Mr. Hale, of New York, who introduced the resolution to censure Hon. John Young Brown, the young Kentucky member who denounced Butler in a Junian manner some time ago, has had the manliness to correct a mistake into which he had fallen. He says in a letter to a fellow-member, to whom he gave privilege of publication, that so far as that resolution imputed to Mr. Brown any intention of prevarication and double-dealing in his response to the Speaker, himself, and a majority of the House had been misled, and had done injustice to Mr. Brown. . He adds: "A careful examination of the record since, qualifying it by my own distinct recollection, satisfied me that I did a great wrong | the State. to Mr. Brown in imputing this intent to him, and that there was nothing in his response to the Speaker inconsistent with the entire good faith, or with the integrity of an upright and honorable man."

The Shelby Banner is a new paper which takes the place of the Cleaveland Banner, until recently published in Shelby, Cleaveland county, North Carolina. The new Banner is a larger, handsomer, and every way better paper than the old one was It is edited by Messrs. W. C. Durham and J. L. Webb. It is Demoeratic Conservative in politics.

The Colorado bill is now a law, but the amendment put on by the Senate postpones its admission to the Union until after the next Presidential election, so that it cannot take part in that contest. It is likely Colorado will be a Democratic State.

There would seem to be a right lively war waging in Rhode Island between the revenue officers and the State authorities. Read the vigorous speech of Gov. Howard. Little Rhody is plucky in her encounters with the Washington government if not lucky.

On next Tuesday votes New Hampshire for Congress, State officers and Legislature. We shall be greatly surprised if the granite hills do not reverberate with Democratic io triomphes on the morning of the 10th.

SEVENTY-THIRD DAY.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, March 2. Mr. Caldwell introduced a bill to encourage the manufacture of cotton and woolen fabrics in North Caroling Referred. Mr. Parish, a bill to amend Battle's Revisal so as to have all fines and forfeitures in the counties paid over to the respective county Treasurers for the benefit of the school fund of the county, instead of sending it to the Public Treasurer. Referred.

Mr. Taylor, a bill to amend an act prohibiting the sale of liquor in townships when the people so determine. d. Referred.

ting the Governor to extend pardon to Mack Rousal, of Tyrrell. Adopted.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE. Mr. Waring arose to a question of privilege on this morning's Sentinel. He read the following extract from that paper: "Except Gudger and Col. Waring, few members have the pluck to put such a load on the North Carolina Road." He said he had never expressed any opinion of the merits of any bill before the Senate in connection with this road. His votes on the bill and amendments last winter showed his position, and he had seen no reason to change it

THE LIEN LAW.

Mr. Cook's bill to repeal secs. 19 and 20, chap. 65, of Battle's Revisal, was considered. The bill provides for the repeal of the agricultural labor lien law, to go into effect January

Messrs. Cooke, Peebles and Kerr, favored the repeal, believing that the law had been productive of great damage to the farming interests of ucker opposed the repeal. They that the law worked the hardships | obliged to retire. claimed, but believed it enabled many farmers to cultivate their farms that could not otherwise do so.

Pending the question, the special order was called.

THE N. C. R. R. BILL. Mr. McElroy's bill to amend the charter of the N. C. R. R. Co., empowering that road to purchase the A. & N. C. R. R., and to purchase the W. N. C. R. R. and complete the

Mr. McElroy opposed the postonement. Mr. Graham offered as a substitute the House bill, (passed that body Thursday, the substance of which has been given in the House reports.) On motion of Mr. French, the matter was postponed until Monday at 11 o'clock. PASSED THIRD READING. Bill to incorporate the Snow Hill Branch Railroad Company.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES By Mr. Tate, a bill to vest lands purchased by the State in the Trustees of the University. Referred.

LAND SCRIP. The bill in relation to the land scrip fund for the establishing of colleges for the benefit of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts was taken up as the special order for 111 o'clock.

Mr. Mendenhall explained fully the bill and its objects, which is to require the State Treasurer to take up the amount of the land scrip, donated by the United States Congress to North Carolina, for the purpose of establishing a College of Agriculture, &c., for which special tax bonds had been received in payment at a sale of the same and the interist thereon to be applied annually to the State University. He then proceeded to advocate the adoption of the bill. " Mr. Tate followed in support of the bill, also explaining the various complications that surrounded this fund, arising from the sale of this land scrip.

Mr. Gash was not opposed to the objects to be attained by the passage of the bill, and while he favored it, yet he desired its postponement till after the passage of the State debt

Mr. Boyd was willing to favor any advancement of the University, but believing that the passage of this bill would be a recognition of the special tax bonds, he felt compelled in op-

Mr. McRae said he was as much opposed to any recognition of the special tax bonds as the gentleman from Alamance, but claimed that the adoption of the bill would in no wise be so considered. Mr. Boyd again took the floor in opposition to the bill, and pending his argument the second special order was taken up, being the Senate compromise to commute and settle the public debt, and pending discussion thereon the House adjourned till 3:30 o'clock.

