THE SERVIAN WAR.

Servia has declared war, invaded Turkey and been repulsed. . The latter circumstance is not disastrous. Servia will be joined by doubtless all the Christian provinces of Turkey. Herzegovina has been fighting, and Montenegro is now in the field with Servia.

England's attitude is probably one of neutrality. She will hardly venture to repeat the Crimean quarrel with Bismarckian variations. Austria has a more immediate interest. but will probably endeavor to be neutral. Most of her people sympathize with the struggling principalities, having a rooted race and religious prejulice against the Turk. Germany is doubtless secretly backing Russia, which power has diligently fomented Great Powers, will be a real and great gainer by the planting of the cross on the Mosque of Omar, if such shall be the result of the war. Some hasty act may precipitate a general war, but at present the ontlook hardly justifies an apprehension of a European war of magnitude. The chances decidedly favor the independence of the Danubian provinces and their hardy neighbors. The utter dismantling of the Moslem power in Europe is probably reserved for another and wi er generation.

The 4th passed off very quietly in Wil mington. Business was entirely suspended, but there were no demonstrations, all these taking place chewhere in the vicinity. All the public buildings, the Imperial consulate, the various vice consulates and the shipping in port displayed their bunting in honor of the occasion. Mesurs. Lemmer man & Copey's office and the steamer Wm Nyce were also handsomely decorated with fligs. The colored military had a parade and marched to Hilton, where an address appropriate to the occasion was de livered by Geo. W. Price, Jr., which we have heard highly complimented. There was a large crowd present.

On the exercise to emitte ville, Tuesday we met a gentleman from Laurinburg, Richmond county, who gave us a very en couraging idea of the immense enthusiasm that prevailed in that place on the receipt of the nomination of Vance. As soon as the employes in the milroad shops and others "knocked off," at 5 o'clock P. M., they immediately went to work and cut pole, with the usual toomast which they head all in ship shape form by 11 o'clock the same night, thus establishing the claim for that enterprising little town of being the first in the State to creet a Vance flag.
The pole, as previously stated, was about seventy five feet long. The wide-awake Democrats of the place are now making preparations to creet a Tilden and Hendricks pole, to be one hundred feet high.

- The 4th was a good day for sharks at Smithville. One party caught five and another two, all about five feet in length.

- We again urge upon our Demo cratic friends the propriety of ratifying the nominations on our national and State tickets. Will not some one put the ball in

MORNING STA

VOL. XVIII.--NO. 89.

WILMINGTON.

N. C., THURS DAY, JULY 6, 1876.

the Regatta at Wrightsville Sound. July 4th, 1876. Your special reporter was among the many visitors to witness the boat racing at the Sound, Tuesday, and we are sure we but re-echo the sentiment of all present in saying that it was indeed a gala day.

At 4:10 P. M. the judges, Messrs, Don. McRae, J. McD. French, and W. H. Ber nard, announced that the boats would start in the following order, as has been already published, and off they bounded, viz: No. 3. Bessie Lee, Capt. O. A. Wiggins.

No. 19. Spray, Capt. Edward Lattimer. No. 7. Fannic, Capt. 1. B. Grainger. No. 8. Rosa, Capt. J. M. Cazaux. No. 23. Lizzie, Capt. George Peck.

No. 10. Qui Vive, Capt. W. A. Wright. No. 13. Carolina, Capt. Edward Kidder, Sr.

No. 20. Ripple, Capt. Norwood Giles. It was a source of very general regret that the beautiful little Frolic, which was built by her commander, Capt. Geo. Parsley. got on a queer frolick on her way from Masonboro Sound in the morning, and capsized, and was too much disabled to enter

