Daily Prayer Meetings. We are requested to state that there will be daily prayer meetings at the First Presbyterian Church each morning this week at 8 o'clock. These meetings will be preparatory to the Communion next Sabbath, when Rev. A. W. Miller, D. D., of Charlotte, will be present. The meetings will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Wilson, Pastor.

Give Them the Funds. The Fifth Ward Independent Bucket Company No. 1, we understand, are yet short about $75 of the amount necessary to pay for their outfit and would be glad if our citizens would assist them to that extent. As the company will no doubt be of much service to the community the amount should be raised without any difficulty.

NEWSPAPER FOR SALE.—A bargain is offered in one of the best paying Democratic newspapers in the State. Address "L," Raleigh, N. C., care of the Daily News.

DAIRY BURGLARY.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday morning: Henry Graham, charged with assaulting his wife. Case dismissed on the payment of costs. The wife of the defendant in this case called at the Marshal's office yesterday morning and applied for a warrant for the arrest of her husband, who, she said, would neither feed her nor allow her to work for the money to procure the necessaries of life...

Miss Dickinson. The papers continue to speak in glowing terms of the lectures of Miss Dickinson, who is expected to appear at the Opera House in this city this evening. The Petersburg Index-Appel thus speaks of her: "She is * of youthful and pleasing presence, and her face, though its lines of beauty are not regular, is indicative of great mental power, of rapid mobile expression, of rare theatrical and oratorical capabilities..."

Cotton Compress Company. The new Cotton Compress Company met at the Produce Exchange yesterday for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and transacting other business. The following are the officers chosen: President.—Capt. E. J. Pennypacker. Directors.—W. L. Deltoiset, C. P. Mebane, D. R. Murchison, E. E. Burrus, Jas. Sprunt, I. A. Burr, I. B. Grainger. We learn that a first-class cotton press will be erected and that the new company will go into the warehousing business, for which purpose the necessary stock has already been taken.

"The Scattered Nations." We learn that a committee of the True Brothers Society of this city, consisting of Messrs. Nath'l Jacobi, M. Bear and A. Veil, have extended an invitation to Gov. Vance to deliver his celebrated lecture—"The Scattered Nations"—in this place at an early day, under the auspices of the Society, the proceeds to be applied to the fund for building a Jewish Temple in Wilmington. It is to be hoped the Governor will find it convenient to accept the invitation and that our citizens will have the opportunity of listening to his admirable and eloquent lecture on the subject referred to.

Going to Charlotte. At a meeting of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1, held last evening, it was finally decided to accept the invitation to attend the Centennial celebration on the 30th of May, taking their engine and horses with them. The following gentlemen were appointed a committee of arrangements for the occasion: Capt. E. W. Manning, J. H. Chadbourn, Jr., Berry Gleaves, Capt. J. B. Robinson, W. F. Hargrave, D. F. Shure.
