; striking out the items of $50,000 for a new light house vessel for the Fifth District, $100,000 for a steam tender on the Pacific coast, $50,000 for payment for property lost in the military service, $34,000 for Montana war claim, $150,000 for the purchase of the Stevens Battery, and also the provision authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to call in on three months' notice such five-twenty bonds as he may need for the sinking fund. All of these Senate amendments, therefore, have been enacted.

The New Orleans Custom House gets $75,000.

Among the bills which remained on the Senate calendar at the close of the session to-day, and which therefore failed, are the following: The House General Amnesty bill, which reached the Senate in December, 1873; the House bill for the protection of elections, &c., known as the caucus Force bill, which got no further in the Senate than its second reading.

All the various postal telegraph bills introduced in the Senate failed in the Senate of a similar character, originating in the House, failed in the House.

The following bills were also left on the Senate calendar and failed at adjournment: Senate bills for the payment of the French Spoliation Claims; to Protect the Navigable waters of the United States from Injury and Obstruction; Declaring the True Intent and Meaning of the Union Pacific Railroad Act; to Pay the Two Per Cent Claim of the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois; to Establish a Bureau of Internal Commerce; to make general provisions in regard to cable telegraphic communication; to grant pensions to officers in the war with Mexico; to amend the act granting