As the boats moved off gaily from the wharf they presented a most beautiful sight, and hope ran higher than the waves in the minds of the various friends of each boat. Soon all rounded the first buoy, and then the excitement waxed warmer and warmer. Here comes the Rosa leading the way, closely followed by the Ripple, and then the others closely pursuing the two leading ones, until the second buoy was passed, when the Sp oy struck a spray, which caused her to fill, and away went the boat's crew and all overboard, which broke up her fun for the race, much to the regret of all. At some point between the starting place and the inlet buoy the Rosa filled, which threw her back, and caused her to be much more badly beaten than she would have been by the Ripple. The wind was high and each bout had as much sail as it was deemed prudent to venture with. On the first return from inlet buoy, the Ripple was greatly ahead, and finally she came into the wharf about a mile and a half in advance of all others; hen came the Rosa, then the Fannic, then the Lizzie. We regret to have to state that our friends "Willie Guss," in the Qui Vinc. and E. Kidder of the Carolina, had to with draw from the race on account of something being ont of gear. We are too much of a "high land terrapin" to tell what the technical names all are about the boats which caused them to give up the race. Only four out of the eight boats that started "came into port," When the Ripple sailed garly in the crowd began to cheer, and on arriving at the wharf she was presented with a most beautiful blue flag, which was handsomely painted on both sides with the coat of arms of North Carolina, and was a present from Mr. Pembroke Jones to the gallant comman.

to her mast-head, where it floated majestic Then came the presentation of the prizes by Commodore Wm. A. Wright, who, in his usual graceful and elegant style, presented the first prize to the Commander of the Ripple, Mr. Norwood Giles, and with it the Club Flag, which he said he was entitled to hold until the next regular race. This was handsomely responded to, on the part of Captain Giles, by Dr. G. G. Thomas. The Commodore then awarded the second prize to the Commander of the Rosa, Captain J. M. Cazaux, which was most gracefully received by Hon. A. A. McKay in behalf of the Commander.

Next came the third and last prize, which the Commodore said he was directed to state by the judges had been awarded the Lizzie, although the fourth boat in the race, in consequence of the Fannie having fouled the Lizzie, which was a violation of one of the established club rules. Captain George A. Peck came forward and received the prize for his boas in a neat little speech. regretted that he felt called upon to "take the cup, "but that he did solin justice to his boat and her gallant crew.

Thus ended a most joyful day at old Wrightsville Sound, and after congratulations on the part of the many friends of the champions, all began to wend their way homeward.

At night there was a gay dance at the Masonboro sound house. We did not go, but quietly wrapped ourselves in the arms and said it was 4 o'clock, and we must be off for home, and here we are again in the hot, dull streets of Wilmington, after a charming visit to the sound. At a regular meeting of Cape Feat Lodge, No. 2, held Tuesday night, the 4th Inst., Grand Master R. J. Jones, assisted by P. G. M. W. J. Yopp, P. G. M. W. L. Smith, P. Annual Commencement at the Academy of the Incarnation.

The usual annual commencement exercises of the Academy of the Incarnation, presided over by the Sisters of Mercy of this city, took place on Monday night last. A large and very appreciative audience, filling every particle of available space in the hall, was in attendance, which manifested every evidence of intense pleasure and gratification with the proceedings, which were of such a character as to reflect much credit upon teachers as well as pupils. The specimens of paintings and drawings by various pupils of the institution, which adorned the walls of the Academy, dis played a very creditable amount of genius and skill and attracted much attention conspicuous among which were the Pastelle paintings by the Misses Divine and Conigland, and the oil paintings of Miss Mary Darby. The vocal and instrumental music by the young ladies was especially fine and elicited universal commendation, among the most attractive of the instrumental performances being the piece by Miss Fannie Conigland and the Entrance March on the plano by Miss Josie Deans.

Among other attractions which characterized the exercises of the evening, and which added very materially to the gene ral enjoyment of the delighted audience. was a Centennial flag, gotten up for the occasion, in which the United States was represented by a young lady seated on a throne or dais, while other young ladies representing the different nations of the world, approached and tendered Centennial gifts to the youthful representative of the prosperous and progressive Republic in honor of its one hundredth anniversary. Other attractive performances interspersed the exercises, which altogether were ex ceedingly pleasant and noteworthy.

