WORK OF THE CONVENTION

Synopsis of the Work of the Convention.

We are enabled to place before our readers, in advance, we believe, of our contemporaries of the State press, a complete synopsis of the work of the Convention.

The total number of amendments adopted is 31. The Judicial Department deserved and received more attention than any other in the Constitution. That Article was so amended as to give the General Assembly power to establish other Courts inferior to the Supreme Court, with power to prescribe the manner of appointing the presiding officers of such Courts, who shall hold for a term not exceeding 8 years.

The number of Supreme Court Judges was reduced from five to three; of Superior Court Judges from twelve to nine-all to be elected by the people. At the first election the Superior Court Judges are to be chosen by general ticket, but the General Assembly may provide that at succeeding elections they be chosen by Districts, as at present. Both Supreme and Superior Court Judges to be elected for eight years.

The General Assembly are authored to require the Supreme Court to meet at points other than the State capitol.

The important principle of rotation of Judges was adopted; and no Judge can hold the Courts of any District twice in succession except at intervals of four years.

Sections 15, 16 and 17 of Art. 4 o the Constitution, which prescribe the original jurisdiction of the Superior Courts, and regulate the matter of probates, administrations, &c., are stricken out, and in lieu thereof the General Assembly are empowered to allot and distribute the judicial power, regulate the jurisdiction of the Supreme Courts, all matters of appeal, practice, &c. Section 31 of the same Article is so amended as to limit the duration of the term of the Governor's appointees to vacancies in this Article to the next regular election for members of the General Assembly, thus avoiding the recurrence of the unseemly spectacle presented in this State if two persons daly chosen to to the position of Superior Court Judge contesting for the unexpired portion of the term. Section 33, same Article, is so amended as to leave the original jurisdiction of Justice's of the Peace in civil actions to the General Assembly. The criminal jurisdiction of these officers is re-

The provision in the Constitution of 1776 by which upon a two-thirds vote of each House of the General Assembly Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts may be removed from office for physical mental inability, is re-enacted. This power is in ad diston to that of removal by Impeach

The Article on Suffrage and Eligibility is amended in one important particular. Hereafter persons convicted of felony or other infamous erime are denied the right to vote until restored to respectable citizenship by due course of law. A residence of 90 days in the County, instead of 30 days, as heretofore, is indispensable to voting.

The Article on Education is so amended as to retain all fines, penalties and forfeitures in the hands of the respective county officers, together with the poll tax and such property tax as is collected on that behalf.

Punishments, &c., is so amended as to give the Legislature power to farm out penitentiary convicts on public works, public roads, &c. Intermarriage between whites and I hour in an exposition of railroad corpus, are startling, Article 7 of the Constitution, which prescribes the system of county government, assessment of taxes, election of Magistrates, &c., including the valuation of property, is amended so as to give the General Assembly full power to change the present system of county government, election of Magistrates, &c.

The General Assembly is to meet biennially on the first Wednesday after the first Wednesday succeeding their election.

The 13th article is so amended that no Convention of the people of this State can hereafter be called accept by a two-thirds vote of each House of the General Assembly, such call to be first submitted to the qualified voters of the State for their approval or rejection.

Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed by a three-fifths vote of each House of the General Assembly, and if at the next general election a majority of the votes of the whole State approve the same they shall become a part of the Constitu

An ordinance has passed declaring that no amendment adopted by the Convention shall have the effect of vacating any office or term of office now existing under the Constitution, and filled or held by virtue of any election or appointment.

The per diem of members of the General Assembly was fixed at $4 00, their mileage at 10 cents, and sessions limited to 60 days.

The General Assembly are invested with power to denounce fitting penalties for carrying concealed weapons.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

THIRTY-PIRST DAY. Abridged from the News.]

RALEIGH, Oct. 11

Mr. Bennett, from the Committee on the Judicial Department; Mr. Reid, from the Committee on Revisson, and Mr. Manning, from the Committe on the Judicial Department, submitted reports, all of which were placed on the calendar.

Mr. Albertson moved to suspend the rules and to take up the ordinance defining the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. The motion was adopted and the ordinance passed its several readings.

Mr. Manning, of Chatham, moved to suspend the rules and take up the resolution declaring that the General Assembly shall not pay special tax bonds without first consulting the people at the ballot-box. An acclamation vote was taken and the Chair announced the motion lost.

Mr. Morehead moved to suspend the rules and take up the ordinance reducing the number of State Senators to 25. Lost by a vote of 55 to 56.

Mr. Manning of Chatham, renewod his motion to suspend the rules and take up the resolution in regard to the payment of the special tax bonds. The yeas and nays were called and the motion failed to prevail by the following vote: Years 56; nays 44. Mr. Turner changed his vote to the negative, in order to move a reconsideration.

