CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

NINETERNTH DAY.

[Abridged from the Raleigh News.]

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 27. By Mr. Blocker, a resolution to adjourn sine die on the 4th of October.

Lies over. MIXED SCHOOLS.

The ordinance in relation to mixed schools was taken up as the unfinished business of Saturday. The substitute was adopted.

Mr. Buxton's amendment, introduced on Saturday, was adopted. The question then recurred on the Crosby amendment. Mr. Withers said the amendment advocated by Mr. Tourgee proposed only to defeat the express stipulation in regard to separate public schools for the two races.

Mr. Barringer doubted the propriety of passing the amendment offered by Crosby, col,, and opposed the same in a lengthy and prepared address.

Mr. Morehead called the previous question, which being sustained, all amendments were voted down and the bill passed its final reading by a vote of 98 ayes to 3 nays. Those voting in the negative were Crosby, col., Bell and Thorne.

CALENDAR.

The following ordinances were taken up in regular order and tabled: Ordinance to rescind sec. 37. art. 7. Ordinance requiring the Governor to reside in the Executive Mansion. Ordinance to amend sec. 29, art. 2. Ordinance to amend art. 1, sec. 5. Ordinance to reduce the salaries of ot the school fund, requiring the same to be paid only to County Treasurers, and by them distributed, was informally laid over on motion of Mr. Morehead who is Chairman of the Educational Committee, assuring Mr. Cooper that ordinance 143 met the requirements of his ordinance.

Ordinance 143, for the preservation and just distribution of the public school fund taken up. The following substitute (by the committee) for the ordinance was adopted:

Sec. 1. The proceeds of all lands that have been or hereafter may be granted by the United States to this State, and not otherwise appropriated by this State or the United States; also all moneys, stocks, bonds and other property now belonging to any State fund for purposes of education; also the net proceeds of all sales of the swamp lands belonging to the State and also all other grants, gifts or devises that have been or hereafter may be made to this State, and not otherwise appropriated by the State or by the terms of the grant, gift or devise, shall be paid into the State Treasury, and together with so much of the ordinary revenue of the State as may be by law set apart for that purpose, shall be faithfully appropriated for establishing and maintaining in this State a system of free public schools, and for other purposes

Suspicious Proceedings.

On Monday night about two o'clock s family on Red Cross street were awakened by noises and a bright light in the back yard. On going to the window three men were discovered examining the premises by the aid of a dark lanters. As it was not certainly known whether they were scavengers or chicken thieves it was not thought best to fire on them without a challenge, and they were accordingly asked their business. The light went out instantly and the men vanished beaind a neighboring building. We would suggest to the city scavengers that it will add to their safety if they notify householders in advance of their intention to visit premises, and to all other persons that they are not ikely often to be given such favorable opportunities to escape.

Temperance Ball. We learn that a grand temperance ball will be given at Temperance Hall on Wednesday, the 18th of October. George Applewhite, the Condemned Jewish New Year. Outlaw-Probability of His Re-

It would now appear that there still remains a chance that the notorious outlaw, robber and murderer, George Applewhite, whose career of infamy in Robeson county, in connection with Henry Berry Lowrey and others is so well known, may escape the punishment he so richly deserves. It will be remembered that Applewhite, Stephen Lowrey and Henderson Oxendine, whose cases had been removed from Robeson county, were tried at the Spring term of Columbus Superior Court in 1872, for the murder of Sheriff Reuben King, and Applewhite, with one of the others, was sentenced to be hung. The prisoners were all brought to this city and placed in the county jail, from which they some time after succeeded in escaping, returning to Robeson county where they recommenced their war against the lives and property of the citizens. Not long after this, Applewhite was shot and severely wounded by a party who were hunting the outlaws, and as he disappeared and no further tidings were received of him it came to be the universal opinion that he had died from his injuries. This idea was exploded, however, on the 1st of July last, by the sudden discovery that the noted outlaw was living in Wayne county under the assumed name of Jackson, which discovery was followed by his arrest by two colored men, Freeman and Lane, who lodged him in a place of safe-keeping and afterwards received the reward of $5,000 offered by the Governor for his capture. He was subsequently taken to Whiteville, Columbus county, by Sheriff McMillan, of Robeson county, where he still remains. In the interval between the disappearance of Applewhite and his subsequent arrest and incarceration, however, the Legislature passed what was known as the amnesty law, pardoning a large class of offenders, but especially exempting from its provisions Henry Berry Lowrey, but failing to include the name of George Applewhite, from the fact that he was then universally regarded as dead. Taking advantage of this failure to class him with other exempts from pardon included in the amnesty bill, Applewhite's counsel, we un derstand, at the late term of the Superior Court for Columbus, asked for his discharge. The motion was taken into con-