The programme of the regular exercise commenced with the entrance march on the piano, by Miss Josic Deans, which was followed by the salutatory by Miss Mary Divine, which was admirably delivered.

Board of County Commissioners, The Board met in regular session on Monday, July 3rd, at 4 o'clock P. M.; present, John G. Wagner, Chairman, and Commissioners S. VanAmringe, D. C. Davis and D. Nixon. The following applications having been made by the Boards of Trustees of the different townships for the following amount of taxes for the current year, the same were received and adopted, and ordered spread on the minutes, viz : One-twentieth of one per cent, on the one hundred dollars valuation for township of Harnett for current expenses for 1876; one-tenth of one per cent, on the hundred dollars valuation in Federal Point township for 1876; one-tenth of one per cent, in Cape Fear township on the one hundred dollars valuation for 1876: one-tenth of one per cent. in Masonboro township for 1876.

The following was received and ordered on file:

To the Honorable Board of County Commis sioners;—Your committee, after visiting the Poor House and Hospital, submit the following report: We find in the Poor House nine paupers. and would recommend that one of these, named Rufus Camel, be discharged. In the Hospital we find twenty-one pr ients. Of these, we recommend that the following named persons be discharged from the Hospital and transferred to the Poor House: Elizabeth Bowen, Nathan Bradley, Dolly Council, Frank Freeman, Charles Rolland, Patience Smith, Benjamin Vender, James Wilson, Roger Sloan; and we further recommend that Calvin Walker, now in the hospital, be discharged.

John G. Wagnen, Ch'mn. D. C. DAVIS.

The following preamble and order, of fered by Commissioner S. VauAmringe passed and were ordered to be spread on the

WHEREAS. The system now practiced by many Magistrates and their deputies is very expensive to the county, and believing that a great portion of said expense is unnecessarv and oppressive, it is, therefore, Ordered, That all unnecessary expenses incurred by said Magistrates and their deputies be disallowed; and be it further Ordered, That in all cases tried by the different Magistrates, they having jurisdiction of the same, either the prosecutor or defendant be adjudged to pay costs, and upon the non-payment of the same such parties shall be committed as the law directs. It was ordered that on the net incomes and profits other then those derived from property, taxed from any source whatever during the year preceding the first day of April in each year, there shall be a tax of two per cent. for county purposes. The following parties were allewed to retail liquor: W. H. M. Koch, J. C. Koch. Application of Dr. West for attending the out-door poor, was laid over until next It was ordered that the Chairman advertise for bids for a physician to attend the out-door poor for one year from the 1st day of August, 1876.

Fourth of July at the Temple-Interesting Services.

Through the courtesy of a friend we are able to give a brief outline of the services at the Synagogue on Tuesday. Rabbi Mendelsohn preached a sermon of unusual beauty and power from the text, "Magnify the Lord with me and let us together extol His name." He said that there were many and especial reasons why the Israelite should celebrate the one hundredth birth day of the Republic of America, though every American should be proud to commemorate that anniversary. He feelingly dwelt upon the fact that his people had no where else except in this country of religious freedom enjoyed the privilege of wor shipping the God of Abraham, as they chose to de, since they were driven from the land of Judah:

In this connection we would state that Rabbi Mendelsohn is every day growing more popular with his own congregation, as well as with his Gentile friends. He richly deserves this, and his discourses never fail to please and interest the listener, irrespective of his creeds and prejudices.

The singing by the choir was particularly fine, the choruses being varied by elaborate solos and duets by Mrs. Kahuweiler and Mr. Nathan Mayer. Two stanzas in the concluding hymn are striking for their appropriateness:

"The mighty States together bound O, let them rest on firmest ground: On truth and justice let them rest,

With freedom and with concord blest. "Bid freedom and the reign of peace Among all human kind increase.

Thy praise be told by every mouth, From East to West, from North to South

The 4th at:Moore's Creek.

