The Usury Bill Case. [Charlotte Observer of Sunday.]

We mentioned in Saturday's paper that on that day an attorney would argue that the usury law of the last Legislature is unconstitutional as far as it was applicable to national banks. Col. T. C. Jones introduced the proposition, but made no elaborate argument on the subject. Judge Schenek reserved his decision in the case, promising to render it this week.

Gov. Allen's Age and Birth Place. As there has been some discussion about the birth place of Gov. Wm. Allen, of Ohio, the editor of the Observer addressed him a letter on the subject. In reply the Governor states that he was born in Edenton, N. C. in 1806, and is consequently sixty nine years of age. The Hon. S. S. Cox, of New York, was mistaken in representing him as a native of Mecklenburg county.

As a harbor, it is the equal of any on the

the commercial world. Ingress and egress is always safe and easy, for the large ocean vessels, while the direct communication by rail with the entire country, the great West, North-west and South, is scarcely surpassed by our far more patronized Northern ports. Several important rail roads now center at Wilmington, having connections ramifying our entire South, and several other lines, terminating at, or Burglary. The house of Mr. Sol Bear, who lives on Red Cross, between Front and Second streets, was entered on Monday night and $72 50 stolen. It appears that Mr. Bear retired at about 10 o'clock, leaving the gas slightly burning in his room. He was not disturbed until 3 o'clock next morning when his wife wished to know if he bad extinguished the gas which was then out. He replied that he had not, but the fact ofthe gas being out aroused suspicion, and a search was at once instituted, which revealed the fact that the pockets of Mr. Bear's pants, which he had left upon a chair near the bed, had been relieved of the amount mentioned. A watch and some other jewelry around the room were not touched. It is supposed that the burglar must have effected an entrance from the econd story back piazza to the nursery the widows of which open upon the piazza, and from thence into a closet which connects by a door with Mr. Bear's room. One of the windows opening from the piazza to the nursery bore ample evidence of having been forced open. No clue whatever ex-

THE TOLLEY GUN.-COPY OF TESTIMONIAL. HUDSON CITY, N. J., Sept. 30th, 1874.-MESSES. J. & W. Tolley-29 Maiden Lane New York:-The 10-guage Gun No. 2073 I ordered from you gives me entire satisfaction. I was very exacting when ordering the Gun, but must say that you have more than fulfilled what I required of you. I have shot several breech-leaders by first-class makers, and your gua beats them all for beauty and workman-ship. As for shooting qualities, your gur shoots stronger and more even than any gun I ever shot. I have shown it to several good judges (including first-class gunmakers) and all agree that the action is very strong and durable, and that the gun is one of the best they ever saw. I have made some very long shots with it, using only 316 drs. of powder. which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a targat according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Parm trials, and the average of 6 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38; right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 3% drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun the owner of it. But the real test of your gun is in the field-there it excells all others, killing cleaner and handsomer than any gun I ever saw, as you assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your guns to all my friends.

FERGUS.—In this city, on the evening of the 31st ult., of paralysis, Daniel Fergus, aged 84 years.

Deceased was born in Onslow county, in this State, but removed to Wilmington when quite a boy. He was for a long time a merchant of this city, but for some years before the late war retired from business with an ample competency.

When war was declared against England in 1812 he was one of the first gallant spirits of this State who volunteered for the National defence.

Quiet and unobtrusive in his manners; firm and conscientious in all his dealings with his fellow man, he commanded the respect of all who knew him in his long career and attracted towards him the warm love of devoted friends.

His integrity in all his business transactions show out in a remarkable degree and so proverbial was his hencesty that his word was considered as good as his bond.

For nearly afty years he was an exemplary fellower of the teachings of the Divine Master and in all the relations of life he illustrated the character of the true christisn gentleman.

The funeral will take place this morning from his ate residence, on Second street, at 10 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.
