Efforts are making at Beaufort to establish a parochial school of the Episcopal Church.
In a difficulty between a man by the name of Sam Orr, and a colored man named Cooper, in Charlotte, Thursday evening, Orr cut Cooper in the abdomen, inflicting perhaps a fatal wound.

The vanquished Settle is doing his best to make it appear that he is denied the privilege of speaking at certain points.
Let the Conservatives see to it that he has full opportunity to speak, but let him not pervert the truth in regard to any interruption that may happen.

A special to the Index-Appeal from Enfield, dated September 3, says:
"The largest dwelling in town, owned by J. H. Parker and occupied by Dr. L. W.
Batchelor, was entirely destroyed by fire this evening. The sparks passed over the main part of town, communicated with a stable on the outskirts and burned that to the ground. The whole town was in danger. The loss cannot yet be ascertained."

"The Disposition of Mr. Hayes?" Governor Mueller, of Cleveland, Ohio, publishes a letter expressing his astonishment of Schurz's course in supporting Hayes. He says that Schurz invited him to the Convention of Liberals, and before the meeting read the address to him, and indicated how it was intended to exclude certain parties from nomination. He says:

"Nor can the author of the address be in doubt of it. Since this seems to be the case, however, I intend to assist his memory and remind him that when he read the address before me and my friend on the day preceding the conference, and made as acquainted with the intent, that he himself, after each section had been gone through with, called the names of the candidates that were meant, though not named; and that after reading to us the following:
"We shall support no candidate who, however favorably judged by his nearest friends, is not publicly known to possess those qualities of mind and character which the stern task of genuine reform requires, for the American people cannot now afford to risk the future of the republic in experiments on merely supposed virtue or rumored ability to be trusted on the strength of private recommendations."
"He turned to us and remarked plainly, and as if it were a self-evident matter, "This disposes of Mr.
Hayes."

Miscegenation at the North.
[From the Providence Journal.]
John H. Docher, of Charleston, S.
C., (mulatto) was married in Newport, R. I., Monday evening, to Jeanette Burbridge (white), daughter of one of the business men of that city. The marriage ceremony was performed by the pastor of the Union Congregational (colored) Church.
As it was generally understood that the wedding was to take place, a large and boisterous crowd of men, women and children congregated about the house and made night hideous. They threw stones at the house, broke windows and used the most insulting language, the women being the most demonstrative.
The police were summoned, but to no purpose. Tar barrels were burned, and the wedding was delayed in consequence of the mob. The bride had not lived at home for a long time, and her father, although opposed to the wedding, took no measures to prevent the union. The bride is a college graduate and very good looking.

The ancient Church of All Hallows in Broad street, London, is to be pulled down. Milton was christened in it, and in 1555 the rector, Lawrence Saunders, was executed for heresy by order of Queen Mary.

"J. N." the long-haired immortal philosopher who used to "assume the pressure" about once a year in Wheeling, is now an inmate of a lunatic asylum.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Munson & Co.—Clothing at cost.
BINFORD, CROW & Co.—Potatoes, &c.
Grand family excursion Wednesday.

Local Notes.
—Falling barometer, south and east winds, warmer, partly cloudy weather, and possibly light rains, are the predictions for to-day.

—A meeting of the Fifth Ward Democratic Club will be held at the Hinton school house, on Fifth street, to-morrow (Wednesday) night. Addresses are expected from prominent speakers.

—The Cape Fear No. 3 S. F. E.
Company were out with their engine, yesterday afternoon, for a run and practice.
The engine threw a fine stream, but the boiler needs repairing.

Had an Epileptic Fit.
A colored man, by the name of Martin, was picked up on the streets Saturday night in an epileptic fit. He was taken to the station house and a physician sent for.
He remained in a stupor until some time during Sunday, when he began to revive somewhat, upon which he was taken to the county hospital. We learn that he belonged to the Carolina Central road, about five miles from this city.

Communist Meeting.
We are requested by Mr. W. P. Oldham, Chairman, to state that there will be a meeting of the Executive Committees of the Fourth Ward Democratic Club at Hibernian Hall this (Tuesday) evening, Sept.
5th, at 8 o'clock. Business of importance will come before the Committee.

King, who has been on a visit North, and who has been quite ill during his absence, is expected home in a day or two. For the last day or two a report has prevailed on the streets that he was dead.