We learn from parties who were presen that the celebration of the 4th at Moore's Creek was a grand affair. A crowd, estimated at about three hundred, assembled at the monument sacred to the memory of the heroes of 1776, who fought and bled near the spot, when Dr. S. S. Satchwell made a short introductory address, which was followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Black, of Pender county. Mr. Fletcher Bell then read the Declaration of Independence. Mr. Bruce Williams next addressed the crowd in a masterly effort of about thirty minutes, and was followed by Hon, Ed ward Cantwell in an address which consumed about an hour and a half in its delivery. Both addresses are alluded to in the highest terms and are said to have been replete with historical facts. A ball at Long Creek at night wound up the exercises of the day.

Mayor's Court Vesterday morning Primus J. DeLeon, colored, was ordered to pay a flue of $50 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets, for beating his wife, and Phillis Moore, colored, to pay a fine of $30 and costs or work for thirty days on the streets, for being drunk and disor-erner Worth.

The excursion to the sea-shore on the steamer Governor Worth, on the 4th, under the auspices of the St. George and St. Andrew's Athletic Club, was no doubt one of the most pleasant and enjoyable events of the day. The boat left Messrs, Lemmerman & Coney's wharf about 9 o'clock A. M. The crowd, under the wise management and foresight of the committee, who had previously intimated the course they intended to pursue in this respect, was just large enough to secure to those who were on board the comfort and convenience which are so essential in excursions of this character. The boat made the run to there about 11 o'clock, and those of the excursionists who did not join in the dance, some of whom had never been down the river before, engaged in the inspection of the very pleasant scenery on both sides of the Cape Fear and enjoyed the splendid breeze which prevailed. We have seldom seen a day more favorable in every respect for an excursion to the sea-side.

Arriving at Smithville, in the harbor of which lay at anchor the revenue cutter Colfax profusely decorated with flags, and a fleet of handsome pilot boats also flying their flags and streamers, altogether presenting a very gay and animated appearance, the excursionists were notified that the boat would stop there a half hour and then proceed to Bald Head, returning in time to witness the races which would then be arranged. The crowd then landed, visited the garrison' where they were politely received and met with courteous attentions, and strolled about the town generally, enjoying the excellent sea-breeze with which this pleasant senside town is always blest, and which renders it such an agreeable summer resort, after which, at the expiration of the half hour, many embarked on the TRIP TO BALD HEAD, while others remained and passed the interval in a pleasant dance at the Academy, in visiting friends, &c. The run to Bald Head, in the teeth of the stiff sea-breeze blowing, was intensely enjoyed; and upon landing at the beach the male portion of the crowd, numbering near a hundred, quickly selected a suitable spot, divested themselves of their clothing, and plunged into the briny waters of "Old Ocean," where they indulged in the luxury of serf-bathing to their hearts' content, than which there is not a better locality for such a healthy, in, vigorating and exciting sport, on the whole Atlantic coast. One of the swimmers who ventured rather too far out, was seized by the under-tow and in imminent peril of being carried beyond the reach of safety from his own exertions or assistance from his comrades, but luckily help was close at hand, and with a little assistance he was enabled to stem the treacherous current and come out of the dilemma unscathed. While the others were bathing a few of the excursionists repaired to the lighthouse, from the top of which a very fine view of the surrounding scenery is had.

After stopping here the necessary length of time-from a Half to three-quarters of an hour-the boat returned to Smithville, where the crowd again landed and enjoyed themselves in a manner best suited to their inclinations until the BOAT RACING was announced. After consultation, it was decided, for various causes, to have only one rowing race, with four oars. The boats entered were as follows: Captain C. C. Morse's, with Pepper, Weeks Newton, and Junius Newton, as crew; Jacob J. Thompson's, with Thompson, Polley, Davis and Benson as crew; Rankin Craig's, with Craig, Melvin Craig, Chesley Craig and Atkins as crew; George Piver's, with Piver, Haskins, Owens and Williams as crew. Capt. Morse's boat won the first prize, one pair of bracelets at $10, and Mr. Piver's boat the second prize, a pair of sleeve buttons valued at $5.

