OUTLINES.

Judge Woods, of Louisiana, claims to have power to select a District Judge to his vacancy. — Bryan, colored, murderer of Langley, in Onslow resented until September. — Striking miners dumped loaded cars and burned depot and telegraph office at Locust Gap, Pa. — Simpson & Co., Boston house, failed. — Largest Democratic Convention held for years in Rhode Island, Cutler nominated for Governor. — Delaware Legislature passed bill to evade Civil Rights law. — President and Cabinet will assist at Lexington Centennial.

WHAT WILL HE DO ABOUT IT? The Raleigh News busily plies the Governor with questions as to the change of gauge. In its issue of yesterday it says:

"Governor, this is not a political question. It is something high above party squabbles; it will concern all the future of North Carolina. Do you intend, then, to allow two Judges of the Supreme Court and a small Virginia corporation to govern our State? We ask this question with all deference and respect."

"What was done in this State in this matter could never have been done in Virginia. And now will the Governor not execute the laws of the State? We want to know if North Carolina is only a sort of outlying colony of big Richmond or a foreign coaling station of bigger Philadelphia."

A Sermon on the Wharf.

A colored man by the name of Alexander Morris had a warrant issued yesterday for the mate of the Schr. Charley Buck, lying near the foot of Dock street, charging him with committing an assault and battery upon him. Morris alleges that he was hoisting ice from the hold of the vessel and on one occasion started the horse too soon, whereupon the mate struck him and knocked him off the gangway. The parties then clinched and the mate was knocked down by Morris, who jumped on him. At this juncture the Captain interfered and ordered Morris to let the mate loose, which he immediately did, when the mate rose and struck him again. The matter, we suppose, will be investigated before the City Court Monday morning.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XVI.—NO. 159.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, MARCH 28, 1875.

WHOLE NO. 2,333.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning:
Jere Forbes, mentioned in our last as having been arrested on the charge of stealing chickens, was arraigned for larceny, found guilty and ordered to give security in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.
John Mott, charged with larceny, was found guilty and ordered to give bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.
Mary Murphy, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $10 and the costs or work for thirty days on the streets.
Eliza Wright, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $30 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets. Eliza being one of those courageous and independent females who act on the principle of the old adage, "be sure you are (W)right and then go ahead," took occasion to rise in presence of the court and denounce one of the witnesses for the prosecution as a "d—d liar." For this delicate allusion, in response to the inquiry if she had anything to say for herself, she was fined $10 or 30 days on the streets for contempt of court. Undaunted at this display of a determination on the part of the court to preserve its dignity she immediately reiterated the offensive epithet as applied to the witness in question, when another $10 or thirty days on the streets was placed to her account for contempt. The irate defendant thereupon recommenced a tirade of abuse against the witness alluded to, failing to take her seat when ordered to do so by the Court, when another fine of $30 or 30 days on the streets for contempt was registered against her. This was too much for even Eliza's nerves and she suddenly collapsed, the record against her at this stage of the proceedings exhibiting fines aggregating the amount of $60, or 180 days on the streets.
Just as this rather novel case had been finally disposed of a person evidently endowed with a keen sense of the ridiculous, and possessed of a rather significant name, the name of Mary Eliza Lively, suddenly burst forth, to the consternation of the Court and the amusement of the spectators, in a genuine ha! ha! For this display of levity in the presence of Justice on the part of the lively creature she was ordered to pay a fine of $5 or work for 10 days on the streets, for contempt of Court.
Body Recovered.—The Inquest.
The body of Mary McKeize, the young colored woman who was drowned by the swamping of a small boat in the river, near the foot of Market street, on the afternoon of Friday, the 12th inst., was discovered yesterday morning, by two colored men who were standing on the wharf near Messrs. Oldham & Cumming's mill, foot of Dock street, drifting down with the current.—They immediately procured a boat and secured the body, taking it into the dock at that point. Coker Hewlett was notified, who summoned a jury, and at 10 o'clock A. M. proceeded to hold an inquest over the body. The remains of the unfortunate woman presented a very revolting spectacle, having been in the water sixteen days. Deceased was about 21 or 22 years of age.
After a careful investigation and an adjournment to secure additional evidence the jury finally returned a verdict that deceased came to her death from accidental drowning.
A large number of both white and colored people, the latter greatly predominating, crowded the wharf where the remains were exposed during the forenoon for the purpose of getting a view of them, the deceased being well known among the colored population.
Two Children Burned to Death.
A fair correspondent at Bogue, Columbus county, under date of March 26th, gives the details of a most shocking accident that occurred the previous afternoon. The house of Jacob Powell, a respectable colored man living near Bogue, caught fire and burned to death two children who were in it at the time. The father and mother of the children were at work in a field about a mile distant and were not aware of the fire in time to save their offspring. The shrieks of the frantic mother, when she beheld the situation, are represented to have been truly heart-rending, and it is thought she would have done serious injury to herself in her attempt to save her children had not the bystanders restrained her by main force.
The children had been left in the care of an aged negro, who shut them up in the house and went to visit a neighbor. No blame is attached to the aged woman's act, however, other than the carelessness manifested in the premises.
The charred remains of the unfortunate children were taken from the debris and buried on Friday morning.
Stealing Cigars.—Arrest of the Thief.
John Mott, colored, who will be remembered as the party who turned State's witness in a recent case of larceny in which he was implicated, and in which Annie J. Speight was also interested as being charged with receiving the stolen goods, was arrested by Officer Eagles, of the police force, yesterday morning, charged with stealing a box of cigars from Messrs. Brunhild & Bro. It seems that Mott was in the store, and seizing an opportunity when the clerk's back was turned, seized the box and attempted to conceal it under his coat which he had thrown across his shoulder. He was discovered, however, and a call made for the police, with the result indicated. Further particulars in reference to the case will be found under the head of the proceedings of the City Court.