By Mr. Jarvis, a resolution to adovrn sine die at 6 P. M. to-day. He moved to suspend the rules and take up the resolution for consideration and adoption. The yeas and nays were called on the motion to suspend the rules, and

Mr. Turner moved an amendment that the Conventiou adjourn to mor- feebly done. Yet I endeavored to row at 6 o'clock.

This motion incidentally brought and satisfactorily. about a discussion concerning the special tax bonds, participated in by Messrs. Turner and Clingman.

Mr. Durham moved the previous question, which was adopted. Mr. Turner's amendment was lost

The motion to adjourn at 6 o'clock was carried unanimously.

Mr. Wilcox arose to a question of personal privilege as a member of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, in which he represented that the action of the Convention in regard unwarrontable and an act of injustice to the people of Robeson county, to Messrs. Norment and McNeill and to the people of the State. He asked to be allowed to resign his place on the charged with defalcation. Upon ar-committee. Mr. Withers, also a member, defended the action of the committee. Mr. Manning of Chatham, chairman of the committee, said the committee The Article on Penal Institutions, had been as prompt in the discharge of its duties as it was possible for them to be. arestellish Mr. Turner then took the floor on funds. During his remarks some half dozen Republican members endeavored to reply to some of Mr. Turner's charges, and much confusion prevailed at one time, the Chair finally securing order.

Mr. Wilcox again obtained the floor in regard to the Robeson county contesting case.

Mr. Avery, on a question of personal privilege, in response to Mr. Wilcox, said the majority of the Committee on Privileges and Elections had used every effort to have the Robeson county case investigated, and said that Mr. Wilcox, as a mem. ber of that committee had never in committee meeting made any motion looking to an investigation.

EVENING MISSION. Mr. Young moved a suspension of the rules in order to consider the question of paying the contestant from the county of Surry. Motion with-Mr. Barringer, Rep., asked to read of the Convention, (being a document some 30 or 40 pages in length.) Mr. Jarvis objected to the admission of the protest. It was wrong, grievously wrong, that at the hour of the close of the Convention a protest of any character against anything that has occurred during the session of this Convention should be offered by any one. Every fair-minded man in the Convention must admit that such conduct was totally wanting in fairness, and he was surprised at the conduct of the gentleman from Meckleuburg in doing this thing.

Mr. Barringer moved that the protest be received. Mr. Tourgee moved the previous question. Mr. Jarvis moved to lay the motion of Mr. Barringer upon the table upon which he called the ayes and noes, but before the vote could be announced (which had prevailed by some nine majority), the President announced that the hour of 6 having arrived, he declared the Convention adjourned sine die.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

After the Convention had been declared adjourned, Mr. Manning, of Chatham took the President's stand and called the meeting to order, when Mr. Reid, of Rockingham, said that an adjournment of the Convention having taken place before the offering of a resolution of thanks could be made to the presiding officer of the Convention, he would now offer the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the members of the Convention present are due and are hereby tendered to able, dignified, and impartial manner in which he has presided over the deliberations of the Convention.

Dr. Ransom responded as follows: GENTLEMEN: The time has arrived for our dissolution, we shall soon be scattered to every part of the State to our respective homes, and in all probability many of us will never meet again. Allow me to congratulate you upon the harmony and good feeling which has prevailed since we assembled; your labors, though they have been arduous and laborious, yet you have discharged them with that zeal and energy never before exhibited by any other legislative body; you have faithfully complied with the objects for which your body was called togeiher and have discharged the high duties imposed upon you with honor and credit to yourselves. I sincerely hope the amendments passed by you may meet the approbation of the people and be abundantly fruitful of great good in deand happiness of our citizens, as well as building up living monuments of quired to pay the costs. honor and glory for yourselves more justing than brass. Permit me to return my unfeigned thanks for the resolution you have just passed so complimentary of myself as your presiding officer. I shall ever cherish it in my bosom as a high the rules suspended by a vote of 108 and warm expression of a satisfactory approval of the discharge of my duties, though without experience and discharge them honestly, impartially

It is with no little degree of please ure that I return to this honorable body my fincere gratitude for the assistance, courtesy and respect which has been extended me as your presiding officer.

Ridnapping a Judge.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of by this tribunal yesterday morning:

A young white man was arraigned on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, but the case was dismissed on the amount ($5) being returned to the prosecutor and the defendant paying the costs. Cornelius Kelley, arraigned in two cases on the charge of disorderly conduct, both of which were dismissed on the payment

How We Got Home.

