A Tramp Killed by a : Woman-The Worth of a Pistol in the House.

MILANSPORT, PA., Aug. 22

Mrs. Morgan Calvert, a young widow, who lives with her brother two miles from this place, was left alone in her isolated house for several days last week. On Thursday afternoon a rough fellow called at the house, and after asking Mrs. Calvert many questions, begged for a supper and a night's lodging. He was refused. Thereupon he went away, unuttering to himself. A little later Mrs. Calvert was obliged to go out, and on her return she saw a man crouching behind the door between the sitting-room and her bed-100m. He did not seem to see her, and she saw him only through a narrow crack. There were firearms in the house, and Mrs. Calvert knew how to use them. Without an outery, she went up stairs and got a revolver, and hiding it under her apron, started boldly for the room in which the tramp was lurking. As Mrs. Calvert approached the door the man threw it open suddealy, jumped out, and struck her in the face. Recovering quickly from the blow, she drew her pistol; upon seeing which the tramp turned to flee. She fired once and wounded him; and then started to pursue bim. As he disappeared around the house she fired again, at which he turned about and cried, "Don't shoot again woman; I am a dead man now. As he spoke he staggered against the fence and then fell. He begged for aid, and Mrs. Calvert arranged bim in a comfortable position; after which she started for a physician. As she approached the house the tramp who had first called upon her rushed out and escaped, and under the great exchement she fell fainting by the roadside. Two hours later she was was discovered by her friends, who listened to her story, and went to ti d the man whom she had wounded.

He was lying dead.

- Poor little Puss! How fondly her mamma must have watched her youthful gambols and her weak attempts at friskiness. How her matroply heart must have pictured the bright promise of that young life. She was zebra-striped and only three inches long. And now she was dead! We saw her cold corpus lying in the alley op posite the hotels, and now, we doubt not, the awful hogs have got it, and the great world moves coldly on!

Now the Tide Comes In.

We are glad to be able to note the commencement of the return tide that is to bring back to us all the old familiar faces from the country, the sea-side, the springs and the mountains, where they have been whiling away the pleasant hours of summer while we unfortunates have had to remain in town to swelter and protest each day how much hotter it was than the day before. They are coming; slowly thus far, it is true, but we begin to forget our trials and our loneliness as one by one they come and look in upon us, and we almost think it was worth our while to stay at home, if only for the pleasure of being here to welcome them back. Happy, radiant faces, every onehealth and good humor restored if ever lost, explanation of the plans of Maj. W. L. and now speaking in every lineament; earnest, honest faces-ready to take hold with a vim of the business and all the varied activities of another year; faces, bless them! that we hope to see always looking just as they do to-day-never less earnest and hopeful, never sadder, never less kindly-looking than now they look to us.

A Stitch in Time." Alluding to the ugly hole in the pavement on the north side of Princess street, between Front and Water, which was referred to several times in this paper and which was properly repaired a day or two since, an old citizen informed as yesterday that there is a deep well immediately beneath it, which was dug 28 years ago and in which a pump was placed. This will give some idea of the danger which threatened pedestrians who traveled in that direction, especially at night, while the hole remained exposed.

Brunswick Court. The jury in the case of the State vs. Jas. Heaton, charged with staying the election in this city on the 6th of August, 1874, which was tried at Brunswick Court this week, were unable to agree upon a verdict and were discharged. The case was thereupon continued until the next term of the vesterday: P. M., 75; 9 P. M., 70. From Old to New.

The Spanish Barque Elina, which was detained at quarantine for some weeks last summer, was broken from her moorings and capsized in the great gale of September 28th, 1874, was, after some months of hard labor, raised and brought up to this port, where she was subsequently sold under an order from the U. S. Marshal and purchased by Messrs. Peschau & Westermann, of this city, and was afterwards hauled upon the ways of Messrs. Cassidey & Ross, where she was thoroughly overhauled on Monday last, furnished with a full set of new canvass and will be ready for sea in some eight or ten days. The name of the now handsome and staunch barque has been changed to the Lydia Peschan; and we may add that she has been supplied with a full complement of new and handsome flags manufactured (together with the sails) by Mr. Thomas Parsons, who has lately arrived here from New York and established this new branch of industry in our midst.

Mayor's Court. The following cases were disposed of by this tribunal yesterday morning:

Lizzie Hines, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $5 and costs.

Harriet Henry, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $5 and costs. Susan Pierce, arraigned for the same offense, was found not guilty and the case was dismissed. Amelia Bradley, one of the street prisoners, charged with fighting and abusing the overseer, John Fields, was ordered to pay a fine of $20 and the costs or work for thirty days on the streets. Phillis Moore, one of the street prisoners, also charged with fighting and abusing the overseer, was ordered to pay a fine of $20 and costs or work for thirty days on the

Another colored woman, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs.

