- The following, says the Salisbury Watchman, is a private letter received by Mr. E. M. Wilson from Bush Hill, Randolph county, N. C .: "A very respectable citizen of this county by the name of Fen-tress came to his death, last Friday, very mysteriously. It was caused by a pisto shot from his own hands, the bail entering his right temple ranged through the left eye, bursting out both eyes. He was seen to open a drawer by one of his children, where he kept the pistol, and the child can't tell whether it was an accident or whether he committed suicide. There are different opinions about it-some think it suicide while others think it an accident.

-Salishury Watchman: The best thing we heve heard on the "ragged edge", trial, and at the same time one of the most truthful compliments to the Southern ladies, was uttered by a Salisburyian at Saratoga last summer. He was discussing the great scandal, on the piazza of one of the hotels, with another gentleman, and of course, like all right thinking people, was fully conversation was proceeding, several elegantly dressed Northern ladies stepped up and to his great astonishment chimed in and discussed, with perfect freedom, the pros This was rather strong for our Southern friend, but he stood calmly until one of them is her gushing defense of the great libertine, turned sharply upon him and said, no christian man would speak in that way of Mr. Beecher; yes sir, I'll go further and say that no gentleman would speak of him in such terms." This raised him, and he replied, in words for which every Southern ady should thank him, "Madam, I do not know whether you are a lady or not, but this I do know, that in the South where I am from, no woman dressed like a lady as you are, and looking like a lady as you do, would think of discussing such scandalous immoralities, publicly, with gentlemen." The ladies(?) retired in high disdain with mantling cheek. The implied compliment to our Southern ladies is a deserved one, and all the more grateful that it came from from the lips of an adopted citizen of foreign birth and cosmopolitan travel.

Miss Anna E. Dickinson and Joan of Are.

The Richmond Dispatch, after aliuding to the prejudice existing in the South against female lecturers generally and the rich intellectual feast many lost under this flimsey pretext by not listening to Miss Dickinson's historical sketch of Joan of Arc, says: "It would possibly be nearer the fact were we to say that Miss Dickinson is not a lecturer, but an actress-a powerful, fascinating actress, who dramatizes her thrilling words. and with a touching pathos acts out the simply touching story of Joan D' Arc with a power such as has never been witnessed in the South before. She brings before her hearers the scenes and incidents of four hundred years ago with an earnestness and a magical control that is beyond our power to describe. To say that she holds the audience spell-bound would not faithfully represent the truth. She chains every listener, moves every heart, and brings tears to eyes that would scorn to weep upon occasions of more solemn import.

"She tells the story of the faithful peasant girl from her birth to her death so eloquently and grandly that one would imagine they were listening to the history of a great chieftain whose purity, gallant deeds, courageous fortitude, self-sacrificing spirit, and untainted character were as indelibly impressed upon our memory as the life and character of a Christian hero of our own day and generation."

Miss Dickinson, it will be remembered, makes her first and probably last appearance at the Opera House in this city on Wednesday evening next, in her celebrated historical lecture on the above named subject. We have every assurance that those who do not go to hear her will regret it.

Press Association.

The Raleigh News says: "The State Press Association will meet in Wilmington on the 11th of May, and will remain in session some three days. We doubt not but that Wilmington will give the press a hearty reception." Yes, we will. We'll show our brothers our lines of progress, and then take them

Lutherloh, L. C. Lineberry and Rob't M.

We learn that a communication has been received by Dr. J. E. Winants, Physician in charge of the Marine Hospital at this port, from the Bureau of Health at Washington City, announcing the probable prevalence of yellow fever on the Atlantic coast during the Summer and urging the importance of preparing for it. This fearful disease, which the people of Wilmington have so much cause to dread, has already made its appearance at Key West, Florida, and a telegram in this morning's paper convevs the intelligence that it is raging to a fearful extent at Havana, there being seventy-six cases on board of two Spanish vessels in the harbor. This information, coming as it does in an official form, should certainly prove a sufficient incentive to prompt and earnest efforts to prevent, if possible, the introduction of the disease, as well as to guard against its spreading and becoming epidemic, should it find its way here, by at once placing the city in a proper sanitary condition. Our authorities have already taken steps to this end, as will be seen by the advertisement of the City Marshal in this paper, but his efforts will avail but little if he fails to receive the earnest and active co-operation of our citizens. It is to the interest of all, white and colored, rich and poor, that he should have this co-operation without stint. Let the work of cleansing, purifying and disinfecting the city be pushed forward with the energy and earnestness with which it has been commenced, and let it be thorough and complete, for danger lurks in our damp cellars, in the filtrand garbage in our lots, in the alleys and a ways, in the stagnant pools and wherever corruption and impurity exists. Yellow Jack has commenced an

his insidious approaches.

We are requested to notify the corporators named in the Act of the General Assembly incorporating "The Wilmington and Coast Turnpike Company," that a meeting for the purpose of organizing said corporation and taking such measures as may be necessary for a speedy and active prosecution of the work, will be held at the Purcell House on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

The following is a list of the corporators, and each one of them is earnestly requested to attend this meeting:

John A. Saunders, William B. Giles, Richard H. Grant, Geo. Harriss, Henry Burkhimer, William A. Cumming, Geo. A. Peck, Isaac B. Grainger, Richard Brad ley, David R. Murchison, R. R. Bridgers, Edwin E. Burruss, James Dawson, T. H. McKoy, J. W. Atkinsou, T. J. Southerland, J. A. Engelhard, C. S. Ellis, W. H. Bernard, Levi A. Hart, W. G. Thomas, Wilkes Morris, T. H. Smith, C. M. The importance of a good drive to the sounds, especially for owners of vehicles who have a penchant for frequent visits to the seashore, cannot be overestimated, and we congratulate all such on the prospect of a speedy realization of their wishes in this respect. With the turnpike completed and the sound road in operation, as it no doubt will be at a no distant day, our seaside will soon become a popular resort which all can visit at their pleasure undeterred by the difficulty and expense which have heretofore hampered their movements in this di

Mr. Frank H. Alfriend, our quondam as sociate, now residing in Atlanta, is thus handsomely complimented by the Herald of that city: "We ask no apology for orcupying so much of our space with the letter on "Personal Politics," from the Georgia correspondent of the Courier-Journal. "F. H. A." The writer, understood to be Mr. Alfriend, of this city, is one of the most brilliant and entertaining writers that we have. Whatever he writes is sure to be racy, and sure to be read. He has a fund of personal and general information, that furnishes him a capital that no "run" can exhaust. We trust that we shall see his letters often in the Courier-Journal.

The New Bucket Company.

We were shown last evening the caps and belts of the Fifth Ward Independent Bucket Company, which have just been received. White skin caps are what they are termed in the invoice and they are certainly very neat and handsome, as are also the belts. Both caps and belts will be on exhibition at Heinsberger's Book Store on Monday, so that all who desire to do so can take a look at them.

Burned to Death.

A little daughter of Peter Morris, a colored man residing in the southern section of the city, was accidentally burned to death on Friday night. It seems that a lamp exploded and set fire to the clothing of the mother of the little one, from which it was communicated to the child, who was fatally injured before any assistance could be ren-
