OUTLINES. The principal owner of the Virginia City mines has just been through them, and he says that things are better than were reported.

prevents the direful effects of the State law upon the business public; for, if the latter were to be executed literally, the damage done to trade would be almost incalculable.

A Soprano's Curious Justification for a Breach of Contract. Mr. Neuenendorff's leading soprano, Miss Pappenheim, published the following curious letter in the Hamburg Fremdenblatt, just before sailing for America.

The Presidency. [Philadelphia Star.] Since the Ohio election a very labored effort has been made by the leading Democratic and independent papers to create the impression that Gov. Tilden is the coming man for the Presidential candidacy.

Experience has almost universally demonstrated that the men pressed for the Presidency a year in advance of the nomination rarely attain their object.

The moves upon the Presidential chess-board have been slightly modified by the Ohio election. It has done nothing for those men who have been counting upon it to advance their prospects.

Costly Nonsense at Funerals. [N. Y. Sun.] On Sunday last a member of a National Temperance Society was buried at Greenwood. The hearse was followed by eighty-three carriages, some filled and others but partly filled.

Important to National Banks. Speaking of the decision to which we referred yesterday, the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

It has always been held by the Supreme Court of the United States that the Constitution is the supreme law of the land, and that decisions made at common law, and under the organic laws of the States, are subordinate thereto.

EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY FOR THE RELIEF OF THE AFFLICTED.—THE SURGEON OF THE National Surgical Institute, located at Indianapolis, Indiana, has finally yielded to the many urgent appeals to visit the South. Three or more of the surgeons will be at the Wilmington Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th, 1875. They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and consistent assistants; and workmen to change, fit, and make such apparatus as may be required. They will make especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine, and Limbs, Diseases of the Joints, Diseases of the Ear, Nose, Throat, Private Diseases, Etc., etc., on account of the great expense attending such a trip, they will not make another; therefore, all who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institute, without the long journey to Indianapolis, must do so at this time. No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say that the Institute is entirely non-sectarian, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early. Send to the Institute for circular. D. Oct 21 23 25 27 29 31 Nov 2 3 4 5 Oct 15 22 29
