The scene of Hepworth Dixon's first and only novel is to be partly laid in the United States and partly in England, and its heroine will be a Southerner.

Freedom of the press has been extended in France by the decision of the Court of Appeals annulling the unwarrantable sentence of fine and imprisonment imposed on an editor for libeling the Chamber of Deputies.

COL WADDELL Col. A. M. Waddell, our gallant representative in Congress, will commence his canvass of this Congressional District on the 12th inst., at Carter's Mill, Moore county. His appointments extend through thirtysix days. He will close the regular canvass at Sanders' Store, Carteret county, on the 27th of Qc. tober, but will probably make speeches at different points during the last week of the campaign,

The Democrats of Massachusetts seem disposed to accept the suggescould not choose one that would be more likely to command the votes of all those Liberal Republicans who are sincere in the expression of their desire for reform. Mr. Adams is a pure man. He is one who believes that now the issues of the war are over we should seek to unite all the States in the bonds of fraternal union by promoting measures that tend to conciliation and peace. He regards the St. Louis platform as expressing more nearly the needs of the people than that adopted at Cincinnati. A Republican of many years standing and of a family whose members from the origin of the government were always either Federalists or Whigs, and never at any time Democrats, he now thinks that in the success of the Democracy lies the only hope of rescuing the country from the corruption that prevails in every department of the government, and that on the effort now making to accomplish this good work. Mr. Tilden is to be preferred to Mr.

THE DEMOCRATIC OUTLOOK IN BORTH CAROLINA.

At this time all things look bright and attractive. The canvass goes on finely. The State is being thoroughly canvassed. The Conservative speakers are acquitting themselves admirably. The people are enthusiastic and evidently in earnest.

This is what appears. Behind all this, however, lies the danger. Apparent Republican apathy may be a blind to deceive the Conservatives. The organization of the enemy is complete. To the audacity that leads them to successfully defy the law against secret societies, their leaders add the corrupt use of money and liberal promises of office. They are working secretly everywhere. There is no occasion with the eighty thousand negro votes in their party to make much public display. They are stronger without it. Let dent" against him. the Democratic leaders be wary as they are resolute. Too much confidence in stump speeches may prove a snare or a pit-fall. The Republicans are to be met most successfully in quite another arena than on the hustings. We do not depreciate calm, logical arguments and bold, earnest, thrilling appeals. Simply do not rely on them altogether. Chiefly work in quiet. See that all Conservatives vote the tickets headed respectively by Samuel J. Tilden and Zebulon B. Vance. See that doubting white Republicans are convinced that reform is to be found only in the Democratic Conservative party. See that our colored allies are not intimi-

The field is almost certainly ours. It must be won.

PREEDMEN'S BANK IN POLITICS. The colored people of the South are manifesting great interest in the result of the recent investigation made by the House of Representatives into the swindling management of the Freedmen's Bank. Bishop Allen, of the African Methodist Church of Alabama, has sent an order for 20,000 copies of the report of the committee and 20,000 copies of the speeches made by Saul Bradford, of Alabama, and Beverly Douglass, of Virginia, explaining the gigantic fraud perpetrated upon the depositors of that institution. The money to pay for the documents accompanied the order, the bishop stating that the money was contributed for the purpose by colored people. Senator Spencer, who wanted a committee of the Senate appointed to inquire into the causes which produced the overthrow of the Republicans, in Alabama at the late election, may find in this movement a substantial reason for the late political revolution in that State. This inquiry for information on the part of the colored people of the South is a healthy sign, and shows that they will not be longer led by the political adventu-sheville Citizen's View Transmontane Situation — other Notes and Gleaninge. The editor of the Asheville Citi zen has made a tour of a number of mountain counties with Gen. Leach and Messrs, Jarvis and Smith. . We copy some of his observations on the

In Haywood our friends are confident of a large increase in November over the Merrimon majority of 329, and declare a determination to increase this majority to 600 for the State and National ticket. From what we could learn from all portions of the county this estimate is not too high. A good county ticket has been placed in the field, and the names of Tilden and Hendricks, Zeb Vance and Jarvis are resounding from every hill-top.

In Jackson we find the same state of affairs existing, and were told of many leading Republicans in the county who had declared openly their intention to vote the Democratic ticket, although the red-legged grasshoppers, alias the Revenue element, are working like beavers to hold their own. The Merrimon majority of 388 will almost beyond question be increased to 450 for Vance and Reform.

