THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XVIII.—NO. 65. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1876. WHOLE NO. 2,824.

OUTLINES.

The two big suits against Tweed and Sweeney postponed till October. —— Chicago Circuit Court decided Colvin in Mayor. —— Patent medicine Ayer sent to insane asylum. —— Tariff resolution in the House referred, which is equivalent to killing it. —— Paper mill owned by Springfield Republican burned. —— Blaine made a sensational speech in the House yesterday, and pretended to read all of those letters. —— Abdul Aziz committed suicide Sunday. The situation in Turkey and Europe is very grave. England concludes a treaty of alliance with Turkey, guaranteeing its integrity. Servia is in arms. —— Harney, witness against Mr. Kerr, broken down. —— Oil tank at New Oil City (worth $100,000) burned. —— Proctor Knott made both a witty and a bitter speech in reply to some of Blaine's personal insinuations against him. —— U. S. Circuit Court decided to appoint Receiver for Atlantic, Mississippi & Ohio R. R. —— New York markets, Gold, 112½@112¾; cotton, 12@12 3-16; spirits turpentine 30c; rosin, $1 70@$1 75.

KNOTT AND BLAINE.

That was a bitter and disgusting personal explanation of Blaine's yesterday in the House of Representatives. In the course of its delivery the insolent bully from Maine ventured to impute ungenerous motives to the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, Hon. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, who replied first in a manner of ridicule, then changing his style to one of severe invective he chastised the person from Maine in the most denunciatory speech of the session. He told him that the assailed members of the sub committee on the Judiciary, Gen. Hunton, of Virginia, and Mr. Ashe, of North Carolina, were his peers in every sense of the word, and in point of honor were his superiors. When Republicans hissed this remark, Mr. Knott threw at them the angry reply "that three classes of animals uttered that cry, vipers, geese and fools." Then he proceeded to deny with great and increasing asperity several of the statements made by Blaine.

The Witness Mulligan.

The New York Times publishes a dispatch from Boston, in which the following reference is made to Mulligan, the witness against ex-Speaker Blaine:

"The dispatches that have reached this city intimating that an effort will be made to impeach Mulligan's testimony in the Blaine investigation are looked upon by even Blaine's warmest friends with very little hope or favor, as Mulligan is known here as a man of facts and figures, clear-headed, cool and consistent. He is a man who cannot be bribed, bullied or broken down. He is known in business circles here as one of the best and most accurate accountants in the city, a methodical and accurate bookkeeper. He was first connected with Mr. Fisher when the latter was in the sugar refining business with Adams. He had before been bookkeeper for Eben Stanwood. When Fisher retired from the sugar refinery partnership Mr. Mulligan continued with him, and probably is even better acquainted with Mr. Fisher's railway transactions than himself, having kept all the records and track of all the papers and documents. He is worth considerable, and has always been a trustworthy man in all his business transactions. The hardest blow that Mr. Blaine has received in the estimation of Boston, is the positive statement of Mulligan."

Gen. Polk's Daughter.

[N. Y. World.]

Antoinette Polk, a daughter of the soldier bishop, is the belle par excellence of Roman society this winter. She unites in herself as many attractions as if all the fairies had been present at her christening. The "blue blood" of one of the first Southern families; wealth sufficient for worldly needs, and the beauty of perfect features, and a grand classic style, she has the world at her feet, and it is rumored that the Prince Doria is among her suitors.

—The Goldsboro Presbyterian festival last Wednesday realized $40.

—Craven county instructs for Hon. C. C. Clark for Governor.

—The General Conference of the colored M. E. Zion church is to convene in Goldsboro the 17th of June.

—Mr. R. Y. McAden explains that he has no idea of accepting a position on the Radical State ticket, for the reason that he is going to the Democratic State Convention as an accredited delegate.

—Milton Chronicle: The Raleigh Sentinel does not think the Conservative State Convention will nominate Gov. Vance for Governor "if our party are not all lunatics." Why, Josiah! talk that way in a whisper, if you please.

—Rutherford Register: The building of a railroad of this description from this place to King's Mountain is under contemplation. To get this road chartered will be quite an easy matter. A narrow gauge can be built and equipped from this to the latter place for $250,000, if all the grading had to be done. But there is a large portion of a road bed graded between this place and Shelby, and consequently the road can be completed for less money than that.

—There was no session of the City Court yesterday morning, and it was announced that it would not meet again until Wednesday morning, in consequence of the absence of the Mayor.

Delegates to the Republican County Convention,

The Republicans of the different townships in the county held meetings yesterday for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention, to be held in this city on the 10th inst., and last night meetings were held in the various wards of the city for the same purpose. The principal interest centred in the contest for the Sheriffalty, the candidates for the nomination being Gen. Manning, the present incumbent, and Owen Burney and Duncan Holmes, the two latter colored. The result, so far as we have heard, is as follows:

Second Ward—S. H. Manning, 63 votes; S. VanAmringe, 63; Geo. E. Berden, 63; J. C. Smith, 11; Alex. Sampson, 15; W. H. Marsteller, 4. Manning, VanAmringe and Berden are the delegates elected, and are all claimed for Manning.

