AN OUTRAGE.

of Harnett Brought Before the United States District Court on the Charge of Conspiring to Intimidate United States Officers-They are nischarged Upon the Ground of Insufficient Evidence-The Whole Ar fair a Farce and an Outrage.

The Raleigh News of vesterday gives the particulars of a base outrage by Federal officials. The News

The Federal District Court, now in session in this city, was yesterday engaged in hearing the case commenced the day before from Harnett county. being the case of McLean, McNeal, Avery and others, charged with conspiring to intimidate Deputy Marshal lodges in July last at Averasboro.

The evidence disclosed the fact that both Hodges and his brother went to a public speaking at the place in no wise connected with the duty of the office of deputy marshal, that both were armed with pistols and were evidently disposed to shield themselves behind the marshalship. They be haved in a noisy, rude and insulting manner towards the people, and succeeded in getting up a political row.

The people acted with great forbearance towards the two men, and the affair was stopped without any serious slamage being done to any one.

After the close of the testimony on the part of the United States and the introduction of about one-fourth of the witnesses for the defendants, the case was so manifestly improperly brought before the Federal Court that District Attorney Badger stated that he was willing to a verdict being rendered declaring the accused not guilty, whereupon Judge Brooks said that if the accused had been convicted upon such testimony he should have set the verdict aside. And thus were eleven honest citizens of Harnett county, with some fifteen witnesses, dragged before the Federal Court and necessitated to much expense and States hireling sees fit to abuse his by the Board, to-wit: office and thus trample upon the rights of freemen. And of such highhanded outrages as this are the Ku Klux outrages of the South manufac-tured, to satisfy the personal spleen of certain miserable tools of the government and often to pander to that feeling in the North which still seeks to oppress us, and we are glad to know that the Federal Courts of justice are putting the heel of condemnation upon all such actions.

An Independent Paper.

When questioned about his plans for the conduct of his paper recently Calonel McClue: "The Philadelphia Times intends to be squarely and consistently independent in the best sense of that word. Its warfare now is of necessity against the Republican party because it is the party in power. -the party of abuses. It will denounce and has denounced Democratic debauchery in Philadelphia or elsewhere with equal vehemence. It finds attractive mettle for its criticism in the disfranchisement of voters in Democratic New Hampshire as well as Government usurpation in so-called Republican Louisiana. This paper is controlled by no policy, no purpose outside of the scope of independent journalism. Its aim is to be a great newspaper, and most emphatically not to 'advance the political aspirations of its editor or of any other individual or individuals,' So far as to its having political alliances, it may be said that the organization of the paper was delayed for a year in order that men might control it who should have no political interest whatever. Not a man in it is a candidate for office or would take one if it were offered him. As to myself, no place could tempt me from this chair-for I regard the editorial direction of a tion in a free government. There is mo office in the gift of the people or an Administration that an editor should accept to interfere with his overboard and cludes his pursuers by diveditorial duties. That's been Mr. Forney's great mistake, He has always forgotten that, though knowing it so well, and has always been drawn saide by the baubles of place."

Since the terrible Holyoke (Mass.) church burning, a bill has been introduced into the Connecticut Legislature providing that the doors of all churches and public places of assemldy shall open outwardly. This is a wire measure. In case of a panie of the vestibules,

A duck hunt, rather a novel and interesting performance of rowing and swimming combined, will take place this evening at 5 o'clock, in the river opposite Market dock. Rowing and yatchting all have their places in the vocabulary of sports, but it takes a real genuine duck hunt to fill up the measure of fun and excitement.

The manner of performing the duck hunt is this: One man, who plays the part tries to escape a larger one which pursues him. When closely pressed the duck jumps ing and tries to again regain his boat in order to give the large boat another chase. Should the duck fail to be captured in half an hour he is declared victorious. The duck and the hunters this evening will consist of the required number of the crew of the Br. Barque Emma Crook.

HOMICIBE.

