CAMPAIGN.

[Charlotte Observer.] We are glad to learn that all differences have been settled in McDowell county. Mr. Alfred Finley, who was running as an independent candidate for Convention against Col. Jasper Neal, the Conservative nominee, has withdrawn; and now that the race is between Col. Neal and Jim Duncan. Radical, it is believed that McDowell will give her usual Conservative majority of 200, if not more.

|Charlotte Observer. | The Radicals of Rowan have been trying to make a little diversion in their favor by mixing up the railroad tax question with the Convention matter, but they are meeting with poor success. The people of Rowan are too sensible to be gulled in any such a way. The opinion is that Shober and Henderson will be elected by from 700 to 800 majority.

[Greensboro Patriot.] At the speaking at Gilmer's on last Saturday, Col. Gilmer said that he had information that Tourgee and Stanly went to the house of old Mr. Brooks, in Forsythe county, and after grees. the old gentleman had set out his liquor for them and after they had enten his dinner, they searched the house, broke open a door, and looked under the bed on which Mrs. Brooks. who was more than 70 years of age, was lying sick.

Tourgee denies that the old lady was siek, admitted that he was with Stanly, but denies that he had any commission from the government. Worse and worse!

| Washington Echo. 1 The party represented by Mr. Jas. E. Shepherd in the present canvass have reason to be more than satisfied with the noble work which he has performed. Notwithstanding the distering heat of the weather, Mr. Shepherd has met every appointment, made for him, and has visited six precints in Pamlico and four in Beaufort, up to the time of writing. At each of these places he has had large, attentive and enthesiastic andiences. and the truths that he discoursed in his able, earnest, eloquent and impressive manner will tell for him and Conservatism powerfully on the day

Greensboro Patriot.7 Our Convention friends are making things lively in Randolph county. Worth and Robbins are using heavy scimitars and pinning their rivals to the wall every time. The fact is the Radicals are not pretending to make an open fight and are depending for the votes they get on working in secret. Our friends are confident of carrying the county by a handsome majority.

The Greensboro Patriot says that the Convention prospect grows brighter every day. The people are seeing through the shallow, hypocritical pretence of the Radicals and are repudiating them on all sides.

Mr. H. E. Blackmore, of Duplin, is of the right grit. He writes to the Magnolia Record thus:

Having learned to-day that I was, on Saturday last, at Warsaw, nominated by the so-called Republican party for Constable of Warsaw township, I hereby announce to the public that I do not act or affiliate with that party. I have a wife and two children and do not wish to do anything to bring disgrace upon them. I here announce to the public that I do not accept, neither will I serve if elected by them. I shall be at the polis on Thursday, the 5th day of August, and shall cast my vote for Stallings and Farrior for delegates to the Constitutional Convention, and also for those who were nominated for township officers by the Democratic party on the 17th instant.

Digging Excavations in the Streets. We are informed that some parties have been in the habit of digging for sand in the middle of the street at or near the corner of Ninth and Ann streets and have continued the operation until they have created a deep excavation at that point, which has become dangerous to pedestrians who have cause to travel in that direction at night. A man and his wife tumbled into the excavation on Wednesday night and were literally covered with the sand which fell in upon them from the edges of the pit. Section 25 of the city ordinance makes it a penalty of $50, together with liability for all damages, against parties who are found guilty of digging such excavations or holes in the mid dle of the street.

The Turnpike to the Sounds.

We learn that the Committee, consisting of Messrs. T. J. Southerland, J. F. Divine and A. Adrian, who was appointed to locate political friends. From there, we understand, he of those having authority in the matter.

Dropped Dead.

A middle aged colored woman named Orrie Spencer, who has carried on the business of a huckster in the market, dropped dead last night about 10 o'clock, while walking across Boney Bridge, in company with two friends. They were, it seems, all engaged in conversation, the deceased being apparently in good health, when she gave a slight scream for help and fell, expiring a few minutes afterwards. The body of the deceased was carried to her former residence in Brooklyn. A physician was call ed in, who gave it as his opinion that death had been caused by heart disease. The Coroner will probably hold an inquest to-

> Sunftary Matters, Clon TACHUTA We are glad to learn, as we do from Mayor Canaday, that City Marshal Robinson reports to him that the city was never in a better santary condition than at present. We hope our citizens will continue to aid and co-operate with the authorities in this important matter. It is one in which all, at this particular season of the year, should feel and exhibit the liveliest interest.

