STATE FAIR.

FOURTH DAY.

[Abridged from the Raleigh News.] Friday was a most lovely day, a decided contrast to the day previous, and the crowd present was still large, being estimated at from four to six thousand.

We can truthfully say that the present fair in almost every respect has never been surpassed by any former one in the State, and we believe has given general satisfaction.

We continue this morning to write up the different departments, commencing with

MECHANIC'S HALL.

In this hall, we find on the north side the grand display of T. H. Briggs & Sons of every variety of Hardware and House Furnishing Goods.

Next we find the magnificent show of Hardware and House Furnishing Goods of Julius Lewis & Co.

This section of the hall closes with an array of thirty-five articles of cabinet making, manufactured by Mr. Schultz, of Salem.

Messrs. Rahm and Hunter, of Richmond, Va., exhibit a handsomely arranged stand of Machinery and Mechanical supplies.

C. A. Hart, of Raleigh, has a fine show of Stoves, Furniture, Ice Cream Freezers. The Spring Bed of J. A. Jones' Patent (another Raleigh man) comes next, and the buggy wheels, axles, spokes of Bachelor of the same place.

J. C. S. Lumsden, of our town, has the largest display of Stoves on the ground. The andirons of W. Adams' Sons form quite an array. They are made here in the city.

J. C. Brewster, of Raleigh, exhibits a superb cooking range. Mr. Harp, of Raleigh, exhibits a superb collection of Carriages, Buggies, &c.

Mr. Bryan, of Jonesboro, exhibits a beautiful phaeton for physicians. K. E. Jones, of Goldsboro, shows a fine collection of buggies and carriages.

There is also here a very fine assortment of wooden ware. The Saddlery and Harness of Mr. Jas. F. A. Lamond made a fine appearance.

W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, exhibited a choice lot of leather, tanned skins of goats, sheep, &c., thoroughly done in a workmanlike manner.

We must not omit the tasteful exhibition of fine crockery and glass ware, on a mammoth scale, made by Law & Co., Raleigh.

We feel that a special notice should be made in these columns of the interesting contributions of the Remington Company to our Fair. One of these, their type writer, attracted a crowd of observers all day.

Local Notes.

—First meteorological report from Smithville received here last night. —The sum of $73 in Court fines was paid into the city treasury yesterday.

—The diphtheria is still prevailing to a considerable extent in this city. —The fall term of the U. S. District Court commences in this city on the 1st of November.

—There are now only twelve prisoners in the chain-gang, all of whom are males but one. —Another white policeman now fills the vacancy occasioned by the discharge of the one alluded to in our last.

—Saucy Newbern would like to know if sister Wilmington has a base ball club she would like to have "waxed." —State Fair closed yesterday. A goodly number of those composing our delegation arrived home on the evening train.

—The Board of Aldermen was to have met yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, but failed to do so for the want of a quorum. —Owing to the absence of the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Wilson, there will be no services at the First Presbyterian Church to-day.

—Pot hunters who net and trap partridges are notified that there is a law against such sport (?), and that it will be enforced. —The Register of Deeds issued 7 marriage licenses during the present week, of which 2 were for white and 5 for colored couples.

—There were six interments in Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery during the past week, of which one was an adult and five were children. —The child's cloak with hood attached, embroidered with silk, made by Mrs. Roger Moore, of this city, took the premium at the State Fair.

—The aggregate of fines in the City Court yesterday morning footed up the handsome little sum of $222.25, but it is probable nearly all of those sentenced will work the amount of their fines out on the streets. —The name of G. Z. French, Esq., of Pender county, was unintentionally omitted from the Committee of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, in attendance at the State Fair, as given in our Raleigh letter in our last issue.

—During the prevalence of the rain which fell early yesterday morning there was a decided upward tendency in the temperature, which was almost immediately afterwards followed by an decided change in the opposite direction. —In Oakdale Cemetery there were five interments during the week closing yesterday, of which one was an adult (aged 93 years) and four were children. Of these, three died with diphtheria, one of fever, and one of a disease not mentioned.

—It was the steamer Waccamaw, not the Nye, which towed the three Norwegian vessels up the river Thursday. It is not Nye for reporters to be guilty of such mistakes, but they are liable to the falling so incident to human nature sometimes. —We are requested to state that the city tax list will positively be advertised Tuesday, and Monday will therefore be the last "day of grace." All who pay up before Monday night will save costs and keep their names out of the papers besides.

