A CARD PHOM COL. POOL. List of Peabody Schools. From the Raleigh Sentinel. 1

MR. EDITOR: Will the Sentinel and other papers in the State publish the following list of the Peabody schools in North Carolina for the year 1875, which were accepted, and having met the requirements were paid:

Newbern, Tarboro, (col) Charlotte, (white and col.) Raleigh, (col.) Morgan Hill, Marshall, Pigeon Valley, Cullowhee, Buffalo, Edneyville, Fayetteville, (col.) Pleasant Hill, Laurel Branch, Balsam Seminary, Rocky Hill, Ivy Shoal, Flat Creek, Grantville, Cowee, Fleming's Chapel, Roan Mountain, Pisgah, Smyrna, Smithfield, Mill Shoal, New Salem, Laurel Hill, (Madison county,) Rocky Point. Reams' Creek, Nebo, Dick's Creek, Hicksville Academy, Oak Grove, Harrell, Laurel Fork, Blue Ridge, Laurel Hill, (Clay,) Cheoah, Warrenton, (col.) Hillsboro and Wilmington, aggregating $15,400. Of this amount 1)r. Sears paid $3,000, and I paid $12,- those of Brigadier General Hogan, Lieuten-400 under his directions. Total number of schools 43.

If Peabody schools are a blessing, and well conducted schools on that plan I believe to be, then the children of North Carolina enjoyed more of these blessings last year than ever before.

As stated in a card published some days ago, every teacher of a Peabody school in North Carolina, entitled to pay, has been paid with the exception noted in that card, and the balance due him has been and is now ready for him

Further, I will state that any obligation of mine in the hands of third parties, which has any relation to this fund in the remotest degree, will be paid when presented, or I am notified

It has been charged that efforts have been made by leading Democrats to "cover up" my delinquencies, if any there be. A charge more unfounded was never uttered. A Republican official could hope for such efforts, but no Democrat can. S. D. Poor.

The question plainly stated is, will Judge Henry imprison Jewish Temple of Israel. It is a very neat and handsome instrument, and is known as the two manual and pedal base organ, with of the city who are acting under a law passed by the General Assembly. The case six sets of reeds and twelve stops, in an upright resonant case and of extra finish. It has a blow handie at the back, and a foot blow pedal, by which the performer can himself supply wind, four sets of vibrations throughout, one of four feet pitch, one of eight feet pitch, to upper manual; and one of eight feet, and one of sixteen feet to lower manual. There are two independent sets of vibrators to the pedals, one of eight feet pitch and one of sixteen feet. The pedals are of full scale, twenty-seven notes. The organ is accompanied by a black walnut bench for the performer. It will be in pesition in time for the dedication, which - Col. Wm. A. Allen, of Duplin, takes place on the 12th of May.

Memorial Day.

The Ladies' Memorial Association had meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of making preparations for the proper celebration of Memorial Day, the 10th of May. The result of the meeting has not yet transpired, but we learn that there will be at least one new feature in the celebration this year which will be likely to add much to the interest of the occasion, the particulars of which will hereafter be made known. From present indications the day will be celebrated with more than the usual spirit.

The Opera House To-Morrow Night. Our friends should bear in mind that a beautiful Operatta, entitled "The Fairy Grotto," composed of four acts, is to be presented at the Opera House to-morrow evening, by the pupils of the German-American Institute of this city. The instrumental music on the occasion will form an important feature of the entertainment, which, altogether, will doubtless be one of exceeding merit and well deserving of a crowded house.

THE CENTENNIAL.

Stirring Appeal from the Corresponding Secretary for North Carolina-Let the Old North State do Something Worthy of Her Historic Re-

Below we publish the stirring appeal of Mrs. S. H. Waddell in behalf of the Centennial at Pailadelphia, of the Historical Department of which she was recently appointed Corresponding Secretary for this State:

WILMINGTON, April 19, 1876. Having been assigned the duties of corresponding Secretary for North Carolina in the Historical Department of the Museum in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, I de-sire to appeal to the patriotic pride of my countrymen to furnish such memorials and souvenirs of the heroic struggle of 1776 as may be in their possession, and are also il lustrative of the gallant part borne by their

Twelve of the thirteen colonies-since become States—are now unrolling their historic pages for the purpose of embellishing the apartments appropriated to each and we feel assured that the sons and daughters of our dear native land will never permit her to sit at the base of the monument to liberty and patriotism, while her sister States, without one star upon their brows more brilliant than her's, are, by the energy and fidelity of their children, placed on the apex of the pillar.

Need we recall to North Carolinians the glorious record made by their fathers in resisting oppressive taxations, from the stamp act of 1766 to the tea tax of 1775, or touch the nerve that vibrates to the name of Meckleuburg, or that of liberty's first libation at Moore's Creek Bridge, or that first instruction to her representatives in April, 1776, to go for independence. Where shall we find deeds of any sister State surpassing these? Can we be recreant in the presence of such soul stir-ring memories? If so, then indeed have the connsels of the wise been brought to naught, and the blood of the brave been shed in vain. We will not-we cannot believe it.

Our appeal is to all who can bring sou ven rathat shall vindicate the fame or bright en the escutcheon of the good old "North State." With such we shall be most happy to correspond, and will take this occasion to say that we are authorized by the committees to guarantee the safe return of free of every expense of transportation, both to the city of Philadelphia and when returned to their respective proprietors.
