OUTLINES.

National Rifle Association of Great Britain will shoot with the N. Y. Association a match with small bores, centennial year. ___ Jno. E. Grant convicted at New York of publishing and mailing obscene sheet. - New York markets: Cotton, 181@13 7-16: gold, 121@13; spirits turpentine, 371; rosin $1 65@$1 75. - The committee appointed to investigate Third Auditor Rutherford and his clerks report culpable negligence and he and contractor Broad agreed to tender their resignations. -Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, says his name will be presented by his State in the National Democratic Convention for Vice President. City Treasurer of Buffalo decamped with a quarter of a million. __ Alabama Legislative Committee report condemning Senator Spencer for briberies and other grave corruptions.

More About the Charlotte Riot. The Charlotte Observer concludes a long and judicial-spirited account of the late trouble in that city thus:

Though the result of the investigation was not such as to fix the fatal shooting upon any one in particular enough was adduced to warrant the arrest of Green McAulay, Robert J. Smith and Thos. Wilson, white, and Richard Johnson and Jim McMatthews, colored, Smith and Johnson were committed to jail; the others gave bond for their appearance. Smith is a fellow who made his first appearance in the city on Friday, and the impression prevails very generally that he is responsible in a large degree for the riot. He it was who, in the commencement of the trouble between Wilson and the negroes, sided with the latter and urged them on, telling them that he was a Northern man, that he had fought for them once and would do so again, that he believed in fair play and would stand hots so few took effect. This shows that the whites were either very much excited or else they did not shoot to kill; the latter explanation is the more probable. Some of the balls lodged in the third story of the Central Hotel and some passed through the windows of the third story or Brem, Brown & Co.'s hardware store.

The riot has been very much exaggerated in places distant from Charlotte, and hence it is all important that an accurate account be given of its origin and extent. This, we think, is done above.

The Observer had stated that it originated in a drunken brawl between some white and black men and had no connection with politics.

Spirits Turpentine

- The gin house of Mr. John Murphey, of Snow Hill, was burned last

- A dead negro baby with its neck broken was found wrapped in a rag in front of a disreputable house in Goldsboro Tuesday morning. - The new Masonic hall at Raleigh was dedicated on Monday evening. F. H. Busbee, Esq., delivered the address, which is spoken of by the Raleigh papers in terms of high praise.

- The Manning Brothers, of the Weldon News, have bought a two-thirds interest in the Danville Daily News, and they will assume charge of that paper to-morrow. Mr. W. T. Manning will be business manager. Danville presents a broad field for these enteprising brothers.

- A negro man named Jim Rice has been lodged in Wake jail for killing, on Monday, another negro not known, on the premises of Mr. G. W. Atkinson, near Apex. The deceased had stoten $5 from a blind negro, and being pursued by Rice refused to halt, when the latter shot him down, killing him. Rice surrendered to the authoroties.

- Raleigh Sentinel of Wednesday: Information was received at the executive office to day of the arrest, at Warrensburg, Missouri, of Lewis Ingram, who is charged with having committed murder in Buncombe county in 1870, and for whom a reward of $200 is offered by this State. He is now in jail at that place awaiting a requisition from the Governor.

Cassidey. On the way to the jail John

Pattison succeeded in effecting his escape, but the other three were locked up, where they will remain until called for by Capt. Penton.

Who Is He?

A mysterious stranger has been going the rounds of the city for several days past, and it seems to be the general impression of those who have seen and conversed with him that he is an escaped lunatic, and a man, too, who has at one time been possessed of fine intellectual attainments.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XVII.--NO. 83.

Local Dots. - A regular British fog prevailed in this latitude last night. - Superior Court adjourned yesterday to meet again on Saturday. - The revenue cutter Colfax arived here yesterday from a short cruise. - Momentous query-who shall have those brass earrings, to be given as prize by the Athletics?

- We look for a crop of colds and ore throats as a result of imprudent exposure to this damp night air.

- New Year's Day having been declared a bank holiday, the merchants generally will probably tollow suit. - The masqued, ball under the direction of Mr. Jas. M. Brown will come off at the City Hall to-night at 81 o'clock.

- Mr. Geo. W. Dutcher, a celebrated temperance orator, is to lecture on his favorite theme in this city on Sunday, the 16th inst.