—A colored youth by the name of Lewis Green, who was recently convicted in the City Court of disorderly conduct and required to pay a fine of $10 and costs, was released yesterday on the payment by his mother of $6.00. He had passed the interval in the chain-gang. —Wilmington seems to have been the centre of local atmospheric conditions for the past few days considerably at variance with the prognostications from Washington. That these conditions were local here seems to be proved by the fact that the generalizations for the South Atlantic States "proved correct for all ports heard from to the north and south of us."

—And now the Rads' faces are covered with smiles, from their glistering fingers away past the canines, blue eyes and molars even to the angle of their "jaw-bones which is under the ear." As a good Methodist brother used to remark to "fugacious sinners, so say we: Go on, gentlemen, with your skinning! If you don't believe there's any hereafter.

Two Jolly Tars on the Rampage.

Two seamen belonging on the schooner Walton were setting rather disorderly in a bar-room on Market street Friday night, when officers Nixon and Davis were called upon to quiet them. They persuaded them to be orderly and finally got them into the street, where they soon became more boisterous than ever, cursing and swearing at a terrible rate and finally shouting so as to disturb the citizens, the most of whom at that hour were in their beds. The officers expostulated with them in vain, and finally took them under arrest. They then launched a volley of abuse and threats at their captors and ended by resisting them, one of the prisoners, Frank Brown, making an effort to strike policeman Nixon with his fist, who avoided the blow and returned the compliment by striking Brown over the head with his club, cutting it slightly. Thus matters went on until the arrival of the party at the Guard House, when the two obnoxious tars were locked up. They were evidently laboring under the effects of too much "benzine," and that they paid dear for the privilege can be seen by reference to the proceedings of the Mayor's Court in this issue.

Superior Court.

The Superior Court for this county, His Honor Judge A. A. McKoy presiding, will convene in this city to-morrow and be in session two weeks. The following comprises the list of prisoners in jail for trial: Charles G. Ston, larceny; Scipio Gillespie, larceny; Josephine Hall, larceny; Winslow Howard, horsebreaking, and larceny; Martha Hill, perjury; Jim Hill, larceny; Ben Jones, larceny; John Lyles, white, larceny and peace warrant; Serena Marshall, perjury; Jesse Nicholson, larceny; Jane Outlaw, larceny; Rena Pierson, larceny; George Poisson, larceny; Antonio Swain, larceny; U. Smith, larceny; Henry Taylor, larceny; John Taylor, larceny; John Welch, white, larceny. Total 18.

The criminal docket, we are informed, is pretty full, there being one hundred and ten cases to commence with, while about fifty cases will probably be returned by the various magistrates. The impression prevails that the civil docket will not be touched this term, but it is expected that a special term for the trial of civil cases will be ordered by the Governor, to commence early in December. There is a full docket of civil cases awaiting trial.

Shabby of Vegetables.

A few nights ago the butcher shop and vegetable stand of Gray & Williams, on N. 1st street, between Fourth and Fifth, was broken into by some thief and quite a lot of vegetables taken. The money drawer was also ransacked, but fortunately no money had been left in it. Entrance was effected by breaking the lock of the front door. We suppose there are no police stationed in that part of the city. If so, it is strange that the front door of an establishment could be broken open without the action being detected.

Hard Pushed.

A colored man by the name of Edward Debernier, while on his way home at a late hour Thursday night found a rocking-chair sitting in the middle of the street, where it had no doubt been dropped by some thief who had become hard pushed while committing his depredations.

—The Commissioners of the W. N. C. R. R., at their late meeting, adjourned to meet at Salisbury on Tuesday, the 19th inst.

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of by this tribunal yesterday morning: Jake Hinton, arraigned on the charge of suspicious and disorderly conduct, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $20 or work for thirty days on the streets. This defendant, it will be remembered, was with his comrade Charley Owens, convicted of an attempted swindle, on the 9th inst., and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets. They made choice of the latter alternative, but on the 14th Hinton was discharged from the chain-gang, on recommendation of the city physician, he being apparently in a bad state of health, with the understanding that he pay a certain amount into the City Treasury on the 2nd of this month. Friday night, however, he was discovered at a late hour concealed in a door-way, by Officer E. Duhal, who immediately arrested him on suspicion. The orders of the Mayor now are that he be made to work out his entire term, in both cases, on the streets.

William Smith, seaman, charged with disorderly conduct, was ordered to pay a fine of $30 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets.

Frank Brown, seaman, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $20 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets.

William Smith, charged with cursing police officers Davis and Nixon while in the discharge of their duty, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets.