A Colored Man Shot and Killed-The

Testimony in the Case-The Names of Parties Arrested. A colored man named Charles Jackson was yesterday morning found lying dead near the corner of Market and South Water streets. The deceased was aged about 22 years. He has been some time in this city, but is said to have come originally from Topsail Sound. He was a member of a serenading string band and was on Thursday night in company with Ransom Mc-Millan and Albert Thompson, also colored and members of the band, who were the principal witnesses in the case. Their testimony is given below.

Coroner Hewlett empanelled the following jury and proceeded to hold an inquest over the body at 10 o'clock yesterday morning: D. E. Bunting, white, foreman; David Cowan, colored; James Anderson, colored; Alfred Willis, white: Thomas C. Moore, white; George W. Betts, colored; Sterling Salling, white; C. R. Jones, colored; U. Sullivan, white; G. E. Berden, colored; Richard Recoster, colored; C. H. Strode, white.

The following testimony was adduced before the jury:

Albert Thompson, colored, sworn, and identified the body; saw the deceased last coming out of Gilbert's bar; went in there in the first part of the night and played some, and was invited by the barkeeper, and took refreshments; after taking drinks, we went on a serenade for Jackson's (the barkeeper's) benefit, and upon returning, walked into the bar and played and he treated us. Charles Jackson (colored) and Burgess had a dispute and shook fists at each other; the barkeeper got up, came in front of the bar and collared Charles Jackson, the deceased; they tussled; deceased got towards the door, pursued by both Burgess and the barkeeper, Jackson; he ran from the door towards Market street, and in about two minutes I heard a pistol fire, after which Burgess and Jackson returned to the bar and forced witness and Ransom McMillan there: I came out of the bar at the barkeeper's request, and found Charles Jackson lying in the street, dead; accused Burgess or Jackson (the barkeeper) with having committed the deed, and they de-

Ransom McMillau, colored, having been worn, identified the body and testified as follows: Between 11 and 12 o'clock at night we went to Mr. Gilbert's bar room; we played outside and were invited in by the barkeeper; he asked us to take a drink, which we did: after taking a drink we went on a serenade for Mr. Jackson's benefit; came back to the bar, went in and were invited by Mr. Jackson to play a tune, after which Mr. Burgess and deceased got lato a quarrel inside the room, each shaking fists at each other; the barkeeper came from be hind the har and chught Charles Jackson, the deceased, by the throat; after Charles got loose he ran out of the bar room, pursued by Burgess and Jackson, the barkeeper; in about two minutes I heard the report of a pistol; Burgess and Jackson returned shortly afterwards. We took our fiddle and started up the street, and found the deceased, Charles Jackson, in the gutter on the corner of Market and Water street; we went back the to bar and asked who shot deceased; they said they did not know. I then called a policeman.

Besides the above witnesses, Dr. Buie, who made a post mortem examination of the deceased, Jas. M. Cowan, a night watchman, and E. F. Martin, colored, a policeman. were also examined.

Dr. Buie testified in substance that he found the deceased shot in two places, one ball having entered just under the chin, the other entering about the shoulder, either of which would have produced immediately after the shooting. James M. Cowan testified to having gone into the bar-room shortly after he heard the pistol shot, and was then requested by the par-keeper to get Burgess out. He was on his way out with Burgess when Mc-Millen, one of the witnesses, who was the brother-in-law of the deceased, came towards the bar with Thomson, another witness, and was heard to say that some one had killed Charley. He returned afterwards and found the back door of the bar open and the front door closed and the bar-keeper gone. The jury after diligently inquiring into the causes of the death of the said Charles Jackson, rendered the verdict "That the said deceased came to his death from two pistol shot wounds, supposed to be at the hands of William Jackson, alias C. P.

Officer Martin made the arrest of Burgess

Snow, and James Burgess." Wm. Jackson, alias C. P. Snow, was arrested yesterday morning at a house near Kidder's Mill and lodged in jail to await an examination. He is a man of about thirty years of age and originally from Onslow. We know nothing of his history except that he has been employed for some time as night bar-tender at Gilbert's saloon on South Water street.