OTHER EXC URSIONS The arrival of the Governor Worth's party at Smithville was soon followed by that of the steamer Waccamaw, with the Cape Fear No. 3 firemen and a number of other colored people; and later by the steamer Douglass, which left Wilmington at 4 A. M. for the Blackfish Grounds. The party on the latter boat caught quite a number of fine fish, but the most of the excursionists got sea-sick on account of the roughness of the water. HOMEWARD BOUND.

The Gov. Worth started for home shortly after 4 o'clock and arrived at her whar soon after 6, the excursionists being well pleased with their trip. The dancing was kept up until the boat touched the wharf.

Horse Stealing. Mrs. Serena Smith, widow of the late Thomas Smith, of Middle sound, in this county, had a valuable mare stolen from her on Monday night last. She had been turned out to feed on the marsh, in compaby with John Corbett's horse. The latter did not return until late that night, and the mare has not since been heard of. The impression is that both were taken, but that the horse was subsequently released. A suitable reward is offered for the recovery of the mare.

The Execution on the Steamer Gov- Our Superior Court Clerk in Trouble James Heaton, the Superior Court Clerk of this county, has succeeded in getting himself into "hot water." It appears that at the last term of the Superior Court the Grand Jury, of which Mr. F. W. Foster was foreman, found true bills against Heaton for extortion. These bills when called for were not produced, and could not be found, whereupon His Honor, Judge Mc-Koy, ordered the arrest of Heaton and his deputy for contempt of court. While the papers were being prepared for service upon the parties by the Sheriff, by a special deputy, during a recess of the court, Heaton walked into the room, seized the paper upon which the special deputy was engaged Smithville in very good time, arriving and tore it up, remarking that he was Clerk of the court, or he accepted the service, or words to that amount. The parties not having obeyed the rule requiring them to appear and answer for contempt, His Honor, Judge McKoy, issued a bench warrant yesterday for their arrest, which was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Morris. The Deputy Clerk, Mr. Bishop, having appeared and made a satisfactory explanation, was discharged. Mr. Heaton, under the warrant alluded to, is required to give a justified bond in the sum of $10,000 for his future appearance to answer the rule for contempt. He was not to be found in the city and it was said by his friends that he had gone to Magnolia to address a political meeting, from whence he expected to return home last night. The matter was the subject of much comment on the streets yesterday.

Since writing the above we learn that Mr. Heaton was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Morris last night, and at last accounts he was in the Sheriff's custody at the Court House.

A Tilden and Vance Club at Smith-

The Democrets and Conservatives at Smithville held a meeting Monday night for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps towards forming a Tilden and Vance Club for the campaign. About fifty perns were present, on short notice. much enthusiasm prevailed. Dr. W. G. Curtis presided, and J. Prioleau, Jr., acted as Secretary. On motion of Dr. F. W. Potter, a committee, consisting of Dr. W. G. Curtis, M. C. Guthric, and Hardy Clemmons, was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws for the government of the club, to report at a meeting to be held on Monday evening next.

Dr. Brooks, of Washington City, then ddressed the Club relative to the respective duties of each member. Much satisfaction is expressed with both the national and State tickets, and we are assured that old Brunswick will do her whole duty in the campaign now before us. The 4th at28mithville. The 4th was ushered in at Smithville by a general ringing of bells and a salute by the revenue cutter. The display of bunting we have alluded to elsewhere. At noon the cutter fired another salute. In the afternoon, after the steamer from Wilmington had left the pilot boat Mary K. Sprunt dipped her flag as a challenge to the other boats, which was accepted by the Henry Westermann. A race then took place from "Horse Shoe," opposite Smith's Island, to the first buoy and back, a distance of about five miles. The Westermann came out about one hundred yards ahead. At night there was a general jubilee at the garrison, consisting of a sack race, a wheelbarrow race, jumping, a pig race, a scrub race, &c. There was a display of fireworks after the rolls. The prizes were made np and awarded by the officers. Improved Order of Red Men. At the first regular council sleep in Buck Moon, G. S. D. 985, of Wyoming Tribe, No. 4, I. O. R. M., the following chiefs