- The officers of the various banks have given notice that they will observe tomorrow, the 1st day of January, as a holi-

- The present mild weather has brought up heavy fogs from the ocean which cause some annoyance to shipping in port as well as outside.

- The city authorities will be petitioned for a street lamp on the dark corner of Second and Princess. Pray also that it be kept lighted and glazed!

-- The public generally are invited and solicited to show their sympathy with the cause of temperance by attending the mass meeting at Fifth Street M. E. Church on Monday night.

- A burglarious attempt was made upon the residence of Mr. P. Heinsberger Wednesday night, but the thief was frightened off with only twenty-five cents in silver, taken from the pocket-book of a servant, as his booty.

It is strange that among so many the white public schools, reports to Mr. A. ment, by Carrie Price; pin-cushion (double), H. Morris, Chairman of the township by Louisa Franklin; fancy sack, by Jennie School Committee, that the average daily attendance during the past quarter has been, at the Hemenway 126 and at the Union school 138 pupils. Under the new management the scholastic year has thus far been marked by advancement of the pupils that is very satisfactory to both leachers and parents.

We learn that Mr. F. W. Foster was presented by the Apollo Band with a handsome silver salver Wednesday night. The ceremony took place in the private parlor over the National Saloon, Mr. H. M. Bowden, President of the Apollo Band, presenting the articles in a very neat and appropriate speech, to which Mr. Foster responded in his peculiar vein.

Jailed for Contempt.

Mary Harriss, white, was sent to jail Wednesday evening for twenty days for being guilty of contempt of Justice Cassidey's Court. She remained in the Sheriff's office for some considerable time, in charge of Deputy Morris, and proved a fit subject for that official's most earnest efforts in the cause of reform, particularly as relating to temperance and morality generally. She said she wanted to go to jail, for she hadn't eaten anything for three days and had not a "square meal" for a week.

S. VanAmringe, Esq., acting as Special Coroner for the occasion, held an inquest yesterday afternoon over the body of Sarah Ann Graham, the colored child alluded to in our last as having been burned to death at Quince's Mill, near this city. The jury, composed of C. H. Strode, foreman; William White, Lantern Perkins, Henry Wilkins, Lewis Miller, James West, Thomas Hooper, J. A. Ashe, Washington Howard, Henry Graham, Sampson Haywood and J. W. Williams, returned a verdict that the child came to its death from leaving it with an irresponsible party.

U. S. Commissioner's Court.

Holloway Willis, colored, charged with passing counterfeit money, on the complaint of a colored woman by the name of Jane Outlaw, had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner J. J. Cassidey, yesterday, who, not deeming the evidence sufficient to convict, dismissed the case at the cost of the prosecutor. Col. W. S. Devane appeared for the de-

Vessels Spoken. The German barque August Teitge, Capt. Drews, which arrived here on Wednesday, reports having spoken Nov. 15th, lat. 27 22 north, long. 27 12 west, the British brig Viton, from Sierra Leone, bound for Liverpool, whose captain had been dead nine days. Also, Dec. 6th, lat. 20 53, long. 58 0 north, Austrian brig Mala Marica, Capt. F. Magthini, from Havre, bound to Cape Haytien, having been 50 days at sea.

Burglarious Doings. The residence of Officer G. W. W. Davis, of the police force, corner of Sixth and Castle streets, was entered yesterday morning, during the absence of Mr. Davis on duty. The lock of a door opening on the back piazza was picked, or a skeleton key used, when the thief found himself in an unoccupied room. Turning over a chair in his rambles around aroused a dog, which was about to grapple with the intruder, when he beat a precipitate retreat. Nothing was missed, but upon subsequent examination, the pockets of all the clothing which came within the range of the thief's perambulations were found turned wrong money was the object sought.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1875.

Fourth Day. The first Fair of the Industrial Exposition Association closed yesterday, winding up with a ball at Giblem Lodge at night. The Fair has in all respects been a successful one, and the officers and members of the Association should feel a commendable pride in the fact, thus demonstrated, that the colored people of this State, and of this section particularly, are so well versed in all the useful and important pursuits of life, this their first grand exposition. The attendance upon the Fair has been very large from the first, while a proper respect for good order and demeanor has marked each day's proceedings. The praiseworthy efforts of the Association, as evidenced in the holding of this Fair, and the success which has attended it, should meet the approbation and receive the heartfelt encouragement of all good citizens, white and colored.