Got Enough of It. A caucus of "colored folks" at a depot in one of our Southern towns is thus "done up" by a Northern paper who had a reporter on the spot: "There were three of them sitting lazily upon the platform, looking like cast-iron tobacco signs. "Dere's goin' to be anoder 'Publik'n paper here purty soon, de fokes say," said one. "Anwe all niggers got to subscribe, kase de 'lection is comin' nigh unto hand," said another. "'Scribe nothin'!" said the third one, as he loosened up his cotton suspender; "I'm done wid die 'Publik'a business, I is. Didn't I'bear de preacher readin' de Bible 'bout de 'Publicans? Why, when de Lord hisself was on de yearth, de used to set in de high places at de front gates ob de towns, an' take up taxes and 'sessments from de folkes. An' now, dese Publik'ns doin' de same t'ng don't yer see? Now, dey don't git no more sessments outen dis nigger fur no 'lections, 'scribing, and nothin' else !"

Another Carolina Minister Called to

The Baltimore Sun of the 25th says that the quarterly conference of Bethany Independent Mothodist church unanimously recommended, and at a called meeting held the 23d inst., the male members elected Rev. R. S. Moran to be the permanent pastor of the church. Dr. Moran has been supplying the Bethany pulpit since May last. He has for several years been an influential clergyman of North Carolina Conference M. E. Church South, serving five years as Presiding Elder, six years as pastor of Front Street church, Wilmington, and was elected twice to represent his Conference in the General Conference. Dr. Moran has accepted and installation will take place on next Monday evening, at which Dr. Deems, of the Church of the Strangers, N. Y., and other ministers will participate in the exercises.

Smithville. We learn that the telegraphic line from Smithville to this place will probably be commenced next week, and that it is expected the work will be completed by the last of September. This line of communication with the seacoast will undoubtedly prove a great benefit to the commercial interests of the city, and the business community, particularly, will be glad to learn that the work of constructing the line is so soon to be e mmenced.

First Bale New Cotton. We learn that Messrs. Kerchner & Calder Bros, must be accorded the trophies for the first bale of new cotton this year. It came to hand yesterday, by express, from Mr. E. 7 A. The Haywood Homicide.

A letter from Asheville, written by a young gentleman from this city to his parents, gives some additional particulars of the recent homicide in Haywood county, and mentions one fact that will be especially gratifying to the many friends and relatives of Tommie Strange.

After giving some details substantially the same as those already printed in the STAR, the writer of the letter, who obtained his information from the Deputy Sheriff of Haywood county, refers to the accident to the hack and states that Tommie Strange was trying to reason with Murray, the driver, and from this the altercation followed that culminated in the shooting of Murray. No one, it is said by the Deputy Sheriff, who was present at the Coroner's inquest, witnessed the shooting; and Tom. mie stated on the examination before the Coroner, that he shot Murray in self-de

We expressed the opinion yesterday that there must have been greater provocation given than mere words, however angry, and we are now convinced that such was the case. Those who know Tommie Strange will not hesitate to accept his statement as true, especially when it is remembered that there were no witnesses of the affair, and he was not compelled to make any statement at all unless he saw fit to

New Building. During the early part of the year Mr. W. I. Gore commenced a 24 story frame house on the lot adjoining his then residence on Orange street, near Fourth. This building was completed and occupied by Mr. Gore in June last, and is now one of the prettiest places in the whole neighborhood. Having vacated his old house, Mr. Gore has lately proceeded to tear it down and build a neat two-story dwelling in its stead. Work on this structure is being pushed, and when completed it will be occupied by Maj. J. H. Hill. Mr. Gore is entitled to considerable credit for his enterprising efforts to improve and beautify his

THE TOLLEY GUN .-- COPY OF TESTIMONIAL .-HUDSON CITY, N. J., Sept. 30th, 1874.-MESSES. J. & W. Tolley-29 Maiden Lane, New York:-The 10-guage Gun No. 3078 I ordered from you gives me entire autistaction. I was very exacting when ordering the Gun, but must say that you have more than fulfilled what I required of you. I have shot several breech-leaders by first-class makers, and your gua beats them all for beauty and workmanship. As for shooting qualities, your gur shoots stronger and more even than any gun I ever shot. I have shown it to several good judges (including first-class gunmakers) and all agree that the action is very strong and durable, and that the gun is one of the best they ever saw. I have made some very long shots with it, using only 31/4 drs. of powder, which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a targat according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Farm trials, and the average of 6 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38; right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 31/4 drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun is seldom met with, and am very proud to be the owner of it. But the real test of your gun is in the field-there it excells all others, killing cleaner and handsomer than any gun I ever saw, as you assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your guns to all my friends.

Yours Respectfully. HENRY LORIOT.

Orton Plantation. NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS. ALL Persons are hereby warned against shooting, hunting, fishing, ranging or otherwise trespassing on the lands known as the Orton Plantation, in the County of Brunswick. The indiscriminate slaughter of game at all seasons and the incessant depredations in other and more important respects, have rendered it necessary to post these lands; and fair notice is now given that the law will be rigidly enforced against all offenders.
