- Weldon News: A startling case of sonambulism occurred at Murfreesboro, N. C., a few evenings since. One of the young lady students of the W. F. College during the night got up from her bed, threw over herself a loose wrapper and started down town. She went to Colonel Vaughan's residence, and into his room and laid on a lounge. It greatly surprised and frightened the Colonel, though he knew something was wrong, and did not molest the "sleeping beauty." Soon Rev. W. G. Starr was informed where the girl was and went after her. He took her back to the college and carried her to the bed room and ensconced her in bed, and left the room. The young lady, on awakening next morning, knew nothing of where she had perambulated, or anything about her nocturnal visit. It is kept a profound secret from her, as it would be likely to seriously mortify and frighten her if told of

Earthquake in Western North Car-

| Her dersonville Correspondence of Greenville (S. C.) News.] Two weeks ago this (Tuesday) morning, just before day, the people of North Carolina were startled from their slumbers by a rumbling noise in a southern direction, which seemed to be rapidly approaching and appeared like distant thunder. Nearer it came until it was discovered to be in the earth instead of in the atmosphere, and when immediately beneath our feet, the ground on which we stood was palpably elevated as if by a wave underneath. The direction of this subterranean wave was due north and south, and it travelled with immense rapidity. The sound produced by it when immediately underneath us was a compound of the heavy rumbling of thunder and the sharp hissing crash as of the crushing or breaking of some metalic or brittle substance in or heard but a few miles from its in the same direction and desoribed the same by all who heard and felt it. Consternation and fear were the prevailing sensations with all who were awake and realized the situation, and prayers and supplications for safety followed each other rapidly in the families of the superstitious mountaineers, who did not understand and were consequently alarmed at this unusual demonstration of mother

Mutual Insurance Company. The meeting of the members (policy holders) of the Wilmington Mutual Insurance Company was held at Lippitt's Hall on Tuesday night last, when the following persons were elected Directors for the ensuing year : Wm. A. French, John McRae, Henry VonGlahn, Wm. Larkins, R. S. Radcliff, Alfred Martin, R. J. Jones, E. F. Story, J. A. Bradley, R. E. Calder, J. K. Brown, B. F. Mitchell.

According to the report of the Secretary, the company has been in successful opera tion for the past two years; has met with but one loss, that of Messrs. Kerchner & Calder Bros., last summer, of two thousand dollars, which was promptly adjusted and paid. The business for the past year has been very flattering. The number of policies and the assets of the company have doubled during the last twelve months, and they have now on hand one dollar of assets for every fifteen dollars of risks, and the cost of insurance thus far in this company on the six year plan has been only one-third of the amount paid to Northern companies.

The Attempted Rape Case.

The case of Wm. Phinney, colored, charged with attempting to commit rape on the person of a small colored child, only about seven years of age, is creating much feeling, especially among the people of his own race. The child is said to be in quite a critical condition, the physician in attendance being unable to say with any degree of certainty that she will be likely to recover from the injuries inflicted upon her. If the facts prove to be as stated, when the sworn evidence shall come out before the Magistrate who is to conduct the investigais fearful to contemplate.

The preliminary examination in the case of Phinney, which was to have come off before Justice VanAmringe yesterday morning, was finally postponed until this morning, at 11 o'clock, in order to secure a full first Monday in next month. and thorough investigation, including an examination of the child by one or more medical experts. When brought into Court yesterday the child, we learn, identified Phinney as the person who committed the Witcheraft. The Mullins (S. C.) correspondent of the Marion Merchant and Farmer has the following: "One of our superstitious devotees of the magic art of witchcraft, believing himself conjured, went to Wilmington last week, and there procured the services of a doctor of this terrible malady, whom he brought home. This learned witchcraft of North Carolina: doctor professes to hold the magic wand that controls the evil spirits around Mullins', and with it he found a lot of terrible bloody material used by the enemies of the conjured divine to effect his ruln. Soon, however, this witch doctor cured the bewitched by incantation over a frog, cutting his witch cards and many other sorceries, and as an evidence of the efficacy of this learned doctor's remedies, the conjured divine saw a ram tied in the adjoining bushes by the horns. This, to the mind of the conjured parson, taught the language of Abraham's sacrifice, 'Jehovah jireh.'"

City Court. The following cases were disposed of yes terday morning: Henry Winstead, charged with fighting his wife, a striking illustration of connubial - City subscribers who fail to re- infelicity, was ordered to pay a fine of $50 or work for thirty days on the streets.

Susan Winstead, charged with cursing and abusing her husband, a rather singular mode of displaying her accomplishments and wifely proprieties, was ordered to pay a fine of $20 or work for thirty days on the James Jones, charged with acting in suspicious manner, the case being continued over from Monday. Judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

Commissioner's Court. Laura Johnson and Martha P. Kelley charged with violating the internal revenue law by selling liquor without license, were arrested yesterday and had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Cassidey, who required them to give security in the sum of $200 each for their appearance at the next term of the U. S. District Court, in default of which they were committed to jail. Both parties are colored.

On the War Path. We learn that at a meeting of the Repubicans of Lincoln township, held at Long Creek on the 12th inst., and of the Republicans of Caswell township, held at Point Caswell on the 13th inst., W. H. Magistrates' Court.

Before Justice Gardner, yesterday, David Odum was arraigned on the charge of assault and battery on the person of Hester Waddell, both colored. Judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

The same, arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by Hester Waddell, was ordered released, the complainant to pay the costs.

Ex-Sheriff Schenck, whose arrest and subsequent release on bail has already been mentioned in this paper, was re-arrested yesterday morning, about 111 o'clock, on a bail warrant issued by the Clerk of the Superior Conrt, at the instance of Mr. D. A. Smith, one of his late bondsmen. The amount of Mr. Smith's claim against the ex-Sheriff, we understand, is $6,600, and his bond was fixed at that amount. Evidence for the Court of Claims.

United States Commissioner Cassidey was engaged yesterday in taking evidence in the case of Collie & Co., British subjects, against the United States, which evidence is to be forwarded to the Court of Claims t Washington City.

The particulars of the case have not transpired, the Commissioner (perhaps very properly) declining to give any information on the subject, but it is presumed to have some connection with blockade running into this port during the war, and suit is probably brought to recover damages for property of the firm seized by the Govern-