Third Ward—W. H. Moore, 142; Jos. E. Sampson, 103; Samuel Merrick, 83; A. H. Morris, 19; Jasper Bishop, 19.

Fifth Ward—E. D. Hewlett, 174; Hiram Hankins, 155; Jos. C. Hill, 156; Jos. Bryant, 5; Bob Corner, 17; Benj. Merrick, 12; Paris Jones, 6. Claimed for Manning.

Cape Fear Township—H. G. Davis, Balam Wade, W. H. Williams. Instructed by resolution to vote for Manning.

Masonboro—John G. Wagner, Elijah Hewlett, Joseph Smith. Claimed for Manning.

Harnett—Jordan Nixon, Benj. Galloway, Jacob Lowrey. Two claimed for Manning and one for Burney.

Look Out for Him.

A circular from the Chief of Police of Albany, N. Y., together with a letter from Capt. W. H. Robbins, of the Schr. James Patterson, has been received at the Marshal's office in this city, announcing that a gold hunting case watch, Beezly, Liverpool, maker, No. 8,624 with chain and charms, together with a pocket-book containing $60 in bank notes, were stolen from the Schr. James Patterson by one of the crew at Albany some months since. The name of the thief, who is described as a large, well-appearing man, of light complexion, dark hair and weighing about 165 pounds, is given as Frank Chapman alias Buffalo Joe, alias Lucius Chapman. He has been reported to have been seen in this place, "a bummer around one of the hotels," and that he sold the watch and chain, together with a pistol, saying that he found the former in Baltimore. The police have been instructed to keep a lookout for the enterprising "bummer."

The Excursion To-morrow.

Those who expect to participate in the grand military excursion on the General Sedgwick to-morrow, should remember that this is the last day on which tickets can be procured. We learn that over 300 have been disposed of, but the steamer will conveniently accommodate eight hundred to one thousand persons. Young "Probe" at the office here predicts that to-morrow will be one of the finest days of the season.

The Drowning of LaGrand—Recovery of the Body—The Inquest—Arrest of his Companion on Suspicion, &c., &c.

The body of Daniel LaGrand, the young colored man who was drowned off a flat, some fifteen miles up the Cape Fear river, on Thursday night last, the particulars of which were given in this paper, was recovered on Saturday afternoon and brought to this city Sunday morning. Coroner Hewlett thereupon summoned the following persons to act as a jury of inquest: R. F. Eyden, foreman, Wm. Stokley, E. Griffith, J. A. Ashe, Henry Tucker, F. W. Foster, Thomas Brinkley, S. T. Potts, C. C. Parker, T. E. Meyer, David Cowan, W. R. King. The jury assembled at the dock, foot of Princess street, and viewed the body, Dr. D. M. Bulo being called upon to examine the same, after which an adjournment was had until yesterday morning, when they reassembled in the Grand Jury room, at the Court House, to hear the evidence. After a somewhat lengthy session, the jury finally returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by drowning.

Sunday afternoon, on an affidavit sworn out by Lewis LaGrand, brother of the deceased, a warrant was issued by J. C. Hill, a Justice of the Peace, for the arrest of Abram Fulton, a colored youth, who was the only person on the flat with deceased at the time of the drowning, on suspicion of having caused his death. Fulton was subsequently arrested and lodged in jail to await a preliminary examination, and in the afternoon of yesterday, after the coroner's jury had rendered their verdict and adjourned, young Fulton was arraigned before the magistrate named and his examination commenced. Without arriving at any decision, however, the case was continued until this morning, at nine o'clock, in order to procure additional testimony, the prisoner in the meantime being held in custody without the benefit of bail. The ground for the arrest, it seems, was certain threats alleged to have been made against deceased by Fulton a short time before the drowning took place, together with the fact that bruises were found on his head.

The body was recovered near the spot where it went down, and when found is said to have been in a perfectly erect posture, as of a man standing on his feet.

Funeral of Sergeant Woodlock.

The funeral of Sergeant John Woodlock, an account of whose death by his own hands we published in Sunday's paper, took place on Sunday, the 4th inst., under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity of Smithville.

At 5 o'clock, P. M., the I. O. of G. T. formed in line in front of their hall, in full numbers, where they were joined by the Masons. The procession then proceeded to the residence of the deceased in the garrison, where it was re-formed as follows:

Creedmoore Brass Band.
Troops.
Independent Order of Good Templars.
Pythagoras Lodge, No. 249, F. and A. M., in charge of the body.
Relatives.
Officers of the Garrison.
Friends and citizens generally.

The procession then moved to the music of the "Dead March in Saul," to the cemetery, where the body was buried with full Masonic ceremony. The troops then advanced and fired three volleys over the remains of their late comrade, and thus ended the sad and heart-rending scene.

