ATHLETIC CLUB GROUNDS.

of Strength, Fencing, &c.-Everybody Delighted-The Affair a Grand Success, &e.

Thursday, the 25th inst., will long be remembered in connection with an important epoch in the annals of our city which it inaugurated. This was the grand opening of the St. George and St. Andrew's Athletic Club grounds in this city, in the neighborhood of Oakdale Cemetery. The grounds have been elegantly laid out, though not yet completed, and comprise all the essentials for the various sports, amusements and exercises which are usually enacted at similar places of resort, including an excellent rifle range, racing track, cricketing grounds, &c. The crowd on the grounds during the day, though not so large as we had expected to see, was yet very respectable both in numbers and character. The flag-raising, which was to have taken place at 10 A. M., was dispensed with for the reason that the flag was not received in

THE RIFLE MATCH.

As the hour of 10:30 A. M. appreached the preliminaries of the lifle match were commenced, consisting of the designation of the gentlemen to act as Judges, the drawing for position on the list, and the number of targets to be fired at, &c. The targets were two in number, were of iron, and placed in proper positions on the bulkhead, which is of proper dimensions as to height and width to afford ample protection from the possibility of accident. The range was two hundred yards and the firing was from a mound erected for the purpose a little northeast of the enclosure. The Judges, Messrs. Donald McRae, Joseph Price and others, were stationed just to the left of the targets and were protected by an Mr. G. W. Bailey ten or twelve yards in embankment from accident from any wild | their wake. For the first round the gentleshooting on the part of contestants or other- | men kept their positions, but soon Messrs. wise. They were also provided with the Hill and Hohenstein commenced to flag and signal flags usual on such occasions. The | finally dropped out of the race, leaving Mr. rule was for the contestants to fire three rounds each and repeat. The result was as

There being a tie between Messrs. Junius Davis and L. S. F. Brown, both of whom scored 201, the Judges decided that these two gentlemen should have three shots more each, which resulted as follows:

Davis, 4, 4, 3-11. Brown, 4, 4, 6-14. Mr. Brown was therefore decided the victor and was awarded the prize, which was one of Evans' 34-shooting rifles. During the interval which elapsed beween the rifle contest and the one mile walking match several impromptu foot races for boys were contested by quite a number of urchins, and were a source of pleasure to many who witnessed them.

ONE MILE WALKING MATCH.

There were three entries for this match and at the command the contestants started out manfully. Mr. W. Fyfe took the lead, followed by Mr. R. W. Price, with Mr. H. G. Smallbones bringing up the rear. During the first round there was but very little difference in the positions of the gentlemen, but on the second round Mr. Smallbones passed Mr. Price and rapidly closed up the gap between Mr. Fyfe and himself. Mr. Price gave up the match on the second round. In passing the judges on the second round Mr. Smallbones and Mr. Fyfe were abreast, and both gentlemen held their positions until the fifth round, when, by a kind of fox trot of two or three steps, Mr. Smallbones came in ahead of his competitor by about two feet. The judges awarded the prize, a gold-headed cane, to Mr. Fyfe, because of the break in Mr. Smallbones' gait, an error which the latter gentleman no doubt committed unconsciously, however, in the intense excitement of the moment.

THE ONE HUNDRED YARDS RUNNING RACE was well contested by eight gentlemen, and was won by Mr. Richard Hartsfield. The prize offered for this race was a purse

THE SACK RACE was one of the attractive features of the day, and was a sourch of great merriment both to participants and spectators. The contestants were Messrs. J. Oliphant, T. E. Sprunt, W. Fyfe, W. Roddick, Jas. Corbett and W. P. Toomer. At the start several of the contestants, who had been practicing for this race, lost their equilibrium, which placed them hors de combat, and the prize, a bull calf, was awarded to Mr. Oliphant, he having out-strided his competitors.

THE HURDLE RACE was one of the most difficult feats to succeessfully perform of the entire programme. The distance to be run was one-quarter of a mile, with four hurdles to be cleared, which were one hundred yards spart. The competitors in this race were Messrs. T. E. Sprunt, J. Corbett, L. Greenbaum, W. Roddick, H. Bauman, T. J. Bagley and A. Hohenstein. Mr. Sprunt took the lead, clearing all but the last hurdle, and was followed by Mr. Bagley, who knocked the the run over. In the second race Mr.

hurdles, and was awarded a $10 cup, which was the prize offered by the association. In the second race the time was quicker and jumping much better, all the competitors clearing the first two hurdles.

THE RUNNING LONG JUMP next claimed the attention of the visitors and was warmly contested by Messrs. DuBrutz Cutlar, W. Roddick, R. B. Hartsfield and T. J. Bagley. After each disputant had taken his prescribed number of trials, the prize was awarded Mr. R. B. Hartsfield, he having jumped fifteen feet and two inches.

THE RUNNING HIGH JUMP. There was a great deal of interest centered upon the running high jumping. The prize, a pair of cricketing boots, was carried off by Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar, who cleared four feet six inches.

