OUTLINES.

The Leeds amphitheatre has been burned. — Ex Gov. Letcher, of Virginia, was yesterday stricken with paralysis. — New York Legislature requests their Congress delegation to oppose repeal of resumption bill. — Louisiana Legislature withdraws impeachment proceedings against Kellogg. — Gen. Belknap, detected by an investigating committee of Congress in using his functions as Secretary of War corruptly, resigned, and the Secretary of the Navy takes his place temporarily. — Luckey, late private Secretary of the President, has been placed at the head of the Indian Office of the Interior Department. New York markets: Cotton, 12¼@12 13-16; turpentine, 37 cents; rosin, $1 60@$1 65; gold, 114¾. — Schenck, the Minister to England, is coming home to "confront his calumniators." — Steamer Columbia River blew up and all to pieces near San Grancisco, and several persons killed or missing.

THE HEAVIEST BLOW YET.

The severest shock the Grant administration has yet received was the exposure of Gen. Belknap, Secretary of War, made by the Congress Committee on Expenses of the War Department. It seems that a Mr. Marsh testified before the Committee that he had paid Belknap ten thousand dollars cash and six thousand dollars per year for the post-traderships at Fort Sill and other army posts in the southwest. In consequence of this revelation, not being able to controvert Marsh or to explain the equivocal relations they had occupied, Belknap resigned his portfolio, and his resignation was instantly accepted.

This man was a trusted friend of the President, and one of the prominent supporters of his policy. He had aspired to be United States Senator, and he was undoubtedly a shining light in the Radical heavens. Like Lucifer he has fallen, and great is his fall. We feel sad at the degradation to the American name involved in his disgrace. We cannot rejoice thereat, but rather mourn that the country's good name is daily dragged in the mire by such men as those Grant has collected around him.

— The Washington dispatches of last night contain the resolutions of the committee demanding the impeachment of Gen. Belknap, and the action taken thereon by Congress. No wonder the Chairman of the committee, Mr. Clymer, was overcome with emotion while performing the painful duty incumbent upon him. The shame of the crime is sufficient to make all men blush.

News received last night from Louisiana is reassuring. Our friends have resolved to drop the impeachment programme.

Spirits Turpentine

— The Newbern Nutshell has been caned.

— The centennial entertainment at Hillsboro netted twenty-five dollars for the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

— The meetings at the Salisbury Street (Raleigh) Baptist Church continue, and much interest is manifested.

— Mr. Edward Winfield, of Beaufort county, had his leg broken at Waring, in Martin county, on Friday, the 18th inst.

— Toisnot Transcript: An earnest effort is being made to build an Episcopal church at this place, which we hope may prove successful.

— Washington Echo: On Monday, 21st inst., while Mr. W. T. Cahoon was on his way from Pamlico county to Washington, when near Ruff's Mills, at Blount's Creek, had the misfortune to have his horse run away. Mr. C. had gotten out of the buggy for the purpose of feeding his horse, leaving his sister in the buggy, when the animal run off, and lodged the buggy some ten feet up a tree. The injuries received by Mr. C. and sister were very slight. Buggy considerably hurt.

— Regarding Treasurer Jenkins' letter concerning the tax on liquors, the Register of Deeds of Wake county explains the fact which relates to his county thus: There has been no such action in this county as is "supposed;" on the contrary, in making up the list for the sheriff, the Register enters the State tax of five per cent. on such purchases, without any deduction, to which is added the county tax on the same. Of course, where the wholesale dealer gives a certificate to the retail dealers that the tax on the purchases by the latter has been paid, the tax is not entered against the smaller dealer.

A Singular Will Contested.

Charles Fox died in New York sometime ago, leaving $100,000 worth of property to go towards paying the debt of the United States. Two nephews, Joseph and George, and Annie, his niece, all residing in Brooklyn, contested the will successfully up to and through the Court of Appeals, but the United States Supreme Court granted a writ of error, and on Monday a motion was made in the Supreme Court, Kings county, before Justice Gilbert, to remove Benjamin D. Disbrow, the guardian for the children, on the ground that he was wasting the proceeds of the estate. Decision reserved.

The Lee Memorial.

Gen. L. S. Baker has been appointed a general agent for the Lee Monument Association. He will soon thoroughly canvass North Carolina to raise funds for the contemplated monument. Gen. Baker is a native of this State, and was a brave soldier of the late Southern Confederacy, in whose service he lost the use of an arm.

Astonishment in a Revival Meeting.

At the revival services in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Holly, N. J., on Wednesday evening, a deaf mute presented himself for prayers. After united and earnest supplications had been offered in his behalf, he arose with a countenance radiant with joy, and, taking the brethren by the hand, shouted "Glory, Glory," to the astonishment of the audience.

Decision About Lotteries

[Raleigh News.]