Excursions.
The Centennial excursion train, under the management of Capt. F. M. Wooten, will leave the Carolina Central depot tomorrow (Wednesday) afternoon, at 6:30 o'clock, going to Philadelphia by way of Charlotte, Danville and Richmond, on which the cost will only be $20, the ticket being good for thirty days. This is afforded a fine opportunity, and probably the last one, for visiting the Centennial at greatly reduced rates.
To-day there will be a grand excursion to Col. T. C. McIlhenny's plantation, under the auspices of the Christian Association of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, where the participants will engage in an enjoyable picnic during the day. The steamer North East will convey passengers to and fro, leaving Messrs. Lemmerman & Coney's wharf at 8 and 11 o'clock, a. m., and 2 o'clock, p. m. The Italian string band will be engaged, and refreshments will be supplied at city prices.

To-morrow there will be a family excursion to Smithville and Bald Head on the steamer J. S. Underhill. As it will probably be the last one for the season, to those points, it seems natural to suppose that a goodly number will participate in it. It will doubtless do all good to get one more "sniff" of the ocean breezes. The Italian string band will be in attendance, and refreshments will be furnished at city prices. The boat will start at 8 o'clock.

The Force of Habit.
It has become so natural with the leaders of the party of "great moral ideas," in their intense greed for the "spoils" of office, to gobble up everything that comes in their way, that they are even getting into the habit, good material being so scarce in their own ranks, of trying to "appropriate" prominent members of our own party with which to bolster up and give an appearance of respectability to their tickets. A case in point is now before us, in which a Tilden, Vance and Reform man has thus been Belknap'd by the Robeson Republicans, "without his consent and against his will."
That they got the wrong man this time is evidenced by the following:

A CARD.
On the 26th of August last I was nominated by the Republican County Convention as a candidate for County Commissioner. This nomination was made without my consent and against my will. Heaven forbid that I should be found in the Radical ranks. I now say to that party, "If you elect me I will not serve." Tilden, Vance and the Constitutional Amendments will of course receive my most hearty support.
LUMBERTON, N. C., Sept. 2nd, 1876.
JOHN MCNAIR.

The Rev. Mr. Taylor.
In reference to this gentleman, the esteemed pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, we take the following from the Calpeper (Va.) correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch: "The Rev. James B.
Taylor has been on a visit to his friends in Calpeper. Mr. Taylor was for a number of years after the war the Baptist minister at this place. Beloved by old and young of all denominations, a nobler-hearted, purer-minded man never lived than James B. Taylor. Since he left us he has been very ill at Wilmington, N. C., his new home, and was taken from his bed to the station on starting for Virginia. Since reaching here he has strengthened hourly, so that now he visits his many friends and acquaintances without fatigue or trouble.
We intend keeping him here until, refreshed in mind and body, we can wish him God-speed to the field of his new labors."

Sanitary Matters Again.
Four of the city carts, each under the charge of a health officer, are now going the rounds of the city, supplying disinfectants to our citizens, the health officers being directed to see that they are properly applied. The intention is to have every lot in the city disinfected.

The Ditches and drains in the outskirts of the city are being opened, so that no water can remain in them long enough to become stagnant, acting Mayor Cassidy having put a force to work yesterday to carry out this necessary precautionary measure.
In this connection we would state that citizens are requested, wherever there is anything to complain of as prejudicial to the health of the community, not to content themselves with making the fact known to a subordinate, but to communicate directly with the Mayor's office.

The Colored Militia.
At a meeting of the Brogden Light Infantry Company, held last night, the following officers were elected: Captain, S.
W. Nash; 1st Lieutenant, G. E. Berden; 2d Lieutenant, Fred. Bradley; 3rd Lieutenant, S. L. Dees.

The following are the civil officers: D.
Wiggins, President; D. Hunt, Vice President; R. P. Walker, Recording Secretary; G. E. Berden, Corresponding Secretary; S.
W. Nash, Treasurer.

Meeting of the Second Ward Club
Last Night.
The regular meeting of the Second Ward Tilden and Vance Club was held last night.
After the meeting had come to order and the usual routine of business had been transacted, Col. J. G. Burr was called upon and responded in his usual happy style.
His speech was replete with pure rhetoric and sound, logical argument, and was received with much applause. After he had continued his remarks for about fifteen minutes, the Colonel stated that as he noticed Maj. J. A. Engelhard was present in the meeting, he would desist from any further remarks in order that "we might all enjoy a speech from our worthy candidate for Secretary of State."