In Macon, the home of the Hon. James L. Robison, who has so worthiy filled the Speaker's Chair in the House of Representatives for the last four years, there exists an unquestionably good feeling, and Messrs. Leach and Jarvis aroused a working enthusiasm that will be felt in November. In this county there are more than 200 voters who have not been to the polls for many years, nearly every one of whom are Democrats, and it is hoped and believed this vote will this year be induced to turn out, and from this fact the friends of Reform believe the Merrimon majority of 525 will be run up to 800 in November. The many friends of Capt. Robison will be pleased to learn that he has consented to run for the Senate in his District, embracing the counties of Jackson, Macon, Graham, Swain, Cherokee and Clay, and as he will be unques tionably nominated by the District convention he will as unquestionably be elected. It is understood that Dr. Levi Love will run as an "indepen-

Cherokee, which is one of the closest political counties in the West the vote being nearly equally divided. Merrimon received only 50 majority in Cherokee and Graham (voting together) in 1872, a decidedly good feeling prevails, and Messrs. Leach and Jarvis started anew an enthusiasm among our friends which will be aroused to kindling heat when Zeb. Vance reaches there next week. The very name of Vance is a tower of strength in this county, although there is a strong anti-element existing on the Georgia line. Our young friend, M. C. King, member of the last House of Representatives, has consented to run again and will undoubtedly be elected.

Graham and Swain counties possess an almost entire Democratic vote, and while in consequence no gain can be expected from there, our friends are determined to do their whole duty.

In Clay-one of the best counties in almost every respect in the westthe Radical vote of 142 in 1872 will be decreased, as we were informed of a number of Republicans who would support the Democratic ticket, and the Merrimon majority of 110 will be increased to 150 or more. Mr. W. H. McClure is spoken of for the House from this county, the nomination to take place during the second week of September. The people were anxiously awaiting the approach of Zeb Vance, who will commence his campaign through these counties in Hayesville on Monday

Transylvania, like some of the other western counties, have just enough Republicans to make a race between three or four Republicans interesting; but this year all seem united, which virtually gives us a solid vote for Vance and Reform.

Henderson has been voting the Republican ticket by a small majority, and may do so again, but our friends are hopeful. They will certainly reduce the Radical vote this year, as many Rads have come out for Vance and Jarvis. Billy Smith's attack on the Spartanburg Road, intended to injure and defeat it, don't take well in this county.

At every point Messrs. Leach and Jarvis made fine impressious, while Major Smith utterly failed to awaken any enthusiasm, except to incite afresh "deeds of valor" on the part of the "red-legged grasshoppers" who have so long preyed upon the people of this section.

> Smith's Game. [Asheville Citizen.]

Smith is working harder for Settle's election than he is for himself, because Settle is the choice of the N. C. R. R. ring, and if elected is to put Smith in charge of our Western road and defeat any work on it. The longer Smith can stay on it at $5,000 a year salary, the longer he and Settle will like it, and the longer it is uncompleted, the longer he can stay on

Radical Inconsistency. [Davidson Record.]

Don't forget that those men who pretend that the amendments ought to have been submitted separately, are the very men who in 1868 forced the people to vote all at once and in a bunch on 197 sections, good, bad and indifferent. Now they raise a cry—a great howl—because 30 sections are to be voted on in the same box. "Jonsistency, thou art a jewel." Inconsistency, thy name is these Rad-

Savannah Death Record.

[Savannah Morning News, of Friday] We republish below a report from the Cathedral (Catholic) Cemetery. This report was accidentally left at the News office last night. It will be observed that of the fourteen cases reported at noon yesterday as interments for the 30th, five were for the 31st, thus reducing the number of yellow fever interments in that cemetery on Wedneseay from ten to five. and reducing the total interments for that day to SEVEN INSTEAD OF TWELVE. We desire to call the attention of our authorities to the propriety of having these reports properly made out, and to suggest that, instead of withholding them an entire day, the report be handed in for publication he same day. In the report it will be seen that only one more death, Ino. Smye, is reported besides those in the regular report for Wednesday. By this irregular way of reporting the mortality by fever has been telegraphed from official sources to be almost twice the real number.

total interments yesterday at both cemeteries were thirteen, of which nine were yellow cases. We renew the suggestion that our authorities exercise a little more care in consolidating the mortuary reports. ANOTHER ERROR.

It will also be seen that T. McGuire and M. J. McGuire, in the official report, are one, and the same parties, reducing the number of yellow fever cases in this cemetery still further, and making the total eleven for two days, instead of ten for one day. Chicago as a Wileat Port.