Francis Brown, charged with the same offense as above, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets.

William Smith, charged with resisting police officer Davis was found guilty, but judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

Frank Brown, charged with resisting police officer Nixon, was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $50 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets.

A white man, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the streets, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or work for twenty days on the streets.

Since writing the above, Brown and Smith have been released on the payment of $55 between them, with the admonition to "go and sin no more."

Wilmington Retail Market.

The following prices ruled yesterday: Apples, (dried) 12 1/2 cents per pound; dried peaches 25c per pound; walnuts, 25 cents per pound; pickles, 20 cents per dozen; lard, 18 cents per pound; butter, $20.40 cents per pound; cheese, 25 cents per pound; grown fowls 75c to 80c a pair; geese $1.50 per pair; beef 10c to 16c per pound; beef, (corned) 12 1/2 to 15c per pound; veal, 12 1/2 to 16c per pound; mutton, 12 1/2 to 16c per pound; ham, 18 to 20c per pound; shoulders, 12 1/2 to 14 cents per pound; tripe, 30c per lb.; clams, 25 cents a peck; open clams, 20 to 25 cents a quart; soup bunch, 5 cts.; eggs, 22 to 25 cents a doz; sturgeon, 25 cts. a chunk (5 lbs); potatoes, new Irish, 40c a peck; new sweet 25 cents a peck; fish—trout 15c; turkeys, 10c to 12c per pound; chickens, 10c to 12c per pound; onions, 50 cents a bush; cabbages 10 to 25 cents a head; Bologna 20 cents a pound; wild ducks 50 to 75 cents a pair; radishes, parsley, 5 cents a bunch; onions, 50 cents a peck; carrots, 5 cents a pound; rice, 12 1/2 cts a quart; snap beans 20c a peck; squashes, 20 cents a doz; cucumbers, 10 to 15 cts a doz; green corn 20c a doz; tomatoes 10c a quart; okra, 5 cents a dozen; watermelons, 15c to 20c; shrimps 20c a quart; crabs 15c dozen; grapes 20c per peck; butter beans 20c per quart; green field peas 10c per quart; apples 30 to 60c per peck; liver pudding, 20 cents to 30c; blood pudding, 25 cents to 30c.

The Fair and the Band Match.

We see by the Newbern N. C. Shell that the Silver Cornet Band of that city has been invited by a Committee appointed by the Cape Fear Agricultural Association to be present at our approaching Fair and participate in a band match, the first prize being an E Flat Silver Cornet, and we judge by the comments of our cotemporary that the Newbern band is not satisfied with the arrangements made for the occasion. The N. C. Shell is satisfied, however, that if the first prize was of sufficient value, and of a nature by which the expenses of the band could be paid, while in Wilmington, and the judges were selected from a disinterested source, the band would attend.

The Smithville Mine.

The telegraph just completed to Smithville, we suppose it is generally understood, has been constructed under the act of Congress solely for the use of the "Division of Commerce and Reports for the Benefit of Telegraphs and Reports for the Benefit of Commerce and Agriculture," of the War Department. Under the acts governing the Signal Service the paid messages of citizens are not now allowed to be sent over the line. Some private messages have been forwarded, through the good offices of the Observers here and at Smithville, and, as we have previously intimated, have been of important service in directing the movements of shipping at the mouth of the river, but these were forwarded, as our understanding of the case is, entirely as a matter of personal favor, or a general desire on the part of the officers to advance the interests of commerce in such ways as are not positively prohibited. It seems very desirable, however, that the general public should be afforded the privilege of sending messages over this line at some regular rate of compensation. This is not only demanded by the business interests of the port, but, we believe, also favored by the Observers in charge of the respective offices. We think a petition should be prepared at once, to be presented to Congress when it assembles, asking that an exception to the general operation of the law be created in our favor, on the ground that the line is one which it would not pay to build and operate as a private business enterprise—though of great importance to the commercial interests of the port—and that we must therefore be without private telegraphic communication or depend upon the Government to furnish it for years to come. We suggest that our merchants take the matter actively in hand and believe Congress will see the justice of their request.

Magistrates' Court.

A colored man by the name of Nichols was arraigned before Justice Cassidy yesterday, charged with attempting to commit rape on the person of a colored woman by the name of Alice Beatty. The evidence was not sufficient to sustain the charge and the prosecutor was ordered to pay the costs, upon failing to comply with which arrangement she (Alice Beatty) was committed to jail.

