

W. H. BERNARD, EDITOR. CINCERO W. HARRIS, MANAGER.

WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 7, 1875.

AN ELECTION FOR ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY DELEGATES TO A CONVENTION TO AMEND THE STATE CONSTITUTION WILL BE HELD ON THE FIRST THURSDAY OF AUGUST NEXT. THE CONVENTION WILL MEET AT RALEIGH ON THE 24TH OF THE FOLLOWING SEPTEMBER.

GETTING THEMSELVES INTO A SCRAPE.

Taking the Federal Government at its word in regard to resuming specie payments in 1876, the State of New York passed two months ago a law that all taxes thereafter...

By this rash over-confidence of the New York Legislature in the ability of the country to resume the people will have to suffer the difference in value...

HOW SILLY!

The Republican organ when it is not mendacious must be stupid. Here is the Chicago Tribune, in many respects an able newspaper, saying:

The Richmond (Va.) Masons, who went to Boston to assist in the celebration of the Declaration of Independence...

Now this paper, which has so much to say about Gov. Kemper's "stunt" after the ceremony...

SUMMER NEWSPAPER SUITS.

Not only are there threats of libel suits and other suits between the parties and participants in the Southern trial...

Now all we have to remark is that it is a trumpety affair to make so many "diagrams" were alike...

SOUTHERN COMMENT.

Southern opinion on the Beecher mistrial is happily expressed in these sentences from the Norfolk Landmark: "But, while technical speaking there has been no verdict, a failure to acquit Mr. Beecher is his practical condemnation..."

MAKING TREASON OBVIOUS.

A Washington correspondent is authority for the statements that several clerks have been set to work overhauling the Confederate war records for the purpose of preparing a history of the ex-Confederates elected to Congress...

A CHEERFUL VOICE FROM BLADEN.

An intelligent citizen of Bladen writes to The Morning Star that the situation is promising in that heretofore Radical-ridden county...

RENE SPENCER IN THE STAFF.

We learn by a letter from Raleigh that the friends of the Constitution of the form are in excellent spirits...

OBITUARY.

Thomas B. Florence, formerly member of Congress, and well known in political circles, died in Washington city early Sunday morning...

BEAR IN MIND.

THAT OUR STORES WILL BE CROCKED ON the 4th of July. Get Your Supplies any time between now and the evening of the 3rd...

THE CONVENTION. The Legislature has chartered another insurance company with a novel but perhaps useful feature...

STAR-DUST.

Baltimore has started a lumber exchange. There is some talk of court-shiper patches being revived in society.

The eloquent English Methodist clergyman, Rev. William Morley Pusehouse, will visit the United States next year.

The Southern Review is now published in Baltimore. Dr. Bledsoe has associated with him in the conduct of the Review his daughter, Mrs. S. Bledsoe-Herrick...

The New York Evening Post celebrates the British anniversary of Mr. Bryan's conversion with it by taking possession of the "stately" building...

They call him Uncle Bill, and Old Bill, and Rise Up, William, and Uncle William, and the Old Man, and they will continue to poke fun at him...

A New York paper says many of the rural journals, stock, amazed at the enterprise which permitted the Herald and Tribune to print diagrams of the targets at Dollymount...

The centennial anniversary of the Washington command of the continental army was celebrated at Cambridge (Boston) Saturday...

They do not believe in aggressive gratitude in France. Figure says: "If you have imprudently been of service to any person...

All improvements originate with discontent; we labor and bring forth in sorrow.