The case of the Judges and Inspectors of the late election against the city of Wilmington, which was to have come off before Justice VanAmringe yesterday, has been postponed until Monday next.

Another Robbery. The store of J. J. Pounds, located on Front street, between Church and Castle streets, was entered yesterday morning, between 3 or 4 o'clock, and a large quantity polls, 258; horses, 47; mules, 49; goats, 28; of groceries were stolen. An entrance was effected through the back window of the store. There is no clue to the party or parties who perpetrated the theft.

> Robbery. We learn that the shoe-shop of Jack De vane, located on Front, between Orange and Ann streets, was entered Wednesday night and robbed of several pairs of boots and shoes and a number of lasts. It seems the thief broke the sash of the window, succeed ed in removing the fastenings and thus effected an entrance.

Worm-Eaten. We were shown yesterday a small piece of the outer planking of the dredge boat Woodward, which was worm-eaten until it had assumed the consistencey of honey comb. The boat is now undergoing repairs, of which she evidently stood much in need, and will be copper-bottomed.

Lexington sends us, as he heard them, the particulars of a homicide which was com-mitted near Frank Jones' distillery, in Yadkin county, on Wednesday evening, 22nd inst., by William Hedrick, a citizen of Davidson county, whose family reside within three miles of Lexington. Hedrick has, for some time past, been hauling or peddling whiskey for Jones. It seems that Jones is now a candidate for a seat in the Convention, and on last Wednesday there was a public speaking at some point in Yad-kin, about twelve miles from his distillery, where Hedrick went with his whiskey wagon. At some time during the day there was a free treat at the wagon, given by Jones, where there was congregated quite a crowd of whites and blacks, when one man, said to be named Jennings, got mad and charged Hedrick with treating the negroes before he did the Thites, land cursed him considerably. Later in the day, when Hedrick was on his return to Jones. distillery, Jennings overtook and stopped him, telling him with an eath that he had refused to treat him, and that he was going to kill him, &c., when Hedrick got out of his wagon and the other seized him by the going to kill him. After they had been en-gaged for a short time, Hedrick got loose, and, drawing a pistol, shot Jennings through the body, causing his death in less than two hours. Hedrick was either arrested or gave himself up at once, and is now in jail at Yadkinville.

The Most Fascinating Novel

OF THE DAY IS "SIGNA,"

This story possesses in full measure those unmistakable characteristics of genius, which have made Oulda's name famous wherever the best works of English fiction are read. It has all the intensity of feeling, all the luxuriance of language, and all the brilliant imagery of her earlier work.

APPLETON'S American Cyclopædia New Revised Edition.

Entirely rewritten by the andest writers on every so with Several thousand Engravings and Mape.

The work eriginally published ander the title of the New American Cyclopedia was completed in 1863, since which time the wide circulation which it has attained in all parts of the United States, and the signal developments which have taken place in every branch of science, literature, and art, have in duced the editors and publishers to submit to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition entitled THE AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of discovery in every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imperative want.

The movement of political analies has kept pace with the discoveries of science, and their fruitul application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life, Great wars and consequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our own country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily been ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced.

Large accessions to our geographical knowledge have been made by the indefatigable explorers of Africa.

The great political revolutions of the last decade.

Large accessions to our geographical knewledge have been made by the indefatigable explorers of Africa.

The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public views a multitude of new men, whose names are in every ene's mouth, and of whose lives every que is curious to know the particulars.

Great battles have been fought and important sleges maintained, of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the transient publications of the day, but which ought now to take their permanent and authentic history.

In preparing the present edition for the press, it has accordingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the latest possible dates, and to furnish an accurate account of the most recent discoveries in science, of every tresh production in liberature, and of the newest inventions in the practical arts, as well as to give a succinct and original record of the progress of political events.

The work has been begun after long and careful preliminary labor, and with the most ample resources for carrying it on to a successful termination.

None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been printed on new type; forming in fact a new Cyclopedia, with the same pian and compass as its predecessor, but with a far greater pecuniary expenditure, and with such improvements in its composition as have been suggested by longer experience and enlarged knowledge.

The illnstrations which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater incidity and force to the explanations in the text. They embrace all branches of science and of astural history, and depict the most fambus and remarkable fer tures of scenery, architecture, and art as well as the processes of mechanics and manufacturers. Although intended for instruction sathes than embel lishment, no pains have been spared to insure their artistic excellenc