Court for that county. The opinion is generally entertained about Whiteville, we understand, that Applewhite will finally be released on the

A meeting of the Board of Trustees of Wilmington township was had Monday evening; present, Esq'rs Stacy VanAmringe, Anthony Howe, Henry Brewington and Jos. C. Hill.

On a motion of Justice Jos. C. Hill, a committee of three, the Chairman of the Board inclusive, was appointed to enquire into the legality of the action of Thos. M. Gardner, Esq., a Magistrate of Federal Point Township, in establishing an office in this city and performing the duties of the position in Wilmington township, and report the same to the next meeting of the Board. The Chair appointed Justices Hill and Cassidey as said committee.

S. T. Potts, Clerk of the Board, presented his bond for $1,000, with R. A. Price and G. C. W. Muller as sureties, which, on motion, was received and referred to a committee consisting of Justices Brewington, Cassidey and Sampson, with instruction to report at the next meeting of the Board, to be held this evening at 4 o'clock.

Justices S. VanAmringe, J. C. Hill and Heary Brewington, the committee appointed to examine into and report upon the annual statement of the Clerk and Treasurer. and also the report of the Auditing Committee, all for the fiscal year ending Sept. 1st, 1875, reported that they had examined the same and found them all correct and recommend that they be approved and

The Board then adjourned to meet this afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

Fire at Shoe Heel.

Quite a destructive fire occurred at Shoe Heel, on the C. C. Railway, on Sunday morning last. It broke out in the store of Mr. W. B. Harker and was first discovered about 2 o'clock by Mr. Jackson, who lives in the adjoining dwelling. The store, including its contents, was entirely destroyed, together with all the clothing of Mr. 8. McGirt, who was clerk in the establishment. The flames also communicated with the dwelling occupied by Mr. Jackson, alluded to above, which was also totally consumed, though Mr. J. was fortunate enough to save all of his furniture. Both of the buildings burned were the property of Messrs. McKoy & McLean, of Shoe Heel, the store being valued at about $1,800 and the dwelling at about $400 or $500, and both, we learn, were fully covered by insurance. Mr. Harker's goods, we understand, were also insured for their full value.

Mr. McGirt usually slept in the store and it was at first reported that he had been consumed in the building, but it happened that he left Shoe Heel about 84 o'clock on Saturday afternoon to visit a sick cousin and no one slept in the store that night. It is generally believed that the store was first robbed and then set on fire, as a pair of shoes bearing Mr. Harker's mark were found near the store after the fire. The conflagration, of course, created great exitement in the village.