A friend writes that Sergeant Woodlock was universally respected and was not addicted to gambling. Those who have known him all of his army life affirm that they never knew of his gambling, directly or indirectly. He had been sick for quite a number of days with fevers, and had taken quinine very excessively—so much so as to unfit him almost for the discharge of his duties, and for the past week he has complained very much of his head. Although as soon as the awful deed was committed Madam Rumor was busy with her hundred causes for the deed, none of them when traced out were confirmed. The only reasonable cause that can be assigned for the deed is insanity by overdosing with quinine. About twenty minutes before his death he took a large dose of the drug, exclaiming "Oh, my God, my head!"

Sergeant Woodlock's relatives in England are all highly respectable people, and our correspondent is informed that his father is an officer to the Crown.

The ball entered the right temple about one inch above the right eye, and about two inches forward of the ear.

The Dog War.

To the perfect horror and discomfiture of the boys, many of whom have been in the habit of bathing in what is known as "Green's mill pond," east of this city, we learn that some fifteen or twenty dogs from the city pound were taken there to be slaughtered on Saturday, the animals being thrown into the pond and then beat to death with sticks. Some of the more smart, and active of the canines succeeded in effecting their escape while undergoing this treatment, and no doubt carried the news to Mary," including "ours of high and low degree," as a warning to be on the alert for the dog cart, or to get their masters to supply them with badges.

Chicken Stealing.

A raid was made upon the chicken coop of Mr. R. D. Burnett, residing on Third, between Nun and Church streets, Sunday night, and four fine guineas, four hens and a rooster were taken away. Mrs. Howard, a neighbor of Mr. Burnett, also lost three fine hens the same night, which no doubt were taken by the same thief. A colored woodsawyer who had been employed on the premises of the latter is suspected.

Mr. Waddell's nomination was afterwards made unanimous.

A Live Baron in Smithville.

Under this head an occasional correspondent at Smithville gives us the following:

About the 24th of May, as the steamer Dixie approached the wharf at Smithville, a very dapper little gentleman, dressed in a nobby suit of gray, with enormous diamond studs sparkling in his spotless linen front, was observed standing on her deck. He came ashore and was escorted at once to the residence of Capt. Rosafy.

The good people of this quiet place were not a little astonished some hours afterward to learn that a real, live Baron had been in their midst. He left the same day, and was escorted to the boat by Mr. Rosafy, when they parted in very tender style, embraced, and kissed each other on each cheek and in the forehead. Nothing further was heard of the "Baron" until, looking over the New York Herald of June the 1st, I came across an article headed "A Clever Swindle." The Baron, it appears, is an escaped convict. He is at present in New Orleans, from which place he has addressed some charming letters to the "friends he left behind him" in Smithville. He stated that he had been sent out by his Government, that he had dined with Dom Pedro, that the Empress was a fat, disagreeable woman, and many other things stated he to his friends here. He presented his card to a gentleman of this place. It is of medium size, has a crown engraved on it, and his name, "Baron de B. Somoskeoy," Hungary. The police are on the lookout for him; let them hunt him up.

An Immense Rainfall.

We learn that the rain of Sunday night was heavier in some parts of the county than it was here. In the neighborhood of South Washington and Leesburg, and from thence across to Point Caswell, there was an immense fall. Some idea can be formed of its extent from the fact that a messenger sent to South Washington yesterday, by way of Point Caswell, was compelled to return after reaching what is known as Horse Branch, within two and a half miles of his destination, on account of his inability to ford that stream, across the bed of which parties walked dry shod Sunday afternoon. It is thought the crops in that section have been somewhat injured by the heavy rain.

Thermometer Record.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4:35 P. M., Washington mean time, yesterday, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city:

Augusta, 88; Charleston, 84; Galveston, 82; Indianola, 80; Jacksonville, 92; Key West, 84; Mobile, 84; Montgomery, 81; New Orleans, 84; Norfolk, 89; Punta Rassa, 88; St. Marks, 88; Savannah, 85; Wilmington, 70.

Sudden Death.

Coroner Hewlett held an inquest yesterday morning over the body of James Keator, who died suddenly at his residence in the vicinity of Ninth and Castle streets, on Sunday night. The jury returned a verdict that deceased, who is an old man, came to his death from natural causes.

Importation of Machinery.

An invoice has been received at the Custom House in this city for an importation of some $9,000 worth of cotton mill machinery for the Tee Dee Manufacturing Company of Richmond county. It comes from Accrington, in the Manchester Constulate, and the invoice is dated May 9th.

CITY ITEMS.

If you want to prevent Typhoid Fever or if you feel as if you were going to have the chills and fever take Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills.

MANY LITTLE THINGS, quite insignificant in themselves, exert a vast influence on the convenience and comfort of our daily life. A dull knife—or worse still no knife at all, when one is sorely needed—ruffles the temper, and may indeed forestall the execution of some purpose of vast importance. A bad pen or pencil disturbs the free currents of thought, and dulls the point of many a paragraph. Apropos of pencils, if you would have one that writes smoothly, and is suited in its various grades to all sorts of writing and drawing, get the DIXON GRAPHITE PENCIL, its manufactured by the DIXON CRUCIBLE COMPANY, Jersey City.