In the case of the State against J. B. Bryant, from Wake, it seems the defendant had been dealing with lottery in this city, and was therefore indicted, and in the court below Judge Watts quashed the indictment. The State appealed to the Supreme Court and the court affirmed Judge Watts, Judge Settle stating that the managers of a lottery or their agents who sold the tickets are indictable by the statute, but the purchasers of such tickets are not indictable.

Senator Davis on the Finances.

Hon. Henry G. Davis, of West Virginia, has written a letter in which he expresses himself earnestly in favor of a repeal of the resumption act. He adds:

"I hope, however, that we may each a specie basis within a reasonable time, but believe it ought and will come by the growth and development of the business interests of the country rather than through forced legislation, which I fear would increase rather than decrease the present financial and commercial distress."

— Arrived out, 27th, British brig Economy, Graham, hence for Bristol.

— Sailed from St. Vincent, Cape de Verde Islands, for this port, Jan. 25, Der Pommer, Bohn.

— Schooner Ogeechee, Sabister, from Middleton for this port, was at Newbern, 24th ult., leaking.

— Vessels in the Philadelphia trade will take notice that the buoy in the Horseshoe has gone adrift.

— The Cape Fear was quite boisterous yesterday afternoon. On the coast no doubt a heavy gale prevailed.

— And still the rain cometh not in sufficient quantities to be of much service.

— The theatrical season seems to have come to a sudden close here. We hear of no engagements ahead.

— Pilot boat No. 1 of Georgetown, S. C., has discovered a new bar about 150 yards to the south and west of the old bar, with 9 feet water at low tide, channel very narrow, and curved outward about SSE.

— Norwegian brig Azha, Hanger, hence, reached Liverpool 13th ult., discharged, and cleared 28th for a United States port.

— A white man was tried before one of the Magistrates, yesterday, charged with stealing a Bible. We failed to learn the particulars.

— A few scattering flakes of snow fell here yesterday. It is a hard matter for Wilmington to "get up" a respectable snow.

— We learn that the injuries to Mr. J. H. Croom, who was hurt on the occasion of the Moore's Creek celebration by being thrown from a mule, turned out to be very slight.

— The storm signal floated all day long, yesterday, from the signal station, and the brisk stinging norther which set in soon after it made its appearance showed that "Young Probs." knew a thing or two.

— There were no cases for trial before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. The police have not had a very fine field for the display of their zeal for the past week or two, and if the thieves could be stopped in their career of rascality we should be a "happy people."

— At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, held on Wednesday afternoon, it was ordered that A. R. Black, Esq., Tax Collector, pay to the County Treasurer twenty-five per cent. of the proceeds of the State and county capitation tax for the year 1875, to be applied to the support of the poor, in accordance with Article V, section 2 of the Constitution.

Robbing the Father and Selling to the Son—A Daring Theft.

Mr. Moses D. Motte, of Cape Fear Township, in this county, met with the misfortune of having his meat house broken open on Tuesday night and robbed of his year's provisions, including a large number of hams, shoulders, &c. He did not discover his loss until Wednesday morning, when, upon investigation, he found that the robber had not only stolen his meat, which had cost him so much time and trouble, and upon which he had relied for subsistence for months to come, but had actually hitched his mule to his cart to haul it away, thus "adding insult to injury." This, our readers will admit, was a very cool proceeding on the part of the rogue, to say the least of it: but the coolest part of the transaction, in which the brazen effrontery of the thief was such as almost to entitle it to the appellation of sublime, remains to be told. Suspecting that the thief would bring the meat to Wilmington to sell it, Mr. Motte, as soon as he discovered his loss, started to town to look after his property. Arriving at Little Bridge, near the city limits, he found the mule and cart, where they had evidently been left by the rogue when he had proceeded as far on his return as he thought would be safe, and at which point he probably took to the woods. Pushing on to Wilmington, Mr. M. proceeded to the grocery store on the corner of Fifth and Red Cross streets, kept by his son, when he made the astounding discovery that he (Mr. Motte, Jr.,) had purchased the meat which had been stolen from his father. The younger Motte stated that the man he bought the meat from was colored, but was not known to him, though he was sure he should recognize him were he to see him again.

This is the most daring, successful and "cheekiest" robbery, taken altogether, that we have heard of in a long time.

Loan Associations.

The Raleigh News thus explains the decision of Judge Reade, published in our last issue: "The recent decision of the Supreme Conrt, in the case of D. M. Bule and wife vs. M. B. & Loan Association, from New Hanover, is not important as affects the other associations of the State. This was a demurrer on account of improper parties to the suit, and the court below sustained the demurrer. The Supreme Court reversed the demurrer, saying the joinder of the parties worked no injury. Nothing is decided in the case on its merits."