We give below a few articles not before

On the second floor was a collection of native woods, exhibited by Fred. C. Sadgwar; hod bricks, by Hooper & Lee; spirit cask, by Henry Sweat; spirit cask in fiftytwo pieces, by David Deal; spirit cask, by J. H. Davis; spirit cask, by Jo. W. White, Columbus county; bee hives, by Geo. W. Price; native grass baskets, by Henry Gause, 65 years old, Halifax county; collection of turned wood work, by Wm. Kellogg; small work box, by John H. Howe, 14 years old. On the third floor (Floral Hall) was noticed a paper cage containing two birds, by Lavinia Mallett; fruit basket, by Julia Conner, pineapple pin cushion, by Anna Shepperson; variety of imitations of different colors, by W. A White, Columbus county; fancy slippers, by Nathan Chappel; pillow slip, by Dina Hall, Mecklenburg county; - Mrs. M. E. Ellison, principal of lace pin-cushion, by F. Price; lady's gar-Willis; pin-cushion, by Henry Toomer.

An auction sale of articles on exhibition will, we learn, take place on the grounds

The Athletic Club-New Year's Sports. A very attractive programme is presented in our advertising columns of games to be played on the Athletic Club grounds tomorrow. The attendance no doubt will be much larger on this occasion than it was on Thanksgiving Day, as very few fully appreciated the fact that such a delightful entertainment was in store for those who were present on that day. Many expressed their regret, afterwards, that they had not witnessed the exciting sports and entertaining games which had given so much genuine pleasure, and all such will no doubt swell the crowd to-morrow. Another inducement is to be found in the fact that the price of admission to the grounds has been reduced to 25 cents, members alone to be admitted free.

Mr. Berry Gleaves has been appointed Chief Marshal for the day. The Assistant Marshals are Messrs. R. G. Ross, John Colville, G. W. Bailey, W. Roddick, Norwood Giles and Fred. Kidder.

Mr. Donald MacRae has been appointed Chairman of the Committee on Rifle-Shooting. The remaining members will be announced to-morrow. Examine the advertisement and see for yourselves the delightful entertainment prepared for you!

The Deaf and Dumb and the Blind

Children at the Fair. As we have before stated one of the important features connected with the colored Fair in this city during the present week has been the performances or entertainments of the deaf and dumb and the blind children, from the Asylum at Raleigh, under the direction of Prof. W. F. Dedman, teacher and Supervisor. These children are thirteen in number, seven blind and six deaf and dumb. The performances certainly evinced evidences of thorough instruction and a remarkable proficiency, under all the circumstances. The colored Asyulm for the benefit of this class of unfortunates is entirely distinct from the white, being located in the southern part of the city of Raleigh, on a one-acre lot of ground, appropriately laid out, with streets running on each side of it. It was built of brick made by the convicts in the Penitentiary, the average thickness of the walls being about two feet. It is three stories high, and has nineteen rooms, including two dormatories 20 by 40 feet in dimensions. As we have before remarked, North Carolina is the only State that has made suitable provision for the deaf and dumb and the blind within its borders. The pupils in attendance upon the Fair left for Raleigh last evening. While here all their expenses were paid by the Fair Association and the railroads passed them

At Last. "That night is long that never finds the day," and dark, too, when the lamps are blown out for lack of glass or left unlighted. But now we feel the fires of hope for better things spring up afresh within us, and in our view the east catches the glow. We mistake. We are short-sighted. It is the longneglected and battered street lamps which in our mental vision catch the glow and the spark which is to make them again lights to our feet instead of stumblingblocks to our path is kindled by the announcement that the Mayor has made a bran new contract with reliable persons side out, which evidenced the fact that for lighting and keeping them in repair during next year.

INDUSTRIAL PAIR EXPOSITION. | Miss Katle Putnam Monday.

The approaching appearance of this charming little lady-the first-love of playgoing Wilmington-creates a ripple of interest even amid the excitements of holiday week and the closing year. Indeed, the times must be strangely exciting or strangely bad when the announcement of Miss Katie's coming would not set the town to talking and planning to see her; and now that it is known that she is to take her favorite parts, The Marchioness and Little Nell, in the dramatization of Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop," on Monday night, the deand that they have thus come forward and sire to be present is especially strong. We assisted and encouraged the Association in are sure that she will have a great house and that time and travel will not have taken from her any of her old-time power to interest and please.
