Capture of an Escaped Convict. The Charlotte Observer of Saturday says: "The keeper of the New Hanover county work house was in this city yesterday on the hunt for some negroes who escaped from that institution a week or two ago. His search was no successful as to the particular convicts for whom he was hunting. but while here he discovered a negro who had escaped from the work house about 18 months ago. The negro's name is Wiley Perry, and he was found at the market | ing. house, where he seemed to have an interest in a stall. The police and others have seen him there every day for a long while, but had no suspicion that he was an escaped convict. Perry was taken to the lock-up and confined until time for the leaving of the eastern bound train on the Carolina Central Railroad, when he was put aboard to be carried back to his old quarters."

Baby carriages on the South side o Market street, between Front and Second ou Saturday afternoon, are voted a decided and unpardonable nuisance. As everybody knows, the sidewalk in that quarter is constantly crowded almost to suffocation after about 4 P. M. of a Saturday, but still nurses will persist in pushing their carriages through the surging crowd, not only to the inconvenience of pedestrians but to the peril of the helpless inmates of the same. If there is a city ordinance prohibiting this conduct on the part of nurses it should be strictly enforced. If there is no such ordihance, our "City Fathers" should see that one be passed when the first opportunity occurs.

Held for Safe-Keeping. Gustave Tobiasen, Andres Frederiksen and another seaman, whose name we did not understand, having deserted from the Norwegian Barque Fulken, are held in custody at the Guard House, in obedience to orders from Vice Consul Heide, for safekeeping. The two first named were already in continement for disorderly conduct on

WHOLE NO. 2,588.

Local D .

- To-morrow is bill day.

- Day's length 12hs. 57min. - Now make your good resolves for a new month.

- Scuppernongs have come, but make only a timid show of numbers.

- High water-10:10 A. M. and 9:44 P. M.; Smithville, 7:48 A. M. 7:22 - The British brig Lilian was reported in below, yesterday, bound for this

- Quite a severe storm of wind and rain passed over this city yesterday

- The steamer Waccamaw is now on Messrs. Cassidey & Ross' ways undergoing repairs. - The iron of the Street Railway on Seventh street is in process of removal - Some piles of boxes on Market street would seem to indicate the arrival of early invoices fall goods. - We notice that Messrs. Reaves & Co. have put up a new blacksmith shop on South Front street, near Castle. - The house advertised by Mr. S.

D. Wallace was incorrectly located on Front, when it should be Fourth street. - The literary letters of Paul H.

Hayne are adding much interest to THE MORNING STAR, says the Ruleigh Sentinel. -- There was quite a cracking of rifles during Sunday in the woods back of Eagle Island. Fie, boys; you shouldn't

- The pavement at the corner of St. James' Church is in quite a dilapidated condition and should receive immediate at-

- A number of persons witnessed a magnificent Night Blooming Cereus in bloom at the residence of Mr. E. T. Hancock Sunday night.

- The rooms of the Produce Exchange have, under the hands of the carpenter and painter, assumed a greatly improved appearance.

- There is no reason now why persons should not keep cool, as both the ice houses in this city are retailing the luxury at 1 a cent per pound.

- Two "jolly tars" were picked up on the streets about 12 o'clock Saturday night and taken to the Guard House, charged with acting very disorderly. - We hear that a very bad odor prevails on Third street, between Walnut and Red Cross. The sanitary force should investigate the matter. - We learn from the Citizen that | travail.

- The weather at 7 o'clock yesterday morning was cooler here than at any other point on the coast-North or Southfrom which the Signal Office had reports The thermometer stood at 67.

- Jane Hines and Edward Hill both colored, were arrested Sunday night for acting in a disorderly manner on the street, near the Front Street Methodist Church. They were locked up for a hear-

- We hear that the residence of Mr. John H. Hanby, on Sixth street, between Dock and Orange, was entered on Saturday night by a rear door, but the would-be thief was discovered and made his escape without getting any plunder.

- Some complaint having been made that hogs running at large root the payements, it has been suggested that owners be required to put three rings in the nose of each of their hogs which they wish to run at large. By this arrangement they (the hogs) will be enabled to act their part as scavengers and not interfere with the Serub Hace at Masonboro'. The yachtmen of Masouboro' Sound intend having a scrub race on Friday next, at 2 P. M. Eight boats, we understand, have may look for a speedy completion of this already been entered, and a special invitation is extended to the champion yacht, Ripple, and all other yachts of Wrightsville Sound, to participate.

The race will be governed by the rules of the Carolina Yacht Club. A pleasant time is expected by all who indulge a partiality for boat racing, of whom there are not a few hereabouts.

Two gentlemen at Masonboro Sound, while out gunning at high tide, on Saturday last, succeeded in bagging 39 marsh hens and 37 snipe and curlews. The recent northerly winds have raised the tides along the Sounds to a much greater extent than at any other time since last fall, which affords sportsmen a fine opportunity for hunting the numerous seabirds which throng our coast.

Hange of Tuermometer. The following was the range of the thermometer at the Signal Bureau, in this city, yesterday: 7 A. M., 67; 12 M., 80; 2 P. M., 82; 4:30 P. M., 75; 9 P. M., 75.