Bank of New Hanover.

At a meeting of the recently elected Board of Directors of the Bank of New Hanover, held yesterday, the following officers of the Bank were elected to serve during the ensuing year:

I. B. Grainger, President.

C. W. Stedman, Vice President.

S. D. Wallace, Cashier.

I. Bates, Assistant Cashier.

W. L. Smith, Jr., Discount Clerk.

The officers of the Branch Bank at Goldsboro and Wadesboro were also re-elected.

Died on the Cars.

A Mr. Webster, of New York, who was suffering with consumption, and who had been south for the benefit of his health, died in his berth on the train, between Columbia and this place, yesterday morning. A telegram announcing the fact was sent to this city, and a suitable coffin was prepared by Mr. J. W. Wooten and sent to the depot, in readiness to receive the body when the train should arrive. The remains, we understand, will leave for New York this morning.

Lecture in Goldsboro.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: "We learn with pleasure that Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Wilson, of Wilmington, has consented to deliver a lecture in this place, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Church, during the session of the Presbytery which convenes here on the 16th inst."

W. S. F. E. Co. Election.

At the annual meeting of Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1, held last night, the following officers were elected:

Foreman—F. G. Robinson.
First Assistant—Joseph Price.
Second Assistant—N. B. Rankin.
Rec. Secretary—H. B. Hartsfield.
Cor. Secretary— —— Parmelee.
Treasurer—J. Frank Goss.

Thermometer Record.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4:30 P. M., yesterday, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city:

Augusta, 53; Charleston, 54; Galveston, 64; Montgomery, 51; Mobile, 57; New Orleans, 62; Norfolk, 31; Savannah, 60; Wilmington, 41.

Brunswick Court.

His Honor, Judge McKoy, rendered a decision, yesterday, in the case of James Heaton, charged with inciting a riot in this city on election day, in August, 1874, which had been removed from this county to Brunswick for trial, granting the application for still another removal to Columbus county, where it will come up at the approaching term, commencing on the 13th instant.

A False Report.

It was reported on the streets a few days since that there were three cases of smallpox at Clinton, Sampson county. A gentleman who arrived here from that place yesterday denies the report, and says there is not the slightest foundation for it. How such rumors can get afloat it is hard to conceive.

Range of Thermometer.

The following was the range of the thermometer at the Signal Bureau, in this city, yesterday:

7 A. M., 55; 12 M., 53; 2 P. M., 44; 4:30 P. M., 41; 9 P. M., 35; 11 P. M., 33.

Mortgage Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF A CERTAIN MORTGAGE, executed to Godfrey Hart by Thomas H. Lemax and his wife, dated the 2d day of January, 1875, and duly registered in Book V, of the Records of Deeds, in the Register's Office of Brunswick County, at pages 587, 588, 589 and 590, to secure the payment of a certain debt therein mentioned, I will, on THURSDAY, the 30TH DAY OF MARCH, on the premises, offer for sale, at public auction, for cash, a certain TRACT or PARCEL OF LAND, lying in the county of Brunswick, and State of North Carolina, known as the DOLLASON PLANTATION, beginning on the South side of North West River, at the mouth of a small creek which divides the Dollason Tract from the Hall-Point Tract, and running thence up to the head of said creek, thence with the dividing line between the Dollason Tract and the Hall-Point Tract in a Southwestern direction to the back line of the original tract, thence south 60 deg. East along the old bank and ditch 176 poles to a red oak, a corner of the original tract, thence North 40 deg. East 440 poles to a gum, another corner of the original tract, thence North 60 deg. West to a gum on the river bank, then up the river to the first station.

Also, one other TRACT or PARCEL OF LAND, being the same which was conveyed to Sarah Wallers, on the 19th day of December, 1809, and adjoining the above described parcel of land—beginning on the North-West River at a gum formerly Major Moore's Corner, thence South 190 poles to formerly Mrs. Moore's line, thence with her line West 185 poles to Waller's and Dollason corner, thence with the Dollason line to the beginning.

A CARD.

IN CONSEQUENCE OF THE CIRCULATION of a rumor to the effect that the PENN FIRE INSURANCE CO., OF PHILADELPHIA, had failed, I feel it my duty to state, for the benefit of the agents and policy-holders of the Company in North Carolina, that said rumor is false, and that the policies of the Penn now in force are as prot ctive as those of any company. Owing to the unprofitable result of its business for 1875, the Company has decided to discontinue business, and has reinsured all its risks in the FRENCH INSURANCE CORPORATION OF PARIS, a Company with assets amounting to over $5,000,000.

Assuring my patrons of my determination to protect their interests, and trusting they may never have cause to regret the confidence they may have had in my ability to do so, I remain, respectfully,

JNO. W. GORDON,
General Insurance Agent,
24 North Water Street,