Old Prob's said it would be colder yes, terday, and when we went home in the early morning we found it so. The air was really wintry and the wind so fresh that we could hear the splashing of the waves it drove up against the wharves, when we were a block away. But the cold plagued us but little compared with the darkness. It was as black as Erebus and seven black cats thrown in for measure. We couldn't see three feet ahead of us and the sidewalk was as invisible as the land of dreams is to our waking sight. So we had to "walk by faith" through the shady places Our faith consisted in the belief that our foot would rest upon so.nething, anyhow, whether it was the sidewalk, an "unimproved" hole in the same, a treacherous brick or the bottom of the gutter, and we were determined not to feel particularly disappointed if it was our head which took the next step. There were passages in which we put down our foot in several places before it rested, or make further inquiries. Upon receipt of passed our hand along a brick wall in order the dispatch by Mr. Heide, however, an to ascertain our angle of incidence thereto, or felt inquiringly of trees, or groped our way along the side of abutting piazzas in search of the corner by which we might pass-in fact it was dark.

The street lamps had either not been lighted or most of them were blown out. and it was only in places where there were neither trees nor tall houses that sight could be of much assistance to the wayfarer; but we got home at last, spite of all the advenwhose orders they acted. Magistrate's Court

Tileston Normal School.

Thomas Payne, colored, was arraigned before Justice Gardner yesterday on the charge of assault and battery, and was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

This school, under the charge and super vision of Miss Amy M. Bradley, opened yesterday morning with a full complemen of pupils. We learn that each of the four rooms in the fine, commodious building will seat forty children, and that all were filled, while about thirty children who had proposed to enter had to be turned away. We understand that quite a number of our citizens were present and greeted Miss Bradley, congratulating her upon her reappearance amid the scenes of her past labors

Firemen's Parade. The annual parade of the white fire de partment of this city takes place to day, and we hope they will have a good time for it. The procession will be formed in front of the "Adrian" Engine House, on Fourth, beween Market and Princess streets, the right resting on Dock street, at 3 o'clock, P. M under the direction of the following officers under such auspicious circumstances and with such encouraging indications of future

Chief Marshal-Col. Roger Moore, Assistant Marshals-Henry Ohlandt, Eu gene Maffit, Henry B. Jewett.

The order of procession will be as follows: The Howard Relief Company in front, he Hook and Ladder Company in the centre and the Wilmington S. F. E. Comrany on the left.

Wm. Larkins, colored, was arrested on the charge of stealing a wooden bucket from Abediah Royal. It seems that Royal, who belonged on a flat at the wharf, missed the aforesaid bucket, and upon instituting a search, found it in Wm. Larkins' flat, adjoining his, whereupon he had a warrant issued for the arrest of Larkins.

Wm. Phinney, Jr., was arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the streets and lodged in the Guard House.

Emancipated.

The Mayor gave orders Monday that al the female prisoners connected with the chain gang should be discharged on condition that they firmly promise not to violate the city ordinances again or be guilty of any action in the future requiring their arrest and appeareance before the Court. In accordance with this order the prisoners were summoned to appear in the Marshal's. office yesterday morning, when they were informed of the above arrangement by Captain Fitzgerald, Chief of Police. They readily promised to "be good" forever hereafter, and when told they were free, such a scampering of happy damsels has seldom been seen. The names of the "emancipated" are as follows: Amelia Bradley, Mollie Harriss, Martha Williams, Silla Hill, Charlotte Bryant, Mary Morgan, Caroline Walker, Caroline Frank, Mary E. Lively, Phillis Moore, Jane Hines, Eva Harriss, Mollie Dove, Betty Faison, Hannah Brown. All but one of the above are colored. Annie Johnson, colored, is now the only female prisoner retained.

The Signal Service Line. An instance of the great convenience which the Signal Service telegraph line between this place and Smithville is likely to prove to our business community occurred yesterday. The Norwegian barque O. A. Vinje, Capt. Henricksen, was beating about on the ocean, outside the bar, when she was boarded by Capt, Rosafy, the boarding officer at Smithville, by whom a dispatch was sent to the latter place to be forwarded to Mr. R. E. Heide, Vice Consul for Norway, Denmark and Sweden, en quiring about freights and stating that he would come up to-day without his ship to answer was immediately returned to the dispatch of Capt. Henricksen requesting him to bring his ship up, there being s cargo ready for him. Thus an understanding was arrived at before the ship had come inside of the bar by which the captain could bring his ship up to port without any of the usual uncertainties as to freights or cargo; while, if the reply to his inquiries had been unsatisfactory, he could have continued on his ports in reference to the same matter.

As this will be the first ball of the season and ample preparations have been made to ensure its success, we have no doubt, provided the weather shall prove propitious, that it will be a very pleasant affair. herself in the past, which she seems deher God speed in the good work.

The Military.

The Charleston colored military arrived yesterday morning, but not with as full ranks as was expected, owing, we understand, to the late political excitement in that city, which crept into the ranks of the "Comets" and other companies and disorganized them. Thus only about twentyfive participated in the excursion here, where some two or three hundred were expected. Those who arrived were met at the depot by the colored companies of this city and escorted to their quarters at Giblen Lodge. The target exercises, we learn, will take place at Hilton to-day. The Wilmington companies request that their thanks be returned to Capt. Cazaux for the "big gun" used on the occasion of the reception.
