Noticing Gen. Cox and the New York World's denial of the Inter-Ocean's trumped-up story about Vance's "secession speech" at the opening of the campaign this summer, the Chicago Tribune, a Repubhean paper, calls on the I.O. to explain or retract. The Tribane says: "No good comes of inventing calumnies upon political opponents." This is a good text, but we observe that the preacher wanders from it in his own practice.

We learn by the Norfolk Landmerk that a personal collision took wisce at Currituck Court House during a political discussion between Octavius Coke, Esq., and one Lindsey. The account states that a genral fight followed. At the time referred to the meeting was opened by Mr. Lindsey who, in the course of his remarks said that Governor Vance was afraid to meet him in a fair discussion, but had sent Octavius Coke, one of the greatest carpet-baggers and scalawags in the State, wherenoon Captain Coke struck him, when general fight followed. We suppose the Lindsey mentioned is the MacLindsey to whose tender mercies John Pool wished to entrust Gov. Graham and other Democratic leaders during Kirk times. Vance of course was on his regular canvass, which he could not break into simply to gratify Lindsey.

There was a Democratic speaking at Snow Hill, Greene county, on Satsurday last, at which speeches were snade by Col. Thomas S. Kenan, Jno. F. Wooten, Esq., Maj. J. A. Engel-hard, and Dr. Arendell, a recruit from the Republican ranks.

- Windy Billy Henderson was knocked down and beaten, on the street in Lexington, by Mr. Enniss, late city editor of the Raleigh News. Henderson attacked Enniss about an article which appeared in the News while the latter was connected with that paper.
