In the light of the mournful telegram elsewhere printed this morning containing news of the destruction of Indianola, Texas, with one hundred and fifty lives, the Herald editorial on the next page on the great Equinoctial Storm will be read with interest. The sympathy of the country should be extended in a substantial shape to the suffering citizens of Galveston, Indianola and other places on the Texan coast which have sustained heavy losses by the burricane. It will be seen that an appeal for help ha- a ready been made.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. THIRTEBATH DAY.

Altidged from the News and Sentinel.]

RALEIGH, Sept. 21. Mi. Strowd submitted a memorial inferior Courts to the General Asfrom the State Grange Patrons of sembly. Husbandry, complaining of the excessive tax on agricultural products, the want of protection to the same. and praying for the establishment of a Department of Agriculture by the Legislature. Referred.

Mr. Buxton asked to know when the Committee on Privileges and Elections would report on the Robeson county contest? He was answered that the Committee was considering the question, and would meet again this evening.

INTRODUCTION OF ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. King, of Lenoir, Rep., an ordinance prohibiting the establishment of new counties, unless they of 29 to 46. e main 120th part of the population of the State. Referred.

to amend sec. 26, art. 4, of the Consitution. Providing for the election of Supreme and Superior Court Justices by the people. Referred.

By Mr. Bryant, Rep., a resolution for adjournment sine die. Lies over. By. Mr. Anderson, of Clay, Dem., an ordinance to amend sec. 6, art. 7, of the Constitution. Provides for the election of Tax Receivers. Referred.

ORDINANCES ON THIRD READING. Ordinance from the Judicial Committee to amend sec. 3, art. 4, providing that the judicial power of the State shall be vested in a Court for the trial of impeachments, a Supreme Court, Superior Courts, Courts of Justices of the Peace, and such other Courts inferior to the Supreme Court as may be established by law, was considered. Mr. French, Rep., moved to amend by inserting "criminal" before Courts. Mr. Bennett, Dem., from the Judiciary Committee, in reply to a question of Mr. Badger, said the bill as it came from the Committee would authorize or allow the re-establishment by the Legislature hereafter, when it may be deemed necessary, of the old Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions.

Messrs. Buxton, Albertson, Barringer and Tourgee opposed the bill as it came from the committee, but did not favor the amendment of Mr.

Mr. Buxton thought the County Court system had proved a nuisance and that it was so considered by the people of the State. Mr. Tourgee wanted the bill to define in positive terms what Courts may be established hereafter, and therefore moved its recommittal to the committee in order that it may b made more positive in its character. There were gentlemen on his side of the house that wanted amendments of this character, and wanted to vote for the measure. Mr. Coleman, Dem., opposed the recommittal of the bill. The gentletuen who opposed the bill acknowle |ged that they did not know exactly what change they wanted, and hence be thought the whole question should be placed in the hands of the Legislature, in order that that body may act in the future on this matter as the The General Assembly had time to consider this question, and the time of this Convention was limited. Mr. Badger said the people of this portion of the State could not live under the present court system, as in counties the size of Wake eight weeks of court could not relieve the criminal docket, the civil docket being left untouched, and he favored the bill the question with the future General inserting the words "arbitration and award" after the words "Superior Courts," in order that the public mind The Mails. may be relieved of any idea of the reestablishment of the old County fice until further notice as follows:

Mr. Manix favored the idea of this Convention defining what courts shall be established, and not leaving the matter open to the legislation of any future body which might allow partisan feeling to control its actions.

Mr. Coleman again defended the proposition as it came from the Comnittee. Mr. Withers, of Caswell, Dem., said we were told by gentlemen representing every portion of the State, that the old County Courts were odious to the people; if such be the fact, is there any reason to fear that the Legislature will ever attempt to reestablish a system which the people do not desire and are opposed to. But let us adopt this amendment, and the people through their representatives in the Legislature, after proper consideration, will adopt such a system as our necessities may require, if

Mr. Faircloth, Rep., said it was the ancertainty of the Courts to be estabished, as the bill would indicate, that he objected to, and he thought would also prove objectionable to the people. The fact that the whole question was left subject to annual changes at the hands of the Legislature was of itself objectionable, and he thought it best that the whole matter be defined and decided here. He knew of no disposition with those who co-operated with him to offer any factious opposition to the measure, as every one was compelled to auknowledge the necessity of some improvement in the present system of our Courts.