From this evening at 6 o'clock until to morrow evening at the same hour will be observed by our Jewish fellow-citizens as a day of remembrance and contrition for the sins of the past year. The day is the anniversary of the festival of Rosh Hashanathe Hebrew New Year's. It is a festival that partakes both of the joyous nature of a day of thanksgiving for the benefits derived from the finished year and a day of repentance and sorrow for its wrongs and errors. It is a day for the remembrance of former good resolutions and of obligations to obey the precepts of the moral law; whose giving by the hand of Moses amid the thunders of Sinai is symbolized in the Synagogues, according to commandment by blowing upon ram's-horns and other impressive ceremonies, including the reading of the tables. We are unable to learn that any special public services will be held in Wilmington on this occasion, owing to the unfinished condition of the Synagogue and the absence of many members of the congregation from he city, but it is understood that every Israelite who still reverences the faith of his fathers will make it a day of private self-examination. Important as the present occasion is, it is regarded as only a preparation or introduction to the greater feast of atonement and purification, which will take place ten days hence, and when those who have earnestly repented of and forsaken their past transgressions and offered the prescribed sacrifices are once more declared guiltless of breaches of the law. Rosh Hashana this year is set down in the Hebrew chronology as the beginning of the civil year Anno Munci 5,000. The correctness of this date has been much asputed, as, indeed, have been nearly all points of doctrine which rest their claims upon passages of the sacred books that seem in themselves not quite definite in their terms, but which have been elucidated by the early writings and traditions of the fathers. We do not understand that it is claimed the age of the world s anywhere definitively stated in years within the text of the Scriptures, but only that the time has been deduced and calculated by ancient scholars, from comparisons of the text and of tradition, and the result recorded in a manner to command respect. In this understanding, however, we may be mistaken. We do not pretend to speak by authority on the subject, and sideration by Judge McKoy, who postif in error shall be pleased to be corrected. poned the sentence of the culprit, leaving We only refer to the subject at all because the whole matter in abevance for the next of a desire to call attention to what we besix months, or until the spring term of the lieve to be a fact, viz: that there is no conflict between the chronology of the sacred books taken alone and the determinations of modern science on the question of the

Thomas Lehan and Jesse Peeples, two of the young white men who were arrested in this city on Wednesday last, charged with disorderly conduct and being suspicious characters, and who were sentenced by the Mayer to pay a fine of $20 each or work for thirty days on the streets, which latter alternative they accepted, broke from the guard on Monday afternoon, while the prisoners were engaged at work in the southern part of the city, and succeeded in effecting their escape. Wm. Fagan, the other young man who was arrested at the same time with Lehan and Peeples, did not attempt to escape, having since given as his reason for remaining behind, that he was too sick at the time to run. Fagan has a brother in New York who is a telegraph operator, from whom he received a letter a day or two since enclosing the necessary funds to buy him a pair of shoes. His brother, however, is

Not Wanted. A letter was received at the office of the City Marshal here, yesterday, from City Marshal C. W. Alexander, of Charlotte, stating that one Isaiah Brunson, colored, halling from this city, was held in custody there on the presumption that there was some charge against him here, and asking that, if such was the case, an officer be sent after him. The individual alluded to was arraigned before our City Court on the 18th of July, on the charge of disorderly conduct, when judgment was suspended in his case and he was dismissed. The Charlotte functionary was thereupon informed, by letter, that Isaiah's presence here was not at all necessary.

Runawayskxtrpordinary. The management of the street railway put a new horse on the line yesterday, but he had never been used to business of that sort before and a very short experience of it convinced him that he didn't like it. He had got as far as Fourth and Ann streets with a car when he resolved on vigorous measures to show his disapproval of his new line of work. He accordingly ran away with the car, and after spinning it along for some distance at a very lively speed, by a few extra efforts succeeded in pulling the harness to pieces, freeing himself from his incumbrance and making off. We believe he was recaptured uninjuredthe only damage being that done to harness -and will be indulged in his desire to retire from the road.

Allow me to thank you for the fidelity with which you carried out my instructions. The general outline, beauty of proportion and excellent finish; are all that could be desired, and more than meets my expectations. I am more than ever impressed with the idea that it is as necessary for a man to have a gun built to measarement as to have a boot so built to ensure a good fit. The pattern 175 and penetration 40 are very superior. The pattern is as close as I desire, and the penetration I think is seldom attained, being far ahead of any public record which I have seen.