A Seaman by the name of John Edwards was arraigned on the charge of refusing to discharge his duty on his vessel, the Schr. Francis Satterly, upon which he was ordered into the custody of the Sheriff to be confined in jail, subject to the requisition of his captain.

Before Justice Gardner was arraigned John Green and John Green, Jr., both colored, charged with abusing and killing stock for entering an enclosure not provided with a lawful fence. The defendants were ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 each for their appearance at the term of the Superior Court for this county commencing to-morrow.

A Desperate Rencontre.

Quite a desperate conflict, we learn, took place lately at a point on the line between Columbus and Bladen counties.

It appears that a feud had long existed between a family of whites by the name of Buie and a family of malattoes in the same neighborhood by the name of Young. On the day in question a rencontre took place between some of the parties, in which all the male members of each family finally became engaged, including the elder Buie and his two sons on the one side, and Jim Young, his son, Isaac Young, and an Indian half-breed by the name of Wilson, on the other side. During the fight, in which a gun and a hatchet figured among the weapons, the elder Buie received a severe gun-shot wound in the side of one of his legs, and Jim Young got a severe blow from the hatchet. The wound of Mr. Buie is said to be a very serious one, and may result in the loss of his leg, if nothing worse.

Our Fair.

We have been informed that Mr. T. A. Granger, of Wayne county, intends visiting our Fair and exhibiting his specimens of farm products, which elicited so much attention and praise at the State Fair. At that Fair Mr. Granger was the second largest contributor, and Mr. James W. Norwood, of Orange county, of whose expected presence here we have already been assured, who exhibited cattle, blooded horses and field products, was the largest. This is a very encouraging indication of the success of our approaching Fair, which we have reason to hope, will be the best we have ever had.

We also learn that the mammoth hog which was exhibited at Raleigh—measuring 6 feet 8 inches in girth and 3 feet 7 inches in height and which turns the scale at 1,600 pounds will be here. Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co. will send a large lot of their farming implements, &c. There will be a number of agricultural and other steam boilers and engines, shingle machines, horse-rakes, &c., &c., and a Goldsboro house will send a lot of carriages and buggies.

Market Report.

The following is the report of the Clerk of the Market for the week ending Oct. 16th, 1875:

No. of Carts in Market. 200
Beef Slaughtered. 65
Pork. 49
Sheep. 49
Calves. 21
Hogs. 47
Dress. 3

Grain of the Month.

The following was the range of the thermometer at the Signal Bureau, in this city, yesterday:

7 A. M., 57; 12 M., 69; 2 P. M., 69; 4:30 P. M., 57; 9 P. M., 49; 11 P. M., 46.

Attempt at Housebreaking.

On Friday evening, during the absence of the family, two white men went to the residence of Mr. Sol Bear, on Red Cross, near Front street, and attempted to effect an entrance by the front door. While thus engaged, a plucky white woman employed in the house went to a window and called for the police. The scoundrels immediately approached the window and ordered her to desist and to go and open the door, denouncing all sorts of penalties against her in case of refusal and enforcing their words with the most frightful oaths. The woman but called the louder for the police and the neighbors. The men continued to curse and demand admittance for some little time and then suddenly made off. Just as they had disappeared, Mr. Bear and his lady reached home, and it is possible that it was their approach which had the effect of raising the siege. This house has been visited three times by thieves within two or three months past, to our knowledge—once successfully—and who can say how many times more?

Republicans Rejoicing.

The Republicans fired 23 guns at the intersection of Third and Princess streets, yesterday afternoon, in honor of the victory in Ohio. The Court House was also decorated with flags. It is one of the wise dispensations of Providence that no heart is ever so utterly overcome by adverse fortune but that it can sometimes be made glad. So let the Reps. rejoice and "make the welkin ring" whenever they have an opportunity of doing so, be the occasion ever so trifling.

The earthquake in the West Indies reported to us from the Signal Office here, Friday night, we judge to be the same which reached San Francisco at 6 P. M., seventeen hours later, as the vibrations or waves are reported as moving from east to west.

We stated yesterday that Rev. J. T. Gibbs would repeat, this morning, by request, at Fifth Street M. E. Church, his sermon "On the Immortality of the Soul."

Let any who wish to hear it should forget the fact, we repeat it here.

CITY ITEMS.

Late Passes—To Harris' News Depot, West-side Front Street, was included for copies of the New York Ledger, Chicago Corner and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper for the current week. The stand will remain open until 11 o'clock this morning.

Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or common cold in its first stage. That which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon proves upon the lungs. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup affords instant relief. Price, 25 cents.