Mr. Turner opposed the amendments proposed, and favored leaving the question of the establishment of The amendment of Mr. Barringer was lost, as also the amendment of Mr. French, by a vote of 20 to 54.

The amendment of Mr. Manix, Rep., providing that what were formerly known as the Courts of Quarter Session, or Courts of similar character, as to manner of construction or jurisdiction, shall not be estab lished, was lost by a vote of 35 to 41.

The amendment of Mr. Manning. of New Hanover, Rep., requiring the election of the officers of inferior Courts by the people of their respective districts, was lost by a vote

The main question, as reported from the Committee, then passed its By Mr. Cooper, Dem., an ordinance | third and last reading by a vote of 43 ayes, 25 nays, 42, members being paired off, although some of them were present in the hall.

Ordinance to amend the Constitution so that the General Assembly shall meet biennially, on the Wednesday after the first Monday in January, instead of in November as heretofore.

Amendments striking out sections and articles now obsolete in the Constitution. Adopted.

The ordinance providing for pine Superior Court Judges instead of this effect, the Legislature to have the power to increase or decrease the ant, both parties being ice dealers. The number, was considered. An amendment of Mr. Buxton, to make the number of Judges ten, instead of nine, was lost. An amendment by Mr. King, of Lenoir, to restrict the number of Districts to be established to 12, was lost by a vote of 33 to 45.

Mr. Byrd, Rep., moved an amendment, providing that the General Assembly shall in no case establish more than 15 Judicial Districts. Lost by a vote of 35 to 41.

The main question then passed its third and last reading by the follow-

It appears that in accordance with a contract entered into between the parties, tickets held by each on the other passed between the different houses of the rival dealers. Finally a time came for settlement. when it was found that Messrs. Lippitt & Co. had on hand tickets to the amount indicated above, which they contended should, by the terms of the contract, be payable in currency; while Mr. Ahrens insisted that he did not so understand the contract, and claimed that the tickets called only for ice -not greenbacks. Meeting of the Committee of Neven Appointed by the Meeting of Tax-Payers Held Monday, Sept. 21st, MERTING NO. 1.

Monday, Sept. 21, 1875. The Committee met at No. 21 Dock street, at 10 o'clock A. M., Col. John McRae in the Chair and Silas N. Martin, Esq., acting as Secretary.

After some discussion, it was decided to proceed to enjoin the collection of the excess of taxes levied by the county and city authorities.

On motion it was Resolved. That the Committee consult legal authority regarding the right of citi-zens, to enjoin the collection of the excess of taxation imposed upon them.

Messrs. R. S. French and M. London were invited to give their views, and did so at length. The services of Messrs. Freuch and M. London were secured. On motion, it was Resolved. That Col. John McRae and Wm. A. French constitute a Committee to make affidavit for themselves and the citizens of the county and city as parties plaintiff : On motion, it was Resolved, That Messrs. H. VonGlahn and L. H. Bowden be authorized to raise the necessary funds to prosecute the suits, and that they be and are hereby authorized to collect the same.

A Committee was appointed to attend to the matter of costs and prosecution bonds. The meeting adjourned subject to the call

The Committee of Seven consists of Col. John Merice, Chairman; and Messra. W. A. French, W. E. Freeman, G. W. Kidder, 8. N. Martin, al. VonGlahn and L. H.

