LATEST ASPECT OF THE GAUGE QUESTION.

The arrest of Col. Buford and Mr. Green, President and Master of Transportation of the R. & D. R. R., at Greensboro on Thursday, shows that the Governor is disposed at least to prosecute the offenders against State laws to the utmost. The parties arrested gave $5,000 bail each, and were relieved. Judge Schenck has granted a writ of habeas corpus, and the case was to have been tried vesterday in Charlotte, The News says that the Governor will push the matter as far as possible. He will employ in behalf of the State additional counsel, and will follow the case through its stages of appeal to its final determination.

The New York Sun comments upon a remark of the Springfield Republican, that there is no reason "why the intelligent Southerner, as a Southerner, should prefer Mr. Tilden to Mr. Bristow for President," substantially as follows: That to elect Bristow President would be to keep the Republican party in power and to give a renewed tenure to most of the old officeholders, many of them thieves, and all of them in office too long already. Not so Tilden, who will control all of the bad elements there are in the Democratie party, while Bristow if elected would be comparatively subject to the same elements in his party. That is very true. Bristow, however, stands but little chance of getting the nomination, and less of being elected should he get the nomination.

The Newbern Times of yesterday has a very temperate and sensible article on the calumnious assaults made by the Washington Republican upon the Mecklenburg Centennial. The Times says " the Centennial was not a party affair," and that "the Republican does the Republicans of North Carolina serious injury" in the language it refers to.

If the poor creatures at Holyoke had not so frantically choked up the places of egress in the burning Church perhaps the most shocking phases of the casualty which involved the death of so many helpless women would have been averted.

Mr. George W. Harper, who lives on Middle Sound, was attacked and severely shot on Friday night, about 80 clock, while three miles from this city. It seems that Mr. Harper was returning home alone in a cart and when he reached the point referred to, which is near the residence of Mr. Kyer Bonum, he heard a voice behind him ask "if that was Mr. Bonum ?" Mr. Harper replied that it was not, and at once urged his horse forward. Just then he heard the report of a firearm, supposed to be a musket, followed by one or two reports more, and the shot scattered in different directions around him, one taking effect in his left check and lodging about the base of the brain, and four others entering other portions of his body. The tail board of the cart was shattered in several places and the hose was hit three times but was not, how, ever, much injured. The musket seems to have been heavily charged with buckshot. Mr. Harper, by that time, had gotten out of reach and was soon met by Mr. Bonum, who was attracted in that direction by the report of the firearm. He had Mr. Harper taken to his house, when Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy was sent for and proceeded to render medical aid to the patient. The shot which lodged in the head was probed for as much as was thought prudent, but it was not reached. The sufferer was yesterday morning brought to this city, where he remains, at the residence of Mr. S. Hewlett, in a very painful and critical condition. It is expected, however, that he will ultimately recover. Mr. Harper thinks that the assaulters were colored men. In connection with the affair, Mr. Keyer Bonum reports that there was a colored man living in the neighborhood who owned two dogs which were continually killing or otherwise injuring not only his stock, but that of many of his neighbors. Unable to endure it any longer, he determined to kill the dogs which he did, after which he was informed by a boy that the latter had heard a colored man say that he would kill Mr. Bonum on sight. The boy was unable to tell who the colored man was, and therefore Mr. Bonum paid then no further attention to the matter. He now thinks that there is some connection between the threat and the shooting of Mr. Harper.

Assault with a Deadly Weapon. James Pierce, a colored man aged about 26 years, was yesterday arraigned before T. M. Gardner, J. P., for an assault with deadly weapon, and was committed for hearing on Monday morning, in default of $200 justified bond for his appearance.

MAY 30, 1875 and a ladi b

The facts are these: James Pierce has been employed as a laborer upon the place of Capt. B. F. Bryan, located in Brunswick county, about 10 miles from this city. He has lately refused to work or render any assistance in the labor of the plantation, which fact was reported to Capt. Bryan, who directed an old colored man named Ned Bryan, who has some charge of the place, to order Pierce to leave the premises at once. Ned Bryan, it appears, met Pierce on Friday last on the place as usual and informing him of his directions, ordered him to leave, when Pierce lifted an axe that was lying near and attacked him, inflicting several severe cuts on his arm. Every blow, it is alleged, was directed at the head of Ben Bryan, and the consequences must have been fatal but from the fact that Bryan warded off the blows with a stick of wood until his arms were rendered helpless by the cuts inflicted upon them, when fortunately a young colored man on the premises. ran up behind Pierce and caught the axe and took it away, when Pierce fled. He was pursued and captured yesterday morn-

Burglary. The house of Mr. W. P. Holland, who resides on Dock between Sixth and Seventh streets was entered on Friday night and $15.70 stolen. It seems that Mr. Holland retired at the usual hour and was not dis turbed throughout the night, but on awakening in the morning he found some of his clothes scattered about the room and his vest lying on the back piazza of the house. A search revealed the fact that the amount already stated had been taken from the pockets of the clothing. There is no clue to the perpetrator of the burglary. One of the windows in the end of the house was the burglar entered.