The Signal Office.

In accordance with the request of the officer in charge of the Signal Office at this port, we give the following a place in this column:
U. S. SIGNAL OFFICE,
Saturday, March 27, '75.
Dear Sirs: Will you do me the favor of stating in the columns of THE MORNING STAR that no prediction of a tornado advancing toward Wilmington was made by the Signal Office of this city, or by any one connected with it. By doing so you will prevent unnecessary inquiries, and possible uneasiness among the credulous.
Very respectfully,
ROBERT SNEYD,
Signal Service U. S. A.

Another Disappointment.

We learn that the new truck for the Fifth Ward Independent Bucket Company was not shipped on the steamer due here Saturday, because the carman, in taking it from the factory, ran into an omnibus and broke the tongue, rendering a new one necessary. It was expected to be shipped yesterday.

THE TOLLEY GUN.—COPY OF TESTIMONIAL.
TOLLEY CITY, N. C., Sept. 30th, 1874.—MRS. J. & W. TOLLEY, 29 Malton Lane, New York.—The Rev. and Hon. Mr. Cronly, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your gift of a Tolley Gun, and to express my sincere thanks for the same. It is a very strong and durable, and that the gun is one of the best they ever saw. I have made some very long shots with it, using only 3/4 drs. of powder, which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a target according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Farm trials, and the average of 4 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38; right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 3/4 drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun is seldom met with, and am very proud to be the owner of it. But the real test of your gun is in the field—there it excels all others, killing birds and animals than you can find elsewhere. You assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your gun to all my friends.
Yours Respectfully,
HENRY LORROT.

Spirits Turpentine

Franklin farmers are discouraged by the heavy rains.
—The Second Baptist Church of Raleigh is to be enlarged.
—Asheville is to have a new brick hotel and several brick stores.
—The Western Railroad stockholders' meeting will occur next Thursday.
—The hurricane went through Western Carolina, visiting Iredell, Guilford and other counties.
—The municipal election which takes place May 1 is exciting considerable interest in Salisbury.
—There is strong feeling over the proposition to remove Johnston Court-house from Smithfield to the railroad.
—It appears from the Petersburg Index-Appeal that the eloquent Rev. W. W. Walker is stationed in Baltimore and not in Portsmouth.

Young Elliott, of Statesville, who murdered young Neal, of Virginia, has been pardoned from the penitentiary by Gov. Brogden.
—A sweet-sixteen is writing stories for the Beanoke News. Well, get on at that age they are telling 'em out.
—Mr. W. E. Lawrence, Catawba county, in a short while, begin to rebuild his mills that were destroyed by fire a few weeks since, and in a much better style.

The railroad from Wilmington through Person and Caswell to Danville, which has been looked up as they never looked before.—Wilmington Chronicle. When it's built.
—Dr. Jas. R. Washington, formerly of this State, but for the past twenty-five years a highly esteemed and successful practitioner of medicine in St. Louis, died at his residence in that city on the 19th inst. Dr. Washington was raised in Newbern.

The last number of the State Agricultural Journal, contains the well-written salutory of Charles F. Harris, Esq., as Editor of that paper, he having been selected by the State Grange under an agreement between the Grange and the proprietor of the Journal.

At Johnston Court, Charles Wallon, colored, was acquitted of the charge of murdering Cheatham, soon after the August election. Wallon was attacked by an infuriated mob of negroes, led by the deceased, because of his having voted the Conservative ticket, and in self-defence, slew the foremost man.

Weldon News: We are sorry to hear of the misfortune of our countryman, F. M. E. Baker, in having his house destroyed by fire last Thursday night. At this writing we have not heard particulars, only that most of his furniture was saved. The loss falls heavily on the Colonel, and his many friends sympathize with him.

Sentinel: Mr. Belknap, Secretary of War, writes to Governor Brogden for a list of all the Representatives elected to the Forty-Fourth Congress, specifying each Congressional District where there is likely to be a contest over the seat. Governor Brogden replied to him there was no contest, and forwarded a list of the representatives.

The Statesville American learns that a man by the name of John Ray, of Wilkes county, on last Saturday, was shot by a man named Cheatham, and died of the wound Sunday morning. C. was aided and abetted by a man of the name of Ball, who has since been arrested. Cheatham made his escape. Ray had been aiding Chatham, a Deputy Marshal, in arresting illicit distillers, which led to the murder. The deceased leaves a wife and several children.

We learn from the Charlotte Observer that some days ago in Wilkes county a colored customer of a distiller named the family of William Church. It seems that he was engaged at work a short distance from his home, and that his wife went to carry him his supper, locking three children, aged respectively 4, 6 and 8 years, in the house, the lock (a padlock) being on the outside. When she returned at 10 o'clock, all had been totally destroyed by fire. The children were burned to ashes, and none of them were recognizable.
