Judge McKoy, fell dead in Clinton, one uay last week. - Goldsboro hopped successfully Tuesday night at the Hamphrey House in ho or of leap year. - Raleigh News: On the 19th of April last, one year ago, we had a terrible frost, killing all the fruit and vegetables, so our gardeners had better look out. We had a slight frost yesterday morning and the day was quite cold. - Toisnot Transcript: The efforts of the people of Wilson in establishing the Overland Transportation freight line, and the general dissatisfaction of the shippers along the W. & W. R. R. at the high freight tariff of the railroad company, has brought about a compromise, as we are informed, and rates are to be reduced.

- Magnolia Record: Three negroes were arrested in Sampson, a few days ago, for breaking into the store of Mr. Reichmon, of Clinton. The store was entered three several times, we learn, twice from the hearth and once through the door. The parties were betrayed by the wife of one of them, who got mad with her husband on account of some ill treatment. - Raleigh News: Major Henry Blacknall, at Kittreli's, has an old pocke book given him by Jordan Solomon, whose grandfather traded for it with Cornwallis' men when they tramped through this country during the revolutionary war. The old man gave peanuts for it. W. H. Jones, of this city, has received a letter from a Mrs. Mooring, at Smithfield, saying she has two chairs that once belonged to Patrick Henry.

next is the last day.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1876.

- Those who have no time to list The Shooting Match. The third competition for the gold badge, their taxes during the day should be on hand to night, as it will be their last chance to list after business hours. - Yesterday 222 persons listed of that tribunal. - Some one is complaining that a barrel containing slops is frequently left standing somewhere near the foot of the market all day Sunday. - The colored Methodists of this city will have a camp meeting at the Piney Grove Camp Ground, some ten or twelve miles above this city, commencing on the 10th of May. - This evening is the time for the regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen, but as three members of the Board will be engaged in taking tax lists, we think it likely the meeting will be postponed.

- The small sized street cars are all receiving a new coat of paint and varnish, preparatory to the summer campaign. One appeared on the streets yesterday in its new dress. They run now from the corner of Seventh and Castle streets to the Cemetery.

U. S. Commissioner's Court.

Mr. Bethel Buffkin, of Columbus county, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Cassidey, yesterday morning, charged with violating the Internal Revenue laws. Mr. B, is a cultivator of the "weed," and it seems he disposed of some of it without securing the necessary license, being unaware, as there is every reason to believe, that there was any law in existence which required him to pay a tax to the General Government for the privilege of selling the same. He was required to give bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the approaching term of the U. S. District Court

Mr. Emanuel Strickland, of the same county, was arraigned on the charge of violating the Internal Revenue law by selling spirituous liquors without first obtaining the necessary license, and was required to give bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the District Court.

Both gentlemen found the necessary se curity and were thereupon released.

self-Lighting Gas-Burners.

We examined yesterday one of Stockwell's Self-Lighting Gas-Burners, which, being supplied with an igniting tape, lights the gas at the same time it is turned on, thus doing away with the necessity of using matches, lighted candles or other such contrivances for lighting the gas, which is a matter of some importance when taken into consideration that this duty has frequently to be entrusted to careless servants and children. One of these tapes, which is ingeniously arranged inside of the barner, will light the gas one hundred and thirty-five times, when it becomes necessary to supply its place with a new one. It costs but little and is a decided improvement on the old style of burners. Mr. J. L. Holmes, Jr., is the agent for them in this city.

Invitation Declined.

We regret to learn that Gen. Matt. W Ransom has found it necessary to decline the invitation extended to him to deliver the Memorial address in this city on the 10th of May. The ladies of the Memorial Association, and the public generally, will, of course, feel much disappointed at being deprived of the pleasure of listening to that eloquent son of the Old North State on the occasion referred to, but it seems that the public business will require his presence in the Senate at that time, and hence he could not well be present.

Confederate Prices. As a matter of curiosity to many of our readers, especially at a distance, we give the following bill of goods bought at auction in Fayetteville, January 17th, 1865, by a gentleman now residing in this city: Six spoons, $240; 12 forks, $300; one butter knife, $90; one dish, $350; one platter $1,-300; three napkins, $84; one carpet, $800; one box herrings, $135; five pieces of crockery, $40; one pistol, $220. The Child Thief. The father of the colored girl, Adaline, charged with stealing a sum of money from Mary E. Entertainment Postponed.

It has been found necessary to postpone the presentation of the Operetta of "The Fairy Grotto," which was advertised to be performed at the Opera House this evening, until Tuesday night next, the 25th inst., in consequence of the illness of the principal manager. Why Not?

Quoth Gray, of the Raleigh Advocate : "The news man of the Wilmington STAR. in copying an item from the Charlotte Ob-sercer, accredits it to the Christian Observer.' Upon which the Observer retorts: "Why mon," why will you thus knock the props from under us? We supposed that our Wilmington contemporary was paying a compliment to our pious proclivities, and you would have us believe that it was only a typographical error."

The Turnpike, We are requested by Col. J. R. Davis,

Superintendent, to state that the Turnpike Road will be open throughout this day for the benefit of those who may wish to pass over it and witness for themselves the present condition of this important improvement. The road is not yet completed, but will be at a very early day. Got Their Truck.

A new truck, ordered for the colored Icdependent Bucket Company of this city, arrived on the steamer Regulator from New York. It is furnished with some ten or twelve buckets, four axes and four ladders, with the other paraphernalia usually connected with trucks.

Revenue Taxes. We are advised that Internal Revenue taxes are now due, and must be paid by or before the 1st of May. This is intended as a gentle reminder to save those interested the trouble and inconvenience which will follow if the matter is neglected.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

To the Public.

IN AN EDITORIAL ARTICLE IN THE WILMINGTON POST, of the 7th inst, a most unjust and false charge was made sgainst me as Trx Collector of Pender county, viz: That I had been guilty of misappropriating the county funds collected by me in my official especity, and applied them to my own use, "in the purchase of mules and things," Upon applying to the editors of the Post newspaper for the grounds of their charge, they stated that they had received their information from gentlemen of Pender county, who said that their information was derived from the County Treastrer, Mr. Jehn A. Jones, and they gave me the substance of the charge in writing. I thereupon addressed Mr. Jones a note as follows:

ROCKY POINT, N. C., April 19, 1876.

ROCKY POINT, N. C., April 19, 1876. Jno. A. Jones, Esq , Treasurer Fender Co., I har Sin:—Have you ever circulated a report to the effect that I had, as Tax Collector of Pender county, used moneys collected by me, in me official capacity, in the purchase of mules or for other private purposes. Yours, Collector Pender County. Tax Collector Pender County Teste, GEO. T. LUCAS.

To which he replied as follows, LILINGTON, PENDER COUNTY, April 19. James B. McPherson. Tax Collector Pender Co., Sin:—In answer to your note making enquiry whether I have ever circulated any report to the effect that you had used in buying mules, or for any private purpose, moneys collected by you as Tax Collector of Pender county, I have to state without he-liation that I have never circulated, directly or hecitation that I have never indirectly, at y such report.
