GOOD NEWS.

The Raleigh News has a letter from an Edgecombe correspondent who was opposed to Convention before the Legislature called it. The writer says the Conservatives will make a gain of 500 votes in the next election over their last vote. The negroes have been deceived so long and so often that they have become disheartened. He adds: "North Carolina's greatest misfortune is she never puts enough life and vigor into her campaigns. Every good man should take part privately or pub-

Taxes on Circuses, &c. There is a misconception as to the aw in this State taxing circuses and menageries. We copy from Schedule B, Sections 4 and 5, of the Revenue Acts as adopted by the late session of the General Assembly:

SECTION 4. On every exhibition of a circus or menagerie for each day or part of day, fifty dollars and five per cent. on their gross receipts, and for each side show or concert, accompany-ing a circus or menagerie for which extra charge is made, ten dollars and five per cent. on their gross receipts. summer is close upon us. A return of their receipts shall be made to the sheriff upon the oath of the manager of such exhibitions as are herein referred to.

Sec. 5. On all itinerant companies or persons who exhibit for amusement of the public, otherwise than is mentioned in the four preceding sections, ten dollars for each exhibition or performance. Flying trapeze with ropes or machinery shall pay a tax of ten dollars per day, whether they charge for exhibition or not. Exhibitions given for the promotion of religious, educational or charitable objects shall be exempt from taxation.

The Female Minstrels reache strictly speaking, it is a branch of the art tonsorial, and apart from that, it strikes us, bath rooms would pay handsomely. There are a good many of our citizens who have not the conveniences for bathing at home, and we venture to say that even those who have would patronise freely public bath rooms rather than go to the trouble, under the present lamentable system of labor, of having water pumped or carried up to their bath rooms; while on the other hand there are a good many who are compelled to go through a process of ablution in ordinary washing tubs, with the imminent danger of fracturing a limb in trying to crowd themselves in a tub much too small for them. Let the barbers give the subject of public bath rooms their serious attention, now that Arrest of an Escaped Convict. Special Deputy James K. Davis, colored. arrested an escaped prisoner last night, about 8 o'clock, by the name of Eli John son. It appears that Johnson had, about four weeks ago, undergone an examination in two cases, for assault and battery and larceny, one before the City Court and the other before a Magistrate's Court, in one of which he had been bound over to the Superior Court and in the other had been sentenced to pay the costs and to be imprisoned for thirty days. Subsequently he was taken to the W. & W. R. R. depot for some purpose, in custody of Officer Davis, when by some means he effected his escape and had since eluded capture. The officer came upon him last night, at the corner of Princess and Water streets, and arrested him. The prisoner struggled and fought manfully for his liberty, but was finally conveyed to the county jail and locked up.

The dances, mostly by the female i bers of the troupe, who were attired in wise different style from similar perfor we have often witnessed in the O House on many other occasions, were good and loudly encored.

The performance consisted of many strel scenes, some fine singing and fu situations, in which Harry Armstrongs ed to bear off the palm among the performers. It was only occasionally anything in the scenes and situations s ed at all of indelicacy, and for the most it seemed to us that the great body of audience were disappointed in this ticular. At last the curtain arose on Can-Can, and expectation was on tin every spectator seeming to test the le of his neck, for the occasion. This po of the performance was by many consid short of the real Can-Can, as each dancer was fully attired and their n limbs were not shown to the extent dently expected, even in the various s ings of the waltz, though in that part of Can-Can dance loose skirts were th around in such a way as to produce plays of limbs and situations of perso altogether calculated to improve the m of the lookers-on. We do not, of course, approve of performances. They in a great me debase the moral tone of any audience too freely indulged in, still there were scenes in the performance which were rendered, and might be seen in the moral-toned theatre; and many which perhaps, a trifle too lascivious and too of lively incidents and suggestions for latitude.