James W. Burgess is aged 45 years, is a white citizen of Laurinburg, and is respect ably connected. He arrived in this city only a day or two ago.

Coroner Hewlett yesterday had a warrant issued for the confinement of Jackson and Burgess in the county jail. The Mayor refused to recognize the warrant as far as Burgess was concerned until a hearing has is alleged that Gibson was killed by his son, been had before the City Court. W. H. with an iron rake, with which he struck Moore, J. P., has also issued legal papers him. The story goes, that the father and knowledged the fact of his descrition but for the arraignment of the defendants be- son had had a quarrel, and the father orderdid not state the company or regiment to fore him. He has fixed the hearing of the ed the son out of the house, and put his case for Monday at 11 o'clock in the Court | hand in his pocket, as if to draw a pistol.

THE REGATTA YESTERDAY.

The Rosa Wins in the Sailing Race-The Mary Wheeler's Crew Comes in First in the Rowing Match. Yesterday was another exciting day on the river. The racing, which has become so popular of late, seems never to flag in the interest it excites. The wharves were as usual crowded with spectators Unfortunately the breeze on the river was not so strong as it might have been in order to have seen fast sailing exhibited, consequent. ly the sailing race did not excite as much interest as it would have done, and the contest was not as close as might have been the case had a stronger breeze been blowing. We were glad to notice the beaming countenance of many ladies who were viewing the race with decided pleasure from several of the balconies along Water street.

The start was made at 3:45 P. M., the vachts leaving in the following order: Bessie Lee, sailed by O. A. Wiggins.
Little Walter, sailed by Walter Coney.
Spray, sailed by G. D. Parsley.
Rosa, sailed by J. J. Fowler.
Qui Vice, sailed by W. A. Wright, Jr.
Retta, sailed by F. A. L. Cassidey.
Ripple, sailed by Norwood Giles.

The Dram Tree buoy was rounded as follows by the three advance yachts, the time of the remaining four at that bucy not having been token by the indees.

Rosa	. 5:5.15.

Little Walter ..... 5:7.40.

The spray at this point withdrew. The three advance boats made the Dram Tree buoy as follows: Rost ...... 5:35.55.

Little Walter ..... 5:39.52. Ripple ......5:41.23. The Rosa took the lead almost from the start and kept it, coming in winner of the first prize, at the home buoy at 5:59.10, the Little Walter second at 6:4.23, and the Ripple third at 6:6.8. The time of the remaining boats was not taken at the home buoy, they not having made the course within the required time. The want of a strong breeze having rob bed the yacht race of some of its excite ment, much interest was centred upon the rowing race, which followed immediately after. The jolly tars promptly moved up | most cheering character. to the judges stand, when they drew for position, choosing as follows, the first boat being on the left:

Meer Konig (Ger.) No. 1. Louisa (Ger.), No. 2. Elgin (Br.), No. 3. Little Fury (Br.), No. 4 Mary Wheeler (Amer.), No. 5.

Ben (Amer.), No. 6. At a given signal the crew of each yawl pent energetically to the oars and darted bravely off. The race was very interesting and caused considerable excitement, all along the wharf crowds of spectators witnessing it with increasing interest. This race was the feature of the day. It was hetly contested throughout, the course being the same as on the preceding day.

The Mary Wheeler's yawl, manned by regular "Tar Heel" crew, displayed the requisite amount of skill and endurance, and came in first amid considerable excitement, our home "tars" being the recipients of loud cheers of congratulations from the crowded wharves. This crew (consisting of the following: Bryant Potter, coxswain; A. Fulcher, T. Fulcher, G. Herring and J. T. Foreman) were declared winners of the first prize, making the course in 20 minutes and 33 seconda priorition, sire ables or

The Ben's yawl won the second prize, making the course in 20 minutes and 50 seconds, and the Little Fury's yawl the third in 21 minutes and 12 seconds.

The prizes were $20 for the first, $10 for the second and $5 for the third.

Messrs. G. A. Peck, W. L. Jewett and G. H. Kelley acted as judges on the part of the Carolina Yacht Club, which organization offered the prizes above enumerated.