QUARTER MILE RUNNING RACE. All the gentlemen, with the exception of Mr. L. S.F. Brown who had entered for this race, withdrew, and Mr. Brown was prevailed upon to run against time, making a quarter of a mile in one minute and five seconds, which is considered remarkably fine time. He was awarded a ten dollar

THE THREE LEGGED RACE, was a very amusing feature of the day's performances and was something entirely novel to many of our citizens. Two persors stand side by side, the legs tangent are bound together above and below the knee, making the two legs as one. Messrs. Gleaves and Roddick, Fyfe and Smallbones, and Sprint and Oliphant were the competitors for the prize, a sucking pig. His pigship was borne off by Messrs. Sprunt and Oliphant, they having run the course, one hundred yards, in less time than their competi-

THE ONE MILE RUNNING RACE, was next announced. The gentlemen entered were quickly on the track and at the word "go" Mr. W. E. Hill took the lead, followed closely by Mr. Hohenstein, with Bailey to run the remainder of the course without competition, though he had closed up the gap between Mr. Hill and himself before his competitors gave up the race. The time made by Mr. Bailey was five minutes and ten seconds. His steady gait and regular strides received commendation from the spectators and the race proved him to be of "good wind and sound bottom." The prize offered for this race was a Smith & Wesson ivory handled, nickleplated pistol.

STANDING HIGH LEAP. If any one portion of the day's festivities claim more attention than the others, we are of the conviction that the standing high leaping does. There were three entries. but soon one of the competitors dropped out, leaving the high leap to be contested for by Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar and Mr. L. Greenbaum. After several trials Mr. Cutlar was declared the victor and was presented with a pair of Indian clubs.

THE WHEELBARROW RACE was amusing. Those entered for this race were blindfolded, and at the command turned themselves and barrows around and then propelled them in the direction they supposed was a certain flag which was the objective point. In this race Mr. Oliphant was successful from the fact that some of the contestants were interfered with by spectators. However, the judges decided to have the race over, and in the second contest Mr. Corbett won the prize, a wheel-barrow and five dollars. THROWING HEAVY HAMMER. The prize offered for this feat was won by Mr. R. G. Ross, he having thrown an eighteen pound hammer fifty-two feet three

EGG AND LADLE RACE.

Seven disputants entered for this race, but before the course was half run all save two gave up the race, in consequence of losing their eggs. Mr. Bailey, the victor of the mile running race, who advanced triumphantly to the judges, throwing his egg high in the air, was pronounced the victor and winner of the silver-plated ladle, which was the prize offered. FENCING.

The trial of skill at fencing between Messrs. Maffitt and Gleaves and Maffitt and Ross was a very pleasing portion of the festivities. For this contest, however, there were no judges nor was any prize offered. CRICKET.

A scrub game of cricket was played by members of the association and was by no means the least entertaining feature of the

QUARTER-MILE FOOT RACET.

The day's sport closed with foot-races for boys of all ages. In these, remarkably good time was made and the purses of $2 50 each borne off by Master McEvoy of the larger and Master "Bud" Lippitt of the smaller boys, respectively.

Messrs. T. H. Smith and F. W. Foster were instrumental in getting up during the day a number of purses for impromptu races and amusements for the boys, which were enjoyed equally well by the elders.

In concluding our impertect sketch of the exercises of the day we must say that we have never witnessed an occasion of more real enjoyment. Everybody seemed to be interested and amused the highest extent, and as there was a continued round of entertainment, one event rapidly succeeding another, from half past 10 o'clock until the darkness of night was actually closing around the scene, there was no mains will be interred—the funeral sermon hurdles down. the occasion, which will no doubt long be cherished by them as among the most pleasant memories of their lives. To the Chief Marshal, Mr. Berry Gleaves, who was ably and earnestly seconded in his efforts by his Assistants, was due the perfect order and system which was maintained and which added so much to the pleasure experienced by those in attendance, as well as to the brilliant success which crowned the affair and placed it upon record as one of the really bright and sparkling events in the history of our "city

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Collins, both accom plished caterers, had charge of the refresh ment department, and ladies and gentlemen were supplied with anything their appetites happened to crave, from an excellent oyster stew to a sandwich.

An important feature was the absence of intoxicating liquors on the grounds, which had been strictly prohibited by those hav ing the matter in charge.

And here we close our report of the grand opening" with the expression of the hope, in which we know everybody present yesterday will heartily join, that many repetitions of the enjoyable sports and innecent, healthy amusements then and there enacted may be in store for us in the not distant future.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Services in the Churches.