Loud calls were then made for "Engelhard," who, in coming forward to respond, was greeted with rapturous applause. He spoke at considerable length, during which he stated that in the sixteen or eighteen Eastern counties he had visited, together with two or three of the middle counties, he was convinced that there would be an increase of at least four thousand votes over that given for Merrimon. At every place where he spoke the people turned out almost en masse to hear him, old and young, white and black. A great many of the older men in his audiences, who said they had not voted at any election since the war, informed him that they should certainly vote in the coming election, if their lives were spared, for Tilden, Vance and Reform. And it is thus, said the Major, that we shall make our principal gains in the approaching election. His remarks throughout were full of encouragement and were received with great applause.

At the conclusion of Maj. Engelhard's speech, there being no further business to transact, the meeting adjourned.

Branswick County Items.
A correspondent, writing from Smithville, gives us the following items: The past week has been one of excitement for our town. Besides Court, Monday night the Democratic Convention met in the Court House and nominated the County officers. Tuesday night Hon. A.
M. Waddell addressed the people in a fact-and figures. The house was crowded.
Wednesday night the Tilden-Vance Club was addressed by Mr. John D. Bellamy.
Thursday night there was speaking by Judge Watts ("Greasy Sam," so-called) and Col. Oliver H. Dockery. Judge Watts addressed the people in his peculiar style, keeping their mouths well stretched with laughter. Col. Dockery's speech was a truly political one. Great enthusiasm is manifested by both parties in this place.

It was ordered by the Board of County Commissioners, at their last meeting, that the voting precinct at J. J. Gay's store be discontinued, and that a new one be established in the town of Summerville, in the grove between the church and the main road, and that the clerk be required to post notices thirty days previous to the day of election.
It was also ordered that the people of Waccamaw township be specially requested, at the general election in November, to vote for a site for a bridge across Waccamaw river.
The Board adjourned to meet on the 15th inst., to affect a settlement with the sheriff and treasurer.

THE HEALTH OF CHARLESTON.

Order to put a quietus to any rumors that may obtain circulation on the streets, we give the following telegram from the Superintendent of Health of Charleston, in response to an enquiry from the acting Mayor:

CHARLESTON, Sept. 2, 1876.
J. J. Cassidy, Mayor pro tem.
Charleston is perfectly healthy, and free from fever of any kind, and has been for the past two years.

For the Mayor, ROBT. LEBBY, M. D., Health Officer.

WARRANTS.

Warrants were issued yesterday for the arrest of a number of young men concerned in a row in the southern portion of the city Saturday night, in which a young man by the name of James E. Roderick got badly cut. The cases will be heard before Justice Cassidy this morning. Much complaint is made concerning disturbances of this character in that quarter of the city, and we are informed by the authorities that they are determined to put a stop to such proceedings.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Maria Hall, colored, arraigned on the charge of disorderly conduct, was ordered to be put to work on the streets for thirty days.
Harriet Farrell, charged with the same offence, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 and the costs.
Aaron McCamber, charged with drunk-ness on the public streets; judgment suspended on the payment of costs.
Another party was arraigned on the charge of drunkenness, but the case was dismissed.

Shooting Club, will take place at the Ath-ning at 3 o'clock. It will probably be a spirited contest.

Pole Raising, &c.

We learn that there will be a pole and flag raising at Thees' store, in Brunswick county, in the course of a week or so. A friend just from that section says the people are enthusiastic for both the State and National tickets of the Democratic party.

Second Ward Committee Meeting.

We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee

Mrs. Engelhard.

This gentleman, Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, has been in the city for a few days resting from his labors in the campaign. He will go on his western cavass in a day or two.
Maj. Engelhard is confident that the State ticket will gain four thousand votes east of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. He is likewise sanguine as to the general result. He will make a special tour of the northwestern counties, which have never in any campaign received the attention bestowed upon other portions of the State, owing to the fact that there are no railroad facilities in that section. From accounts sent to us and from newspaper reports, we judge Maj. Engelhard has been making an earnest and effective cavass. He is in fine physical condition, and will be able probably to stand even increased labors in the salubrious environment which he will soon set his face.