Civil Rights Cases in Restaurants.

[Baltimore Sun, 5th.] Two restaurant "civil-rights" cases developed themselves vesterday which met with very uncivil treatment. In one ease three colored men went into the eating-bar of a prominent restaurant, and, taking their pleces at the rack, made known their wants. The proprietor seeing them come in, and determining to avoid any violution of the law in his house, made the colored waiters employed by him stand aside, and served the colored customers in person. What they called for was served them; but some white customers, not liking the presence of the colored men, attacked them, and made things lively with flying glasses, &c. The colored adventurers were obliged to get away as rapily as possible. The broken china and glassware was picked up by the attendants of the house, and the proprietor, who had done his best under the circumstances, retired to his cashier's desk to place the fractured crockery to the profit and loss count.

The second case occurred at another point. A white man brought a colored friend into a well known restaurant and both sat down at the eating bar. The white man called for what they wanted. The attendant, and then some one attacked the white | bitious gentlemen. Messrs. Bell, French, Latham and friend and gave him a hustling. The atmosphere soon became so warm that could not agree with the Senators | both the unwelcome guests were

Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner Hewlett yesterday empanelled jury and held an inquest upon the remains of Daniel Smith alias Cowan, a colored man, aged about 22 years, whose body was found in the water near the saw mill of Messrs. Northrop & Cumming. From the looks of the remains it is supposed that the body must have been in the water for some time.

The last seen of the deceased was about six weeks ago, when he stepped into his boat at the Market dock and moved away. At that time he was intoxicated.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that deceased came to his death from accidental drowning.

Found Browned.

The body of a white man was on Friday last found in the water at Rat Island, about five miles from this city, on the Northeast branch of the Cape Fear.

The deceased was well and neatly dressed, his attire betokening a well-to-do or wealthy citizen. The place at which his body was found, we learn, is a lonely, desolate place, and some mystery seems to hang around the affair. No particulars regarding the unknown man or his death have Coroner Hewlett was notified yesterday evening and left this morning for the place to hold an inquest over the body.

The Injunction Case Before Judge Bond-The Case Elaborately Argued-Decision to be Rendered Monday at 11 O'clock-A Decision Against D. Holmes and D. Gay Predicted - Legislative Matters -The Convention Question Uncertain-The Usury Bill-State Debt Bill, &c.

|Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, March 6-6 o'clock P. M. The case of David Gay and others to enoin the municipal election in Wilmington was opened at 10 A. M. to-day before Judge Bond.

Judge Russell opened the argument for the complainants and spoke two hours. He was followed by the Hon. W. H. Battle for the defendants. Next came Judge Cantwell for the complainants, and he was followed by the Hop. W. N. H. Smith, who is now speaking, for the defendants. W. H. Bailey will close for the complainants, and it is probable Judge Bond will render his decision to-night. RALEIGH.

[SECOND TELEGRAM.]

RALEIGH, March 6-11:30 P. M. The argument in the injunction case closed at 71 o'clock to-night. The points in the plaintiffs' argument were, first, that being citizens of the United States and qualified voters according to the constitution of North Carolina, they are entitled to S. Gross, Reve James B. White. vote at any city election.

Second, that the terms of the act of the Legislature showed that the territorial division and division in population (in city bill) as to color manifested an intention on the part of the General Assembly to deprive plaintiffs and other colored voters of the right of suffrage, or to diminish the value of such suffrage.

Third, on account of the heavy pains and penalties denounced against the present Board of Aldermen for any attempt to hold over, there was reasonable ground to apprehend that the present Board would re-

Fourth, that this shows that the plaintiffs had no adequate remedy at law to protect the rights of suffrage, and entitles them to the injunctive aid of a Court of Equity, and they relied on the 5th section of the recent

The respondents contended, first, that by virtue of the 4th section of the eighth article of the constitution of North Carolina the Legislature has exclusive power to fix the qualifications of city electors, and such qualifications are not governed by that article of the constitution entitled "Suffrage," and that the latter article was confined to State and county elections.

Second, that at all events, the subject matter of the action was a political ques tion which the Courts should refuse to entertain, reference here being made to the Stanton and Johnson cases touching the reconstruction acts.

The case was ably argued by both sides. The case was adjourned until Monday morning at 11 o'cleck, when Judge Bond will render his decision.

It is believed in legal circles that the decision will be in favor of the defendants. The State debt bill (previously passed the Senate) passed its second reading in the House to-day, and was made the special order for Wednesday next. The supplementary bill has not yet been aken up in the House. The Convention question is yet uncerain. Warm friends of the measure are doubtful of the passage of a bill calling it. RALEIGH.