We can give only a brief summary of the services on Thanksgiving Day in our churches. At St. James (Episcopal) the decorations were not merely suitable to the day, but were superb in taste and presented a thanksgiving show of unequalled beauty and opulence. The first thing to strike the notice was the arch over the rear of the altar which contained in illuminated text and the fulness thereof." On the altar was a handsome bouquet, consisting of fruits and flowers. A pyramid of choice fruits and products of the field rose up from the front. These included sheaves of rice and wheat and many elegant bunches of grapes and other fruits of the vineyard and orchard. The decorations at the foot of the pulpit were particularly fine. Prominent among these were full ears of yellow corn. The sermon of Rev. Dr. Watson, the rector, was spoken of as a masterpiece. St. Johns (Episcopal) was ornamented in exquisite taste. Above the arch over the east window was this text: "Lift up your hearts." Under this arch was the responsive inscription: "We lift them up unto the Lord." The altar, lecturn, pulpit and font were all decked with fruits of the soil. In-both St. John's and St. James' the products displayed are to be sold for the benefit of the poor of the respective par-

Rev. Mr. Ambler discoursed at St. Paul's (Episcopal) on the benefits and mercies we enjoy, among which was enumerated constitutional government.

At night in the Lecture Room of the First Presbyterian Church Rev. Dr. Wilson treated the theme of "Heavenly Thanks giving," holding up to the Church on earth the glorious example of the selfless and perfect worship of the saints. It was an off-hand discourse of fine pictorial power.

A letter was received by City Marshal Price, yesterday, from George W. Scott, Dames' Quarter, Somerset co., Md., mak ing inquiries about the Schr. Sarah Louisa, of which we presume he was captain, which he says he sent to Washington, D. C., to land a cargo of coal, with the understanding that she was to call for him at Dames Quarter, which appears to have been on the route between Washington and the Chesapeake Bay. The vessel left Washington on Monday, the 25th of October, since which time he has heard nothing from her, and he is of the opinion that the mate, a man by the name of Burgman, has been foully dealt with and the vessel taken possession of by the crew, especially as there was a stranger on board which had but lately been shipped at Philadelphia. He gives a description of the vessel, the mate and crew.

Gaylord's Minstrels. We are glad to learn that the cause of the failure of this troupe to fill its engagement at the Opera House, Wednesday night, was not the suspension first reported, but the sudden illness of Mr. Gaylord in Newbern. The troupe performed twice there, and the Times says it is as good a minstrel troupe as has appeared in that town. Particular praise is accorded to the end men, who were loudly encored, and the audience is said to have gone half crazy over their comicalities. This fully sustains the favorable opinions expressed by the Virginia press.

Mr. Gaylord is rapidly recovering and the troupe is now advertised to fill its engagement in this city on Tuesday evening, 30th Roosts Robbed.

Dwellers in a house on Chesnut street, near Seventh, awoke on Thursday morning to the painful consciousness that their pros pects for a good Thanksgiving dinner had been blighted. Their chickens and turkeys had been bagged and carried off during the night, the thief having drawn the staple to which the lock on the hen-house had been secured. When the loss was mentioned in uals expressed their ability to sympathise with the afflicted, as their own roosts had been robbed the same night.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Holmans-Lecoq's Last Opera. The Holman Sisters in "Girofle-Girofla" were greeted by a large audience at the Opera House, last night. There are some points in the plot which suggest a comparison between the average French novel and the higher and more refined works of fiction, However, it is with the actors we propose to deal.

Miss Sallie, in the double character she most admirably presented, is graceful, piquant, charming. Her acting we consider superior to her singing, although some of her notes are very sweet and clear. Her duets with Messrs. Brandish and Ryse were exquisite. These gentlemen possess superior voices that have been evidently well cultivated. Miss Julia makes a good Pa quita, but does not sing as well as her sis ter. The timid Don and his shrew of a wife rendered their parts very creditably, and the variety of adroit excuses he makes to the blood-thirsty Moor entitle him to more respect from the august Aurora. We could but notice and admire the per formance of the lady who presided at the piano. Her touch is clear and silvery, and her expression very fine.

Altogether we were well pleased with the Holmans. Those who attend the matinee and evening entertainment offered by this troupe will enjoy themselves and hear some excellent music. Some of the melodies in "La Fille de Madame Angot" are delightfully introduced and are very pleas-

We are glad to know that the poor people cared for by the Ladies' Benevolent Association are receiving substantial remembrances, and that the subscriptions received during the past few days suffice to clear Grace Austin, colored, charged with off the debts of the Association and leave a small balance in bank ready for emergencies. The collection at the joint Thanksgiving services of the several denominations assembled at the First Baptist Church footed up $23 99 and the contents of the mite-boxes left at Dr. Harriss', J. C. Munds' and Green & Flanner's drug stores, and costs or work for thirty days on the together with the one at the pavillion at the Athletic Club Grounds, amount to $24 99 -a total of $49 00 as far as heard from. A number of the boxes are yet to be reported and it is hoped that private contributions will swell the receipts, during the next few days, to an amount sufficient to give the ladies fair encouragement at the commencement of their winter's work. Mr. Wilkinson, of Bladen county, was in town yesterday, and made an arrangement with Col. Fremont by which the three or next week.