A man was going to take a river steamer the other day. He had made his purchases in the city and had them in a bag on his shoulder, and now he was all ready to go home. He was in a hurry to get to the steamer, for the first signal of departure had already warned him that there was no time to lose; so he grasped his bag of investments firmly by the neck and breaking into a lively run down Market street was making excellent time in the direction of the wharf, when, in a luckless moment, he was espied by one of our guardians of the peace on duty about the market house. With one glance at the suspicious-looking bag carried by the stranger and one thought bestowed upon his suspiciously rapid pace, it flashed through the mind of the policeman that this man had been upon a plundering expedition and was in the act of escaping with his booty. Instantly then he gave chase. The race was an exciting one. The stranger ran well, with the visions of home before him to urge him on, but he carried too much weight and the agile policeman finally overhauled him, and, spite of protestations and entreaties, dragged the victim of cruel mistake off to the Guard House. Arrived at that delectable retreat, the stranger quickly proved his good character and honest antecedents, was released, and hastened back to the river, only to find that his steamer had some time been plowing her way up the blue Cape Fear. It was a hard case, but it seems rather difficult to fix the blame upon anybody without doing an injustice equally as great as that done him. Roanoke and Tar River Exposition. We are under obligations to Mr. H. E. T. Manning, Secretary, for an invitation to be present at the sixth annual exposition of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, which is to be held at Weldon on the 26th, 27th, 28th and 29th prox. The invitation is tastefully gotten up at the office of the Roanoke News, and did our duties permit, we should be pleased to be with our friends of the Northeast on the oceasion of their Fair.

For the Star.

THE INJUNCTION. The proceedings published in the morning papers concerning the "Tax-Payers' Meeting" seem strange, in the face of facts that have been patent to every one for the past three or four years.

By a comparison of the yearly county statements for 1874 and 1875 it appears that the former Board of Commissioners paid bills amounting to $57,907 16; amount paid by present Board for past year, $55,426 82; expense of present Board less than expense of former Board, $2,480 34.

It also appears that out of the amount paid by the present Board $10,449 49 was paid on warrants issued by the former present Board will amount to $12,929 83

The following amounts were paid by the former Board greater than the amounts

Advertising and Printing.... $ 75 50 Work House..... 811 43 Feeding Prisoners in Jail, &c.... 551 75

Repairs on Jail, &c..... 1,039 69 Listing Taxes. 1,713 97
Some of the items of expense by the present Board are in excess of the expense by the previous Board.

It will be remembered that the city poor were turned over to the county and cared for by the former Board for part of a year only, and that the present Board have had the care of them for an entire year of here-tofore unheard-of hard times, want and Martha J. Johnson, charged with violating the health ordinance of the city, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or work thirty days on the streets.

A party charged with disorderly conduct was ordered to pay a fine of $20 and the costs.

deprived of the necessary funds to support them, they will be turned adrift, and a beggar will stand at every man's door, and they will perish in our streets.

to 1875 inclusive: County Tax en each $100 Valuation of Property

It will be seen that each tax exceeds the amount of 662 cents on the $100 valuation. which is claimed by the injunctors to be the utmost limit, and the tax of 1871 was 284 cents greater on the $100 valuation than the present tax.

Tuese former taxes were all levied by men who claimed to be financiers, and by them were considered necessary at the time they were levied to meet the expense of the

Owing to the stringency of the times the receipts from Schedule B have fallen off at east $4,000 per annum.

By the assessment of the present year the valuation of property was reduced about $700,000, which made a material reduction in the city and State and county taxes, and the county was compelled to raise the percentage to secure the same amount of tax. The whole County and State tax assessed n Wilmington the present year is less than the tax of 1874, on account of the reduction of assessments.

The present Board have made liberal rcluctions on assessments of the Cotton Mills and other enterprises from which it was expected the city would derive advan-

and expenses must be paid some time, and the Legislature will order a special tax. as the Courts will compel the payment of the debts together with all the costs direct and ndirect of the present proposed injunction and all the loss and depreciation of county Commissioners can raise the tax next year by placing the property at its true valuation, which would add onethird of the entire tax at present levied, to the city, State and county taxes, which would increase the present tax very much. Who then, in the end, is to be benefited by the injunction? A few lawyers and court officers. While the poor are to be reduced to starvation during the coming winter, and the county credit ruined. Is it not a work that can, in the end, only be fraught with mischief to every tax-COMMON SENSE.
