OUTLINES. A riot took place in London Monday. Ross party re-elected in Indian Territory. Complete returns give Alabama to Conservatives by 16,500 majority.

THE ELECTION. After a careful consideration of the election returns received since our last issue, we are disposed to adhere to our estimate of yesterday, with the single modification that the chances seem to be largely in favor of a Democratic-Conservative majority of two in the Convention.

In considering our estimate of a tie, it will be observed that a change of one in our favor would give us a majority of two, or a change of two would give us a majority of four. It may be that our latest Raleigh telegrams are not too hopeful; in fact, we think on the mere question of a majority of two in the Convention, we have decidedly the advantage; but we shall not yet claim positively that we will control the Convention.

OUR BRAVE CHANTICLEERS are eager to be brought out, and it is all we can do to restrain them. But let us bide our time. The mails will close at the City Post-Office until further notice as follows: Northern (night) mails for all points North, East and West of Weldon, daily at 5:45 P. M.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MESSON & CO.—Wamsutta Shirts. NATH'L JACOBI—Doors, Sash and Blinds. BINFORD, CROW & CO.—Liverpool Salt. GRANT & HINTON.—Country Produce.

— Relief, by the grace of "Old Probs.," perhaps, was the truce to clouds and rain, yesterday. — We give special credit to the Conservatives of Bladen for the fine showing they have made against great odds.

— The Townsman Trustees of Wilmington Township will meet and organize this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the office of Justice VanAmringe. — A robust specimen of Georgia called on us yesterday—Mr. J. W. Anderson, editor of the Covington Star. He is returning from the military excursion to Portsmouth, and was a member of the gallant 3rd Georgia.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of by this tribunal yesterday morning: John McKay, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs.

After Midnight. The train was to leave for Wilmington at 5 A. M. So the printed timetable said, and on the correctness and generally unimpeachable character of that time-table he would have bet, if he had been a betting man, his bottom dollar, for had it not bung in the depot door at that litle station on the C. C., under his very eyes every time he came up to the road from his home in the turpentine woods, for lo! these many months? How often had he run his finger tremulously along its dingy columns to where those talismanic characters stood boldly out from the cardboard over against the name of his station, "5 A. M."

The Excursion. The Waccamaw took down a great crowd of the K. of P. and their friends, yesterday morning, on the excursion to Smithville and the Blackfish grounds. The company was estimated at about 350 but the boat is large and seemed to be but comfortably filled. There was not sufficient vacuity to make one feel lonesome, and yet one might move his foot without thrilling with anguish his neighbors across. We wished when we saw it off, everybody looked so comfortable, that our duties would permit us to add just one more to the pleasant throng, if there could be found room without crowding any one.
