Exciting Scene in a Columbia Court of "Justice"-The Thief Parker Escapes Punishment on a Flimsey Pretext-A Well Put Up Job.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 17. There was an exciting time last evening in There was an exciting time last evening in Columbia, caused by proceedings under the habeas corpus writ for the release of exTreasurer Parker. The application was heard at 5 P. M. before Judge Mackey, Parker's counsel claiming his discharge under the provision of the Constitution prohibiting imprisonment for debt. The Sheriff's return failed to allege that the case was one of fraud, a charge which is expressed in the constitutional prohibition of imprisonment for debt, and after argument the prisonment for debt, and after argument the Judge released the prisoner. The court room was filled with an excited crowd and Parker was immediately rearrested on a criminal warrant for grand larceny, but his counsel waived an examination, and urging that the amount in the alleged robbery had nothing to do with the amount of bail succeeded in getting him released on a thousand dellers beil

It is generally believed that Parker will escape and forfeit the bail. The News and Courier denounces the release of Parker as a gross judicial outrage and as a job put up by certain State offi-cials who feared Parker would implicate them in his enormous robberies.

Brutal Act on the Part of a Well Known Wealthy Married Man of Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17. A well known wealthy married man named John L. Kates was before a magis-trate to day, charged with a fiendish as-sault on Miss Pemberton. It appears that Kates seduced her when she was about fifteen years old, and she claims that he has held her in a life of semi-slavery ever since. Recently she attended a pic-nic without his permission, and when she returned he charged her with infidelity, knocked her down, beat in a brutal manner and then tore her clothes off her person, and after pouring burning fluid all over her set fire to her and endeavored to burn her alive. The interference of some of the people in the house prevented the consummation of his design. On Friday evening last he whipped her in a brutal manner and swore he would disfigure her so that she would never be able to go out. Great efforts are being made by interested parties to keep the details of the affair from the public. Kates was held in $2,200 bail for his appearance at Court.