A Bad Habit. Those who go down to the river at night to enjoy the breeze and watch the boats may perhaps, so far as some of them are concerned, learn a lesson of paramount importance from the fate of the unfortunate colored man who was drowned off Neff's wharf a few nights since. It is a particularly dangerous practice for any one to sit on the wharf with his feet hanging over the river, or to lie at full length on the wharf near the edge, with his head supported by a post, as some are in the habit of doing. A moment's pause in the conversation or a lull in the interest of the scenes going on about one may very readily furnish an opportunity for a nod or other movement which may prove fatal. The extreme edge of the wharf is a dangerous place, for many reasons that might be mentioned, at any time, and at night the tendency to sleep after the completion of the labors of the day renders it especially dangerous, and should have a potent influence to keep loungers at a safe distance.

Magistrate's Court.

A colored woman by the name of Emma Burton was arraigned before Justice Van-Amringe, yesterday morning, on a peace warrant sworn out by Eliza Finch, also colored, who made affidavit that the dashing, gushing and apparently good humored defendant had threatened to cowhide her and use other violence against her. The case proved to be a sort of Beecher-Tilton affair and the defendant was ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 for her appearance at Court and to keep the peace.

Willis Stewart, charged on the complaint of Sandy Johnson with misdemeanor, was found not guilty and discharged.

Visiting Flocks. Owing to the absence on summer leave of a number of our city pastors, the various Methodist and Episcopal churches were on Sunday particularly favored with the presence of members of flocks just now shepherdless. The congregations of the other churches, too, whose ministers have had their vacations and returned or have thought they would be able best to rest themselves by undertaking new labors of good will, were generally sprinkled over with unaccustomed faces. We hope that both the visitors and visited found the occasion profitable by reason of its opportunities for the colargement of their sympathies by the indulgence of their mutual kindly feelings.

The ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church had a pleasant time at their bouquet festival last night. The attendance of both gentlemen and ladies was large, there were no untoward occurrences to mar the quiet enjoyments of the occasion, and it is hoped and believed that those who gave their time and best efforts to secure the success of the entertainment have had reason to be satisfied when they saw of the fruits of their

The shower yesterday afternoon came just at a time to spoil all the well laid plans for many a shopping and visiting excursion. It fell like a wet blanket upon spirits that before were gay, and took all the pleasure out of an otherwise pleasant day; but there were a few who rallied afterward, put on their thick shoes, and sallying out had al most as pleasant a time as though there had been no shower.

U. S. Commissioner's Court. Upon application to U.S. Commissioner E. II. McQuieg, yesterday, the crew of the Schr Henry Middleton, now at this port, were granted certificates upon which to ground a suit for libel against the vessel for wages alleged to be due them.

University Students and the C. C.

We are informed that the Carolina Cenral Railway Company will charge students going to the State University but half fare going and returning, and half rates on their furniture and effects. This arrangement will remain in force until July 1st, 1876.

Petition for Pardon. We learn that a petition is in circulation with quite a large number of signatures, asking Gov. Brogden to pardon Mrs. Annie Speight, now confined in the State Pen'tentiary, on condition that she do not return to this city. She was sentenced for a term of three years.

The Turnpike. Work upon the Wilmington and Coast Turnpike road was commenced yesterday 45 hands being employed to begin with. With the force which will be engaged we important enterprise.

Bonds of County Officials.

meet and re-organize on Monday next, when the bonds of all the county officials, including Sheriff, Tax Collector, Clerk of the Superior Court, Coroner, Register of Deeds, &c., which are renewable, will be received and considered.

Removal of Obstructions.

We are glad to learn that fine progress i being made in clearing out the Cape Fear river below this city. The obstructions which were placed in the vicinity of buoy No. 13 during the late war have all been removed and there is now no hindrance to navigation in that quarter.

THE TOLLEY GUN.-COPY OF TESTIMONIAL. HUDSON CITY, N. J., Sept. 30th, 1874 .- MESSES, J. & W. Tolley-29 Maiden Lane, New York:-The 10-guage on No. 3078 I ordered from you gives me entire satisfaction. I was very exacting when ordering the Gun, but must say that you have more than fulfilled what I required of you. I have shot several breach-leaders by first-class makers, and your gus beats them all for beauty and workmanship. As for shooting qualities, your gur shoots stronger and more even than any gun I ever shot. I have shown it to several good judges (including first-class gunmakers) and all agree that the action is very strong and durable, and that the gun is one of the best they ever saw. I have made some very which is all your gun requires. I have shot it at a targat according to the rules of the Turf, Field and Farm trials, and the average of 6 shots at 40 yards is: Left-pattern, 169; penetration, 38; right-pattern, 175; penetration 39; using 31/2 drs. powder. Now I am sure such a gun s seldom met with, and am very proud to be the owner of it. But the real test of your gun in the field-there it excells all others, killing cleaner and handsomer than any gun I ever saw, as you assured me they would. Both paper and metal shells work splendidly. Gentlemen, I have to offer you my very best thanks, and will recommend your guns to all my friends.

Yours Respectfully, HENRY LORIOT.

A live newspaper, and the best Daily n the State. The circulation is larger than that of any other Daily in the State, which proves it.—Milton Chronicle. Those of our readers desiring to take a daily or weekly paper from North Carolina cannot do better than take the Wilmington STAR.—Cheraw (S. C.)

It is one of the most maniy and vigorous Dailier among the thousands in the land. There is no dodging about this paper, but it meets every issue fairly and squarely. It is slways full of interesting matter, and the wonder is how, in the short space of twenty-four hours, it can gather up so much information, and so varied. It has from the first had an honorable career, and we wish it many years of presperity.—N. C. Preshulssian.

No paper ever started in North Carolina has grown so rapidly as has the STAR. Though only five years old, it is now a fixed institution, enjoying an infu-ence and a prosperity second to none in the State. -Salisbury Watchman.
